1.1

Hi fellow readers! I recently read 'Love Can Do Miracles', it's from the same author as Eastern Palace. I find it quite similar to the novel afaasun/evida is currently translating, Ba Ai Mou Qin (霸爱谋情). Both male leads married the female leads unwillingly, their marriage is only out of obligation. Both female leads are entirely in love with the male leads yet unable to accept the fact that their husbands does not love them, or so they think...

In Ba Ai Mou Qin, Feng Jin Cheng marries Ji Qing because of family obligations. While in Love Can Do Miracles, Lu Yu Jiang marries Ye Jing Zhi due to her dying sister's last wish. Both women after going through divorce finds out they're pregnant.

Even though there are similar traits to both novels, but there are also many difference that differentiate them apart. I like Ye Jing Zhi a lot more than Ji Qing because Jing Zhi stands up to Yu Jiang and speaks her mind. Ji Qing is too introverted, she does not express her views, which causes a lot of unnecessary misunderstanding between the couple that could have been avoid to start with. Jing Zhi also has a kick-ass personality, which I love reading.

By all means, I'm not saying these characters are less/more perfect. Imperfection is what makes a person so perfect. That's if the person you love can appreciate your qualities and learn to accommodate your negative traits. Then I believe this is unconditional love.

This is one of rare novels that Fei Wo Si Cun have written that has a happy ending. There's a lot mixed reviews about the novel from readers. I think it all comes down to personal preference, some may love this book while others will dislike it, especially if you can't accept the whole concept of brother-in-law and sister-in-law romance.

The novel only consists of 14 chapters with an epilogue. I found it quite a light and enjoyable read. While reading this I went through a roller-coaster of emotions, however the last chapter and epilogue does make it for it. I'll be translating a small part of chapter 1 to give you a glimpse of the novel.

Brief Summary:

All my life I desire/wish to be cherished, to be safely placed, to be tenderly looked after. To free me from fear and suffering. Exempts me from wandering without any reliance. However, that person, I knew, I've always knew, he would never come. Trying to stay together with the person who once loved and lost my elder sister, how could I, the obstinate Ye Jing Zhi endure my heart being disappointed by the poison tongue of my 'brother-in-law'? Finally, after the successful divorce, I was being 'eyed' by another gentle 'brother-in-law'.

In order to protect the 'little soy bean' in my womb, I, Ye Jing Zhi have no choice but to begin a long-term battle with my two invincible 'brother-in-laws'.

Confuse with love, as the misunderstanding and exponentially increased, fate also suddenly gave Ye Jing Zhi a cruel strong punch. Will Ye Jing Zhi finally able to believe that love can create miracles and have a happy ending with her Mr. Right? You may also believe that love can create miracles...

Disclaimer: updated (certain words have been taken from decembi's [translation of the summary in her review of the novel ) The synopsis are translated by me. It's not perfect but will do.

Chapter 1.1

The elevator ding sound, we have arrived. With vigorous strides I walked out, I strode along the corridors and turn left passing by those messy indoor plants and arrived at the glass desk, where a delicate beauty sat. It's estimated that this beauty have been secretly tipped off with my arrival, so she immediately got up and tried to stop me, she didn't think that my 10 years of Taekwondo [1] was trained in vain, right? A slap on the face has caused her back up against the wall, she had no time to scream, when I have fiercely bang flung the door open.

The great beauty finally caught up in front of me with a symbolic block, "Sorry, Lu Zong, I couldn't stop her....."

The man sitting behind the desk, his eyebrows didn't once lift up, but he also didn't utter a single word. The beauty has been very discreet, also disappeared and closing the door behind her.

I rushed up to hold Lu Yu Jiang's tie, and ferociously spat out every single word, "F*ck you! Second Uncle!"

Yu Jiang slowly removed his gold-rimmed glasses, and then slowly broke free my fingers that grabbed his collar, and finally slowly said, "Ye Jing Zhi, you know, I am our family's only son of five generations, I'm not second uncle."

I have not been so angry that I lost my mind, because I know not bicker with this bastard, as long as the one catch on his words, then, in the end, I am certain I can clearly with reason, it is imperative not to waste any more words with him.

The person who last directs the rejection ultimatum will be the one who'll leave.

“Get out!” Once again, I grabbed his tie roaring towards him, “I’ll give you 24 hours, you immediately get out of my house, or else I’ll throw you and your things out.....”

“This is also my house.”

With that mentioned, my flames were fanned, back then I really had eyes of a blind dog..... Not right, it was dog blood rushing through my brain that I will sign the agreement.

“Good! You don’t move, I’ll move!”

“Article seven of the divorce agreement, those move out of the house, even if it was voluntary will give up half of their property, all given to the other person.”

Holly crap!

I brought the villa when I was married to this ass*le, at the time we brought it the market price was about 20 million, then later the real estate prices soared, especially the villa. Earlier I have made inquiries, it is now valued at least 50 million!

Half of the property is 25 million!

Even if you beat me to death, I also can’t take about twenty million yuan to hand out to people ah!

Especially to this ass*le!

So I let go, fiercely left the following sentence, “Since you’re not going to roll out of here, then it is best to keep a little grace, we should learn to coexist and live peacefully, stop meddling in my personal life!”

“Who is interested in snooping on your personal life?” Yu Jiang has loose the tie that I had twisted, he remain immutable and completely indifferent, “My flight was delayed, so I only got home at midnight, who knows you have a hobby of making out with your boyfriend in the living room.”

“Dog sh*t!” I have had a lousy choice of words, “Which eyes of yours saw me making out with him?”

“Oh, at twelve o’clock in the morning, one man, one woman sitting on the couch talking about life and the ideals of Russia beating Georgia?”

His eloquent more than slightly annoyed me, Buddha said that if the mind there is Buddha then you will see Buddha, if one’s mind is dog shit then one will see dog shit, and if one’s heart see ill deeds [2], then what one see will be ill deeds.

I looked up, very arrogantly said, “It’s none of your business! I can get intimate with whoever I want in the living room, you never mind who I discuss life and ideals about Russia beating Georgia, also discussing about Italy’s eighty-one type of chandelier paper clips.”

He nodded, “It is none of my business, but now you ran into my office to kick up a fuss, it will interfere with me.”

The thought of this made me angry, just before who was the thief who cried thief [3]?

“You!” I loudly complained, “You, came home in the dead of night, we are clearly divorced, there’s no relationship between us. But you still order me to bring this and that, even called me to find you a bathrobe, yet you still talk nonsense, you finally made Cao Bin Yuan angry and left.....”

“Cao Bin Yuan.”

He finally frowned, “I hate that name.”

“It sounds better than Lu Yu Jiang.” I have gone mad, “Cao Bin Yuan is a young talent, he’s a famous designer, full of wit, it was more than likely I was hitting on him. He’s younger than you, more capable than you, have more grace than you, have more humor than you, is better than you one thousand times, ten thousand times.....”

He finally interrupted me, “Congratulations.”

For a moment I couldn’t get around that.

His mouth has a faint smile, “You found such a good boyfriend, then hurry up and buy half the property off my hands, so that the whole house is yours, in the future you guys can be affectionately intimate, you also don’t need to worry.”

This assh*le is bullying me, he thinks that in this lifetime, I shall never earn more than 25 million.

I suddenly felt heartbroken, it's been such a long time, but I still felt heartbroken.

"Lu Yu Jiang, in this world you're not the only wealthy person. Originally because of your wealth I marry you, but you have the property notarization before marriage, finally after we divorced, there's only this joint house, I have no way to sell half of the property, because the divorce agreement states it can only be sold to you....."

"Now you feel it's unfair?" He sneered, "If you want to obtain something, there's always a small price to pay."

"I've paid enough." I was completely out of hand, "You guard your money over a lifetime! I don't want the house! I'll move out! I was crazy to endure for so long! I'm also crazy to live in this house! I was a real assh*le, major assh*le [4]!"

I turn around to rush out of the office, the great beauty that sat in front of the computer outside was startled, I didn't pay her any heed and rushed to the elevator and desperately pressed the button, the elevator has not come up, but my tears has fallen down.

I'm afraid of being seen, not waiting for the elevator to come up, I took the stairs down.

While walking I cried, I'm so futile to cry like this. From walking down 38 floors, I walked for nearly half an hour, and cried until I developed a headache.

It's been a long time since I have a headache, it seemed like the last time was during postgraduate exam, with a headache the entire time I desperately try to solve the simulation questions.

No, the last time it was time was when I quarrel with, Lu Yu Jiang. I was hysterical with a splitting headache, but he only laughed, "Besides loving money, what else do you love? You marry me, was it not for the money?"

Every word pierced my heart, if it was the eight o'clock TV series, the female lead would have spit out a mouthful of blood, but I just have a headache, wanting to spew, almost desperately said, "Yes, I love money, if you want a divorce we can, just give me the money.”

He didn't throw a cheque into my face, just let me leave.

Lu Yu Jiang would not be so foolish, even if he is willing to his lawyers also refused to divorce agreement, our divorce settlement said to be represented by a barrister, as appropriate, after drafting and modified many times by an elite legal team, they finally got me to sign my name.

At that time I was almost penniless. After the marriage, I did not work, so naturally I had no income. All I have/own was given by Lu Yu Jiang, so I signed the papers. Under such humiliation [5] there's always the right to feel deflated and ashamed. I wasn't even in the position to ask for amendments, how was it possible for me to negotiate?

With no place to go, I imperceptibly walked to the park, I felt my headache, sitting alone on a bench.

Fortunately, I have not cried again.

I hate how I looked when I cried, it was very ugly, very hideous.

I'm not beautiful, initially after the engagement with Lu Yu Jiang, the college's senior and junior sister looked for sorts of excuses come to the laboratories to visit me, after visiting one's hope was greatly disappointed, “Why does Yu Jiang fancy her?”

She's not beautiful, she often fights, she mostly love using foul language, her academic achievement can only be considered faded in the past, very average. She didn't even have a fair maiden aura, plus her intellectual lack noble words of any kind.

Why would a diamond bachelor like Lu Yu Jiang fancy her?

This is a secret, only Lu Yu Jiang and I knew.

Early in the marriage, we still get along very well, he pretended to be an affectionate, I obediently followed and make grand gestures, in front of others, we are a loving couple. Also, when there were magazines interviews to do, in our new home I was a small bird his arm to allowing journalists to take pictures. I still remember the story title, called “Recently the happiness in the world”.

It gave people goose bumps, how laughable.

I'm well aware that in this life the word happiness did not apply to me.

Sitting on the bench, silly staring at the lake's water, the lake there was full of lotus, a toad squatting lotus leaf, if it is a frog, it may turn into a prince, like Cinderella, in fact, is the daughter of an earl, a true nobility. So that's why she can capture/charm the heart of the Prince, and lived a blissful life.

Then there's Cinderella's wicked sister, even after cutting off the heel she still could not fit into the crystal slipper, also causing others to laugh was the toad wishing to eat the swan's meat [6].

I have reverted back to a toad.

If you can read Chinese, the novel can be found here. For those who can't read Chinese I think this novel is quite do-able with Google translate.

1.2

suteki: There's only 8 chapters left of Black Belly Boss, Don't Run which is quite exciting to almost finish the novel. So I decided to pick this novel as my third translation project, because I really like the female lead, she's quite different from your typical female lead, which I find quite refreshing.

I think it's quite doable since the novel only contains 14 chapters. The release will most likely be once every two weeks. I would like to have Black Belly Boss, Don't Run completed before investing more time on this novel.

I have translate the remaining part of chapter 1 to kick things off, we get a glimpse of both of their feelings / love for each other. But both are equally stubborn to admit this. Also I do not agree with Yu Jiang's actions here, intercourse should be a mutual thing, it should not be forced upon.

Chapter 1.2

The mobile phone keep on vibrating in my purse, I see the number and immediately stop grieving over the passing of spring [1], because it is the boss who called.

[1] 伤春悲秋 Shāng Chūn Bēi Qiū: feel sad with the advent of autumn ; shed tears over the changes of seasons

The world is boundless, the boss is the greatest, if he wants you to stand living, you cannot die sitting.

“Ye Jing Zhi.” The boss seemed very angry, “I just wanted you to send some data, where have you’ve been?”

“I’ll be right back.”

Towards work one should learn to cherish, so even if love fails, lose your virginity, been divorced, you can also live on.

Returning to the office working hard until six pm, as expected, it's was really exhausting, whatever thoughts I had were gone.

This year whatever grief I felt will have to wait until I have capital, otherwise even if I have the time and energy it'll be useless. In those years when I was Mrs. Lu, every day I was free to quarrel with Lu Yu Jiang, now that we're divorced, even arguing I did not have the grief ability.

I called Chen Mo, informing him where he needed to go for the next two days, and wait until I find a place and then move.

It is as expected, Chen Mo cried as if his buttock was on fire, "Ah? You are going to move out? Then what about the 25 million?"

Recently since I got divorced I would often boast to Chen Mo, "Wait until I get half of the houses sold, I will have 25 million, then I'll be a wealthy person."

I didn't tell Chen Mo as part of the divorce agreement, half of the property can only be sold to Lu Yu Jiang, or else Chen Mo will certainly loudly curse that I'm an idiot. But who can calculate Lu Yu Jiang? My whole body with my head being eaten was not enough.

"I spent it all", I lightly touch on it and said, "Look, all of a sudden I spent 25 million, aren't I awesome?"

Chen Mo half believe and half doubt, finally he actually seems to believe me, "Even a husband like Lu Yu Jiang you dare to not want, in one breath spending 25 million, I guess you really could have done it."

I went to McDonald's to buy a hamburger, and then sat in the store and finished eating, watching the color of the sky slowly getting darker. Across the street there is a big city square, a couple walking by fountain, also elderly walking by, and mothers with their children.

They all walked leisurely, but I wasn't in a hurry. I could catch the last train back on the line, it's best if Lu Yu Jiang was already asleep, that way it'll be more convenient to pack my belongings.

Speaking of packing my belongings, there also wasn't much, after our divorce I've gone through untold hardships to find work, when received my first month's salary, I went and brought several sets of work clothes.

I remember when I return home, Lu Yu Jiang precisely was at home, seeing my bags, he also ridiculed, "You still have not convergent a little? Beware not to max out your credit card.”

I once quarrel with him because I max out a credit card, Lu Yu Jiang's credit card ah, I estimate the bank was happy to death.

It was so rare, for the first time in many years I was filled with the feeling of exaltation upon fulfilment, I said, “I spend my own money, its does not concern you.”

I often use foul language in front of Lu Yu Jiang, every time he would be very angry, that time he became the most ruthless, so I felt very good, I finally felt like I've regain a sense of perception.

I have purposely waited until midnight to return home, who knew that Lu Yu Jiang have not returned.

Very good, maybe that ass*le is busy making money, have gone and flew thousands of miles away.

I did not have any other little thoughts, I placed a few simple clothes in the suitcase, the room was empty, I sat on the bed in a daze. Ever since the big quarrel we had, Lu Yu Jiang moved to the guest room until our divorce. Therefore, I have always lived in the master bedroom. After our divorce, I packed all his things into cartons and placed them in the hallway, let him clear it up. And the things that was ours, I threw them all away.

There wasn't much that belonged to us, just wedding photos, also a teddy bear.

After our marriage Lu Yu Jiang hate me hugging him to sleep, but if I didn't hug something I could not sleep, so he bought the teddy bear, on the bed there was a demarcate line, the teddy bear was placed in between the demarcate line. Sometimes in the middle of the night if I got carried away, and I crossed the line, he will push out the teddy bear, most of the time I was woken by this, and then obediently return to my own side.

How depressing, not even a little good memory.

I carried the suitcase downstairs, the lights downstairs have not been turned on, I could not see anything in the dark, I felt around the wall for a while before finding the switch, the bright light gave me a fright, because Lu Yu Jiang sat on the sofa.

He comes and goes like a shadow, this is really terrifying.

What time did he come back, I was on the second floor, how I did not hear anything?

His eyes fell on the suitcase in my hands, then falls on my face, in any case I'm also a pot that's been broken, I didn't even want the 25 million, why would I be afraid of him? So with my head held high and chest out, I firmly stared at him, and walked to the door.

"Ye Jing Zhi."

I ignore him, he shook the remote control in his hands, the door entrance lock, why did this ass*le lock the entrance door?

"What do you want?"

"Open the box."

I was angry and raised my voice, "What do you want?"

"How do I know that you didn't steal anything?" His lips had this faintly discernible intent smile, "All the rooms are unlocked, the house has many antiques."

A scholar prefers death than humiliation! [2]

[2] 士可杀不可辱 Shì Kě Shā Bù Kě Rǔ: One can be killed, but can not be humiliated!

All the blood rushed to my head, I lifted up the suitcase and forcefully threw it at him, but the separation was too far, the box fell in the middle of the room on the carpet. The lock on the suitcase was originally not locked, so the zipper release, the suitcase cover loosen and open, the clothes inside all fell to the floor. I was like a madman screaming at him, "You look ah! You can have a look! Have I stole any valuable things? You widened your eyes and look, what have I taken? I tell you, the socks you have used your money to buy, I would not take a pair, even if I love money, and greed for wealth. I don't need your money, because you really make me feel sick! Nausea!" I hoarsely shouted at him, just like those Taiwanese Drama roles, I know I must also look fierce, but there is no way to control it.

In the room there was a short silence, I wiped my tears, place all the important things back into the suitcase. I have not walked away from the principal, because my next pay check is still too early, I want to rent a house, I had no money to buy clothes again. He sat there and did not move, even his tone was cynicism as usual, "Very good, I initially thought in this lifetime you would never cry."

Who said I won't cry? Today I have cried twice, once was because of him, another is also because of him.

He changed the door's password, I could not leave, I went limp sitting on the suitcase, leaning back against the cold door, I just felt exhausted, "Lu Yu Jiang, what do you want? It has been more than a year since we've been divorced, I have endure this for more than a year, now I can't bear it anymore, I admit defeat, I'm moving out, I don't want the house, I'm cleanly leaving the family, why do you bother forcing such a struggle?"

"You owe me." The tone in his voice became colder, like the cool night outside the window, "Don't think you can just take off, not so easily."

Kao!

I'm not playing!

I lost sense of reasons, pounce at him and kicked, "Lu Yu Jiang, you jerk! Open the door for me!"

I laid hands on him very ruthlessly, but accounted I was at a disadvantage, I practised Taekwondo for more than 10 years, while he has practised kick boxing for more than 20 years, so in the end he threw me over his shoulder and I fiercely fell hard to the ground, the back of my head heavily hit on the sofa's ebony feet, so painful that all I could see was darkness, nasal discharge and tears flowed out, my entire body weakly slumped on the ground.

I must have been left with brain damage, because I felt dizzy, even Lu Yu Jiang's face in front of me all of a sudden spun around towards me, and suddenly spun away, "Ye Jing Zhi! Ye Jing Zhi!"

He seemed a little anxious, patted my cheek, and rubbed the back of my head where it's been hit, I felt his voice was so close to me, but it seems far away. I feel terrified, just like all those other nights, I felt very afraid, I would hold onto the teddy bear that he bought for me, in my heart, and muttered, “Don’t leave me..... Please don’t leave me.....” I don’t know what I’ve said, I just felt a burst numbness on the back of my head, just like the headache pains in the past, so painful that I felt nausea, wanting to vomit. I trembled not knowing whose name I was calling, perhaps my mother, perhaps my elder sister.

“Jing Zhi..... Jing Zhi.....” My elder sister gently calling my name, “Lu Yu Jiang will take care of you, he promised me, he will take care of you.....”

I have a terrible headache, I don’t want Lu Yu Jiang, I only want my elder sister, I would rather spend the rest of my life alone than live with a complete stranger like Lu Yu Jiang.

I should not be greedy, I should not be greedy..... It’s just wasn’t me, he simply should not belong to me, this is retribution.

“Jing Zhi..... Ye Jing Zhi.....” His face in front of me, my pupil heavily dilated, just like a camera’s zoom. Lu Yu Jiang’s eyelash was very long, also slightly curved, I often wanted to wait until he fell asleep and secretly pull a strand, however every time I would have fallen asleep before he did.

I must have fallen asleep again, because I dreamt of Lu Yu Jiang, he gently calling my name, rubbing where my headache was, lowered his head and planted a kiss on my lips, although it was very lightly. When was the last time he kissed me? Two years ago? Three years ago? I almost greedily inhaled his scent, refusing to release him. He held me close, I heard his chest thud, his heart pounding, he muttered while kissing me, “Jing Zhi..... I miss you.....”

I suddenly awakened, as if my head has been poured with ice water, my temple was palpitating, my entire person jumped up, suddenly like a rabbit, running far away.

He half knelt, half sitting, his chest slightly rose and fell, staring at me.

It was like being poured with sulfuric acid, from the tip of my tongue down to my stomach, all like sizzling toxic smog that has leapt to my forehead. I was certainly awake, although my head felt excruciating, although I felt pain somewhere on my body. My mouth parched and my tongue scorched, I certainly had to say that sentence, “You look carefully, I’m Ye Jing Zhi, I’m not Ye Jìng Zhi

[3], Jìng Zhi is dead.”

[3] 竟知 Jìng Zhi: So Jing Zhi and her elder sister's name has the same ping ying but it's actually different Chinese characters and meaning. 景 Jǐng meaning scenery while her elder sister's name 竟 Jìng means complete/unexpected.

His face was white as a ghost, I think my complexion wasn't any better off.

For a long time he did not move, I didn't either.

Finally my feet felt numb, I could hardly stand, I searched for the remote control, and placed it into his hands, “Open the door, I want to leave.”

He didn't open the door, instead the remote fiercely fell to the ground, fortunately the carpet was thick, I rushed to pick up the remote control, and he rushed in like a madman to tear my clothes. I have never seen such a ferocious Lu Yu Jiang, his forehead was bursting with blue veins, as if he wanted to swallow me alive. Even before, when he made me frantically angry, he also used up more harsh words to infuriate me to death. But today he must be crazy, I know, I know I already mentioned he has lost his senses. I tried very hard to resist, who knew my strength were inferior than his. He caused me much pain, even more painful than the first time. The first time was when he was drunk, he actually thought I was my elder sister, I took this opportunity [4] to coax him to bed. (Obviously in this context, it's referring to sexually seducing him and doing “it”) Then threatened him, blackmailing him with guilt and moral values, and finally he had no choice but to marry me.

[4] 顺水推舟 Shùn Shuǐ Tuī Zhōu: Push the boat along with the current — make use of an opportunity to achieve one's end ; make use of the favourable current situation to push matters through with little effort.

He did not take a knife and forcefully asked me, “Why do you want to marry me?”

But why was he so obnoxious, still willing to marry me? Even after marriage, there also were some certain aspects of he xie (harmonization) [5], although Lu Yu Jiang was a neat freak, after he xie was done he'll be far away from me as possible, shall not let me exceed the demarcate line and touch him.

[5] 河蟹; Hé Xiè: An internet slang terms created by Chinese netizens in reference to Internet censorship or the other censorship of China. The word use in this context refers to sexual intercourse between the couple.

I thought about the question numerous times, finally I inadvertently heard Chen Mo say, “Men will separate love and sex, when he’s hugging you indefinitely he could be thinking of someone else.”

I know who Lu Yu Jiang would be thinking of, he would think of my elder sister, Ye Jìng Zhī.

However, but I know I don’t look one bit like my elder sister. She is pretty, gentle and kind, like a white orchid (gardenia) flower, and I was covered in spines, my heart and liver were black.

In the beginning I thought I could endure it, the results I have overestimated myself. Overwhelmed by grief, I would cry in my dreams, as long as he’s away on a business trip, every night I was so scared that I would remain shivering, so scared that I could not sleep, afraid that he would never return. However, once he return home, I also found reason to quarrel with him, because I know why he treat me with benign countenance, he was reminded of my elder sister, he thought of Jìng Zhī. Every single time I would become hysterical, and he would contrast sharply with me, if it wasn’t for Jìng Zhī, if he had not promised her to take good care of me, I estimate our marriage also wouldn’t last for more than three years.

Chapter 2

In the three years, Lu Yu Jiang and I were completely exhausted, we did things to make the other person feel more disgusted, in the end we finally separated.

He ferociously bit my lips until I felt the pain, I also bit his. At the last moment, I almost want to die, the fishy smell and bitter blood flowed through my teeth. As I felt weakly dizzy a thought crossed my mind, if this was the last time, yet I didn't even treat him gently.

When I woke up, he was already gone.

I slept on the living room's sofa, clutching his shirt sleeves, the shirt was like rag there. I must have clutched on tightly, so he took off the shirt, and strategy escaped [1]. When we first married, I once fell asleep clutching his pyjamas refusing to let go, this is also what he did. With a splitting headache I climbed up to find a set of clothes to change.

[1] 金蝉脱壳 Jīn Chán Tuō Qiào: A cicada casting off its skin ; a disappearance act from an entangled situation.

The suitcase was resting by the door, and the door closed, I began to try various passwords.

My elder sister's birthday, incorrect.

Lu Yu Jiang's birthday, incorrect.

My elder sister's original mobile phone number, incorrect.

Lu Yu Jiang's mobile phone number, incorrect.

I finally gave up on this difficult task of guessing the password, after all, I could never guess what Lu Yu Jiang was thinking, to guess his password is simply out of the question, fortunately, there was another way I could leave.

I carry the suitcase to the second floor, open the balcony doors through the master bedroom. I threw the suitcase down on the lawn, and then I climbed down along the terrace.

A smooth landing.

I patted my bottom, picked up the suitcase and left.

I ran to Chen Mo's place, Chen Mo did not scream upon seeing me, instead he shove a mirror towards me, "Jing Zhi, you have a look, how did you end up looking like a ghost? Did you get robbed?"

I saw myself in the mirror with dishevelled hair and a dirty face, just like a devil, "I was robbed and sexually harassed! Not to mention indescribably bad luck."

Chen Mo "puff" a laugh, his finger pointed to my forehead, "With your appearance, there's still someone who would sexually harass you? Do you think everyone is Lu Yu Jiang, whose head is broken to fancy you?"

In fact, he was wrong, even if Lu Yu Jiang's head was broken, he would not fancy me.

I put the suitcase into the closet, and boldly laid down in his big comfortable bed, "Beauty is in the eye of the beholder, just like how you think Lu Yu Jiang is the best man in the entire world."

For several seconds I didn't hear Chen Mo's reply, I turned over and looked at him, unexpectedly, he faintly sighs, "It is you who is fortunate, you can justifiably be together with him, marry him, even after the divorce, yet you can still live with him under the one roof, this is a happy thing....."

I didn't have goose bumps, because I know what he said is true. In front of me Chen Mo never conceal his feelings for Lu Yu Jiang, he even knew Lu Yu Jiang much earlier than me, but Lu Yu Jiang's sexual orientation is normal, so Chen Mo was in a cavity love, seems like he has fallen into a pit.

I didn't have any discrimination against Chen Mo, what's wrong with loving someone? Even if you accidentally fall in love with a homosexual, that is because the fate played a small joke.

Chen Mo and I without much effort stared at each other and deeply sigh, because the time to work has arrived, I jumped up and combed my hair, washed my face and brushed my teeth, and then sayazi [2] went out.

The morning rush hour subway, it is easy for people to crowd into a biscuit.

The place where I work is so noble, it was the legendary CBD, so you could only see many [3] people hurrying to depart in the subway, the business elite in suits and leather shoes, each thriving for their own prosperity. The office elevator was crowded like zong zi [4], with great difficulty I managed to escape out, swipe the card and entered the company, fortunately I was not late.

[2] 撒丫子 Sa Ya Zi: I'm leaving now.

[3] 乌泱乌泱 Wū Yāng Wū Yāng: Means many / a lot.

[4] 粽子 Zòng Zi: Traditional Chinese rice-pudding

After ten o'clock it was routinely gossip time, because at that time everyone have already finished the important work at hand and lunch was a long way off, at this time there were various small movements emerge in an endless stream wandering into the tea room to drink Coffee. I haven't entered the tea room when Lin Xin Fei pulled me, a face of anthomaniac appearance, "Ye Jing Zhi, did you see the new Technical Director today? He really is so handsome!"

She looked at that point of prospect, only to drool over. Lin Xin Fei and I in the company are known as the "empire double jewels", two Gemini's in the office buildings. There were hundreds of companies in the building, which floor there was a new handsome guy, which company has recruited a young talent, she and I were very familiar with. Usually when there's nothing, we also love to exchange information, mutually exchange what the other needs/lacks. She was the one urging me to chase after Cao Bin Yuan. Cao Bin Yuan was originally Chen Mo's colleague, Lin Xin Fei and I once caught him having dinner together with Chen Mo, I initially thought he was Chen Mo's new boyfriend, so I act outrageously and interrogated him. Unexpectedly later Chen Mo in all seriousness told me, Cao Bin Yuan is just his friend, this person only likes women, and he also asked for my phone number.

After finding out Lin Xin Fei was amazed, "It's so rare that a person with such fine features would take considerable interest in you, such a chance must not be missed! It's now or never!"

At that time Lu Yu Jiang and I have been divorced for several months, however living under the one roof every day I was forced into cold war with him, once I returned home the atmosphere was frozen three feet that I would shiver from the coldness. Not returning home and going on a date with a handsome guy, I don't see any reason why I shouldn't.

Unfortunately, just when I had a slight progress with Cao Bin Yuan, that asshole Lu Yu Jiang messed things it up.

I ask Lin Xin Fei, "Could he be a golden foreign devil [5]?"

[5] 洋鬼子 Yáng Guǐ Zi Foreign devil: A term used in pre-liberation China for foreign invaders.

Lin Xin Fei and my only difference is, she accepts both Chinese and foreigners, and I just loved handsome Chinese men.

"Cut!" Lin Xin Fei contempt at me, "Look, you try a little first! Foreign devils? You see several of those northern handsome Europe men in the neighbouring companies? Their tall and handsome..... Noble and dignified....."

I dare not tell her I didn't like foreigners because my English sucked, especially in speaking the language, company executives are basically foreign devils, occasionally when they call me I wished I could use Kingsoft online.....

But Lin Xin Fei praised the new Technical Director to the sky, there is no other in the world. In just a few minutes, I already knew this guy is from an influential family, a prestigious oversea returnee, has a PhD degree, a man of striking appearance, graceful bearing, with the most charming pair of peach blossom eyes.

"Really is Ji Pin [6]!" Finally, Lin Xin Fei is in awe.

[6] 极品 Ji Pin: Means the highest calibre.

Ji Pin, of course, seeing is believing, after all what you hear about may be false.

As a company administrative, commonly known as the handyman, the only advantage is that you have a lot of reasons to get close to handsome guys.

So I use the pretext of sending office supplies, slowly knocked on the new Technical Director's door.

“Come in, please.”

His voice is not high not low, slightly magnetic.

The first condition known about this Ji Pin is that he has a pleasant voice,

So I beamed with delight, pushed the door open and preparing to properly admire this handsome Ji Pin guy, and then—— I was rendered speechless. [7]

[7] 呆若木鸡 Dāi Ruò Mù Jī: Dumbstruck, stunned, be insensate like a wooden chicken.

He was also rendered speechless.

Finally, he was the first to return to normal, so to say that the elite’s are elite, extraordinary are extraordinary.

“Jing Zhi, why are you here?”

Chi Fei Fan’s voice was the same as many years ago, gentle and refined, my nose twitched, exclaimed, “Brother-in-law!”

I have one elder sister, Jìng Zhi.

In those years, Chi Fei Fan and my elder sister was both a student/disciple of a Ph.D supervisor, Chi Fei Fan only particularly adored one young female apprentice—— that was my elder sister, so he hollow out his mind to pursue her, my elder sister also had quite a favourable impression of him. So even I, this younger sister also gained some advantage from this, he often took me out to indulge in eating and drinking, the person eating was unable to speak justly and forcefully making things difficult for others who were soft-hearted. I thought the outcome was a foregone conclusion, so very early on I started calling him “brother-in-law”, who knew half way through out of nowhere came, Lu Yu Jiang.

Of course, Chi Fei Fan could not win that ass*le Lu Yu Jiang, he angrily gone abroad, and studied a second PhD degree.

At the sight of Chi Fei Fan, I thought of the good old days when elder sister was still here, how can I not feel sad?

That night Chi Fei Fan treated me to dinner, shark’s fin with rice was my most favourite, now he was a director, his salary is high, so I did not hesitate, eating mouthfuls of bursting flavours to my heart's content, "Brother-in-law, you still treat me the best."

Chi Fei Fan merely stared at me eating, smiled faintly to himself.

After dinner, I accompanied him to visit the old school that my elder sister and he once attended. The campus night was very quiet, tree-lined road, under the lights we walk into the street, the sounds of our rustling footsteps could be heard.

There was no moon in the sky, just the bright luminous lights, and countless moths flying around the street, which made me think of a very old movie, in the movie there's a song called 《Dance of Sunlight》.

The half cold, half warm autumn, quietly watching the dance of sunlight, in the wind a piece of red leaves..... Times surely flies, at that time I was a little girl, like a large light bulb I followed behind my elder sister and him. In the blink of an eye, all have changed.

Even I felt very sad, not to mention him.

When getting into the car he said, "I always wanted to come to the old school, but it's nearly nostalgic timid, thank you for accompanying me here today."

Chi Fei Fan is always like this, talked so refined, treated others properly, at that time I don't know what was wrong with my elder sister, insisted on eliminating him and choosing Lu Yu Jiang.

Chi Fei Fan drove an Audi Q7, this is my favourite car. Every time I see the car in the magazine I would long with envy about the rough lines, imagine myself majestically driving it, charging it towards the North Fourth Ring road, must be very cool. But being impecunious, unexpectedly, I never thought Chi Fei Fan would be the same enthusiasts as me. Unlike Lu Yu Jiang, he has three cars, but in addition to Mercedes Benz's, there's the Hummer and custom Diaoza.

During the second year of our marriage, I was at home bored, I want him to let me buy a car to hang out, I mentioned it to him under the moon and flowers, the results he said with a cold expression, "There are two drivers in the home, where you need to go that you need to drive yourself?"

Since then I seldom ask him for anything, I didn't have much self-esteem left, best to use it sparingly.

Chi Fei Fan looked at me touching about, unable to hide my envy [8] expression, and asked me, "Would you like to try drive it?"

[8] 垂涎欲滴 Chuí Xián Yù Dī: Make one's mouth watery — be unable to hide one's greed ; coveted ; drool with envy.

"Ah?" I whispered, "I didn't bring my driver's license....."

Chi Fei Fan slightly raised his eyebrows, smiling, like those year, encouraging me to eat the junk food, "Occasionally committing a small crime, it's a kind of happiness!"

I have not driven in a long time, touching the steering wheel I felt my blood boiling, Q7 ah, silver Q7, in the night as if eager like a silver panther, the engine growl as I rushed into the rolling traffic flow, speed, shift, overtaking, changing lanes.....

The wind blew from the window, I didn't see the speedometer also I didn't know how fast I was going, I only knew the car was beyond me, the road ahead was more and more bright, the street lights were like an orange band, causing a person's blood to gush, forward, forward, forward.....

We did a full a line around a full circle, in the dead of night, empty, and I'm so happy that I wanted to scream.

I really felt so happy! This lighting speed feeling, put aside all the troubles, like a person was relaxing bath in the night wind. Changing shifts until my hands were relent, it's been a long time since I've felt this tired, but from my heart to my body, there was a thrill of pleasure.

Finally, he drove me home, I told him Chen Mo's address, he asked me, "Do you live alone?"

I very gladly told him, "I live together with a friend, a good sister."

It is also not wrong, Chen Mo and me, has always been affectionate sisters.

"You still don't have a boyfriend ah? If your elder sister knew, she will certainly be worried about you.”

I could not laugh anymore, I felt astringent, if my elder sister knew about those things I did, she certainly would have jumped up from the ground, and disown me.

I was so despicable, shameless, and a selfish person.

The car stopped in Chen Mo’s downstairs, I said goodbye to Chi Fei Fan, but he was very gracious wanting to send me upstairs, I thought it was too late, I’m afraid of Chen Mo opening the door giving Chi Fei Fan a fright, so I declined. While we were being polite towards one and other, suddenly there were a shadow from the side of flower bed, little awn stars falling out.

It was cigarette butts, like a meteor, fleeting, fall into the small, delicate panda dustbin, I suddenly have a sixth sense, and widened my eyes.

Lu Yu Jiang.

Majority of his body was still hidden in the shadows, but just from the cigarette ash I could recognize him, and I could also see half of his face.

I suddenly had cold extremities, my chest tightens.

I don’t know why he was here, but I knew very clearly he didn’t have good intentions here waiting for me.

Sure enough, he slowly walked out from the shadow, Chi Fei Fan also spotted him, temporarily unable to recognize who it was, so he was bewildered, turned around and stared at me.

I think I must have looked terrible standing there like a block of wood.

“Mr. Chi.” Lu Yu Jiang’s entire person gradually strolled into the dizzy yellow street light, he seemed very polite, “So you have returned home.”

Chi Fei Fan was neither humble nor pushy, “Mr. Lu, long time no see.”

Why do I feel that the temperature surrounding us had a significant decline, with a murderous autumn rustling when it’s obviously summer now?

As expected the particularly jealous love rivals met.

I just felt a little sad, even my elder sister is not here anymore, was there a point?

My head was spinning, do I need to call Chen Mo and have him come down to save me?

And let the old love rivals cross a knife with each other! Fight a good fight at outrance.....

But if Chen Mo comes down, see Lu Yu Jiang, maybe he would take love more seriously than friendship, and will immediately forget to save me.

Just when my imagination started to run wild, I suddenly saw Lu Yu Jiang turned around and smiled at me.

Suddenly the bell rang in my mind, this bastard rarely gave me a good expression to see, not to mention a laugh. During the three years we were married, I did not see him smile for more than a few times, today this smile, certainly there's more to it than meets the eye.

Sure enough, I saw he turned away I hear him clearly say, "Mr. Chi, I still have to thank you, thank you for sending my ex-wife back."

I gasped.

"Ex-wife?" The usually gentle Chi Fei Fan, suddenly gnash his teeth in anger, even his eyes were red.

"How are you worthy of her?" Chi Fei Fan roared and rushed towards Lu Yu Jiang, fiercely served a punch, "How are you worthy?!"

I never thought he would be so angry, Lu Yu Jiang also didn't estimated he will suddenly make his moves, even took a solid hit. After receiving this, more than 20 years, this ass*le has not learn, not waiting for Chi Fei Fan's second fist to arrive, he has withheld Chi Fei Fan's wrist forcing it towards the right ninety percent off. Chi Fei Fan also wanted to wrestle with his opponent, after two, three rounds he was beaten with no arm strength left to fight back.

This ass*le is unexpectedly so deceptive!

suteki: The two male leads have finally met once again, years ago they were fighting over Jing Zhi's elder sister, years later they are fighting over her. These two men seem fated to fall for the same girl.

Chapter 3

I simply could not pull him away, with a pull he threw me aside, the strength difference is too far. Seeing Lu Yu Jiang viciously punching, I closed my eyes and rushed forward, like Xiao Yan Zi's [1] awe-inspiring righteousness [2] in protecting Zi Wei [1], with open arms I shouted, "Stop! If you still want to fight, you can beat me to death all right!"

[1] Xiao Yan Zi and Zi Wei are characters from the Chinese drama "Pearl Princess" (還珠格格). Those who have watched the drama will understand what Jing Zhi is referring to.

[2] 大義凜然 Dà Yì Lǐn Rán: with a strong sense of righteousness — fearless of death for a just cause.

I carefully open my eyes again, I saw his fist less than three centimetres from my nose. He really is a master, telling him to stop he instantly stop.

At this point I just discovered, remarkably Chi Fei Fan's one punch has knocked his eyes black, he even became a semi eye panda.

His usual appearance was a person with high morals, suddenly seeing him become panda eyes, it was very funny, I finally could not help but laugh heartily.

I had fought with him for so many years, I never touched half of strand of his hair, every time I lost in a complete mess, finally today Chi Fei Fan help me get justice.

He looked at me, finally he slowly lowered his fists, but fiercely stared at me.

I have always been more fierce than him, so ferociously stare back.

About two seconds later, I felt there's a chance Lu Yu Jiang would throw knives at me, swishing me into thousands million of cave holes.

Fortunately, he didn't have any knife on hand, so for a moment he just relentlessly stared at me, then turned away.

I paid no heed to him, hurriedly gone over to help Chi Fei Fan, his nose was black and his face was swollen, I murmur at him, “Why did you get into a fight with him ah, even the two of us combined could not beat him.”

Chi Fei Fan nose was still bleeding, lifting his face up, in a low muffled voice he replied, “I’m angry!”

I know Chi Fei Fan was particularly angry, but I don’t know what made him so angry, for things to come to this.

When Chen Mo opened the door for us, he was frightened that his face turned pale white, “Oh, what is this?”

I grumpy told him, “We were robbed.”

“Oh, really.....”

I waved at Chen Mo and asked him to cook a few eggs, then pull out the iodine cotton swab to help Chi Fei Fan treat his wounds.

I’m very knowledgeable in this area, during middle school, I fought with invincible hands, small injuries were unavoidable, I refused to leave because of minor wounds, only when I had a serious injury then I would go to the hospital. Many minor wounds were treated by myself. It’s really fortunate that my face didn’t leave any scars.

Finally, the soft white eggs were cooked, I let it cool down a little before giving it to Chi Fei Fan, “Roll it on where your face hurts.”

Chi Fei Fan nose was stuffed with cotton balls, while rolling the egg on his face where the bruise was, he interrogated me, “Tell me what the hell is going on?”

I hesitated, and finally I spilled the beans, I told him the whole story again, my many years of experience from beginning to end.

Nothing more than after my elder sister died, I busted my ass and finally graduated, got married, then divorced, and finally got out of it. [3]

[3] 净身出户 Jìng Shēn Chū Hù: This refers to when both parties decide to divorce, and the divorce party require the other party to give up all the assets, leaving the marriage without gaining anything.

Talking about that sad place, Chen Mo on the side accompanied me, silently in tears.

Oh, I'm really a failure in life.

Chi Fei Fan silently listened, and finally held out his hand, and touched my hair.

When my elder sister was still here, she would often touch my hair, laughed and called me a silly child.

However gloomy life is, expressing it somewhat I felt a little better.

Sending Chi Fei Fan off, Chen Mo compassionately comfort me, and then fell asleep.

The next days I got up, my life is as good and tough as ever.

To live, one must live like a human but act like a dog.

So I was in a high spirits while in the crowded subway, in a high spirits while in the crowded elevator, in a high spirits while swiping my card, and in a high spirits while walking back to my seat.....

Hey!

What suspicious creature was on the table? On closer look I could not help feel thunderstruck, it's actually a large canopy of delicately pretty sweet-smelling even with dew can be broken.....

Roses!

Haven't eaten pork meat, but have seen the pig run [4], although I haven't ever received rose before, however for the period of time I was Mrs. Lu, Lu Yu Jiang sent me to learn flower arrangement, I didn't learn anything from it, but every day the Florist would deliver flowers to our home, so I knew such rose was the most expensive, a single rose is enough for me to eat meal now.

[4] 没吃过猪肉还见过猪跑: Used to describe the things people although have not experience, but also have heard, seen, or know a little.

Who is so generous, in one breath sent such a large bunch, the death of me, do not know if I could return these and get a discount.

Could it be they sent it wrong?

Today is not April's fool.

Seeing the expression on those women gossip left and right, I picked up the card within the bunch of roses and purposely read aloud, "Jing Zhi: Please forget the unhappy things, your future happiness will be guaranteed by me." On the back of the card there was a slightly familiar English signature: "Fred.C"

Fred.C?

My foreign language sucks, stammered I read it three times, it took me a long time to realized... could Fred.C be Chi Fei Fan?

Once again I was thunderstruck.

No doubt, today this will be the office most sensational gossip: The well-known elite Technical Director Fred.C, unexpectedly humbly sent roses to the company's administrative passer-by Ye Ying Zhi.

I don't know what Chi Fei Fan was up to, I adopt the ostrich policy, honesty buried my head in the sand, I won't listen, ask nor see, as if the bouquet of roses never appeared, as if those around whispering to one another and strange eyes did not exist. Even Lin Xin Fei a few times intentionally or unintentionally wandered to my seat, wanting to ask me. But I who was never grossly absorbed in work, rearranged all the files again, sent out all the notice that should be sent out, clear the inventory out, check the purchase order again, and for the first time ever I even got rid of the virus and cleaned the computer disk fragments.

I managed to make to off duty, carrying my bag I scamper ran.

I forgot one thing, if I was Sun Wukong [5], then Chi Fei Fan and Lu Yu Jiang would have belong to the class of Buddha.

[5] 孙悟空 Sun Wu Kong: The monkey king, a character from the Novel/Drama "Journey to the West." (西游记)

Finally I was stopped by Chi Fei Fan company downstairs, under the watchful eyes those around he said to me, "Get into my car, don't you really like this kind of car, today I'll let you drive it."

Colleagues were hurriedly off work, so no one look back at us, but I clearly felt that the air was eerily distorted, a frightening magnetic field.

I loudly said, "I didn't bring my driver's license."

"Then let me drive." He was very natural pulling my hand, like holding a child, "I'll take you to a good place to eat."

Oh my God, this is too weird.

So although Chi Fei Fan took me to a unique grand place, I was on tenterhooks, I ate without relish.

And he skilfully used his knife and fork, he ate with a great appetite.

The wound on his nose also had a band-aid, not that it wasn't funny, however I couldn't laugh, I sighed as I pushed the expensive steak aside.

"Brother-in-law, what do you want?"

"Shh!" He lifted his finger, "From now on don't call me brother-in-law, I didn't expect Lu Yu Jiang to be such a jerk, so it's up to me take care of you in the future."

I became stammered, "But..... Elder sister, she....."

Originally I wanted to say was my elder sister had passed away for several years, how can you do this? However, once I thought of those shameful things I've done. I decided to close my mouth.

He diverges his words, "Do you not like me?"

"Like is like..... But it's not that kind of love....."

He interrupted me, "You like me will do, rest assured, I will take good care of you, make you feel happy."

But I am not a bit happy.

Alas, a person's heart is inconstant.

Originally I just thought it was Lu Yu Jiang who harbor ulterior motives, elusive, however it seems that even Chi Fei Fan I also could not figure out what he was thinking.

Regardless, I have to be firm, and told Chi Fei Fan, “Brother-in-law, I have always regarded you as my own elder brother, my elder sister is gone, you have been in a foreign country, I think you roughly feel a little empathy for me, but we’re really not suitable, I also cannot accept this. “

“It does not matter.” His gently smile, patted my hand encouragingly, “I know that you temporary cannot accept this, I will let you slowly come to accept this, give me some time, I will make you see.....”

I felt a headache, what has the world become ah.....

It is..... So much that a person is left without any strength.

Whatever Chi Fei Fan says he will do it, he no longer vigorously send roses, but every morning, there’s always a small gift on my desk, sometimes sea lavender, sometimes chocolate, sometimes just a card, sometimes even a small pot of cactus.

After work, he would ask me to dinner, to play ball, watch a movie, very, very standard pursuit mode.

At first, a group of colleagues in the company’s were scared out of their chins, and then, it became the norm.

If an unexpected incident has become the norm, it is not called an accident.

A Technical Director, clearly, is seriously pursuing a corporate administrator, in fact, it was not a big deal.

It is not an office romance? As long as they do not hinder their work, from the Big Boss to cleaning old lady, who wouldn’t turn a blind eye?

Day after day I was in such ostrich, and found myself trapped in people’s offensive ocean.

Everyone in the company will definitely have acquiesced that Chi Fei Fan was pursuing me, after work there are people who deliberately left the elevator in an open position, so he told me to stand together. Chi Fei Fan’s secretary also treated me with a hint of favoritism, occasionally when it’s still lunch break, intentionally or not she would explain to me recently Director Chi has been working overtime and attending meetings every day, so his very tired very busy, perhaps his mood isn't particularly good and so on .....

Kao!

I'm not in the troops.

In such a solemn and stirring, depression and incomprehensible atmosphere, one day after another passed.

The only good news is, I finally find a suitable house, I can move.

When it was time to sign the lease contract, I suddenly found, I didn't bring my permanent residence booklet [6] from the villa.

[6] Permanent Residence booklet is basically the Citizenship Certificate.

When I got married my permanent residence booklet was still at school, from the collective households directly moved to Lu Yu Jiang's residence account, after our divorce I forget to move it out.

The landlord would not have it, regardless life or death insisted I needed to show my permanent residence booklet.

I have purposely chosen an auspicious time—— eight o'clock on a Saturday morning, this time regardless of the weather Lu Yu Jiang will go play tennis, so he certainly will not be at home.

Originally I didn't bring my key door, I was afraid that I wouldn't be able to enter. Who know just coming out of the cab I would encounter the neighbor Mrs. Lee, she showed up in a small red sports car driving towards the gate area, upon seeing me she deliberately stop to say hello, "Ah, Mrs. Lu, today there's no driver to pick you up?"

This Mrs. Lee lived in the building next door to us, her husband is also a businessman. They once had a Christmas party at their place, also specifically invited Mr. Lu Yu Jiang and his wife, so I know her. This is so-called luxury villa, with an entire private garden. The neighbors who came out to walk their dog would occasionally see each other. We didn't have a dog, however I had lived here for the three years, so in an instant I was quite familiar with a number of neighbors. Mrs. Lee is actually very hospitable, urged me to get into her car, "Come, I'll take you in, to save you from walking."

I didn't think it'll turn out so smoothly.

Arriving at the entrance I thanked Mrs. Lee, after getting off I began to wonder, I still don't know the password, how am I going to get in?

The study room's French windows are open, white screens flutter in the morning breeze, as if there's a giant hand gently stroking them. I have not earnestly observed the house before, although I lived here for a few years, but unexpectedly it seems like so strange.

I took my coat off, since there's really no other alternative, but to climb!

I knew that the area was full of the probe, a climbing terrace surely be found by the security guards, however since they thought I was the owner, even if I climb my own villa, it will be considered a whim prompted by a sudden impulse.

I successfully got into the study from the balcony, landing on the ground I let out a sigh of relief. Luckily the study room's door was not locked, in the quiet corridor, it was absolute silence.

Mr. Lu Yu Jiang, your sense of security is really bad.....

But small towering wall, 24 hour grid probe monitoring, not only was there's security, there was even the patrol dogs are very loyal..... So when I was at home, I always forget to lock the door leading to the balcony.

There was no one in the empty guest room, it seems Lu Yu Jiang indeed has gone to play tennis. I was full of confidence, boldly rummage through the cabinets, did not expect to be covered in sweats, and still have not found my permanent residence booklet.

Strange, where did my permanent residence booklet go?

Lu Yu Jiang was responsible for keeping the family's important documents and money. I know the bedside drawer there is always a wad of cash, originally it was pocket-money given to me, after it's all taken he would put more in, in fact, he didn't care about the money, because after the divorce, I once I was pressed hard for money, so I secretly took one thousand block from the drawers, then after I received my salary I replaced the money, he also didn't notice, but I never asked him where he put the permanent residence booklet.

I felt defeated sitting on the carpet, I didn't make this trip to go back empty-handed, right?

Never mind, there's still the master bedroom.

Plucking my courage I crept through the corridors, gently pushed open the master bedroom's door.

The curtains closed, the room was obscure, after a few seconds my eyes adjust to the indoor light.

The next thing had me stunned and exclaimed, "Ah!"

There was a person on the bed!

Lu Yu Jiang!

He..... He..... He still sleeps here!

I have forgotten that if I moved out, he would have to move back to the master bedroom, but isn't he supposed to be playing tennis?

On closer look, fortunately it's okay, there's only him on the bed.

However, my screaming has roused him, he opened his eyes and looked at me.

I stayed wooden and stoned. I originally thought that he would be ablaze with anger asking me how I came in, I didn't think he would just glance at me, then closed his eyes.

I cautiously approached near the bed, tried to call his name, the results he just grunted, seems like not awaken, I ventured to move forward, who knew he would suddenly grab my wrist, frightened me out of my wits.

His palm was burning hot that it was startling, I touched his forehead, also terrifyingly hot, turns out he had a high fever.

No wonder he didn't go to play tennis, no wonder the sun is three poles high and he's still sleeping, the formerly fierce tiger really has become a sick cat.

In my impression, Lu Yu Jiang was never sick.

Every time when it was spring and autumn flu season, I always was the first to get infected, even if I didn't take two-step out of the entrance, ultimately I'll be at home by the tissue box, taking cold medicine, affected by a cough, and then finally forced to go to see the doctor to get antibiotics. And Lu Yu Jiang always seems to be immune to bacteria, even a sneeze didn't affect him. In my mind, he is the deformation of steel in Megatron, never aged, never ill, immortal, the ultimate impeccable villain BOSS, ten Ye Jing Zhi combined also was no match for him.

I didn't think he would have a day like this.

The great man saying is so right, all reactionaries are paper tigers! [7]

[7] 一切反动派都是纸老虎 All reactionaries are paper tigers: The term refers to something that seems threatening but is ineffectual and unable to withstand challenge. The expression became well-known in the West as a slogan used by Mao Zedong's Chinese communist state against its opponents, particularly the U.S. government.

I wickedly want to fill his drink with salt water, give him rhizoma coptidis to consume causing him to have diarrhoea, while he was sick, wanting his life!

Forget it, a day together as husband and wife means endless devotion the rest of your life [8], even if we're divorce, I cannot do this extremely cruel and merciless thing, right?

[8] 一日夫妻百日恩 Yī Rì Fū Qī Bǎi Rì ēn: one day of married life breeds a hundreds day's attachment; one day of love between husband and wife cannot be easily forgotten; one day of married life fosters enduring affection

"Hey!" I asked him, "Where did you place the permanent residence booklet?"

He didn't answer me, his eyelids seemed to flutter, however he continue to sleep.

This guy!

Chapter 4.1

It seems like if I don't torture him, I won't get a confession.

In a leisurely manner I rolled up my sleeves, clenched my fist, shaking it before him, "Speak! Where did you place the permanent residence booklet? Or else I'll hit you! Hum! Usually I cannot beat you, now I can definitely beat you."

Bullying the patient is a source of happiness, oh yeah!

He finally opened his eyes, and looked at me, probably because he has a fever for a long period of time, his cheeks have an abnormal scarlet, appear lovely pink. I didn't think Lu Yu Jiang could also relate to the word lovely, his voice was hoarse as he muttered, "So noisy....."

"Where's the permanent residence booklet....." Not waiting for me to finish speaking, he suddenly tugged me over, this is just great, I was firmly in his arms, his backside was like a big furnace, through his clothes I also felt it was steaming hot. Just as I wanted to struggle, he held me tighter, his warm breath whiffed on my ear, "You're not working today so accompany me to sleep for a while....."

Indeed the fever has caused him to be muddled, he also knew he didn't have work today..... I suddenly felt a little sad, it was about when we just got married, those were only our good days, especially when it was the weekend, there were mornings when we were half awoken needing to go to the restroom, even with my tiredness he always draw me in not letting me get up, "You're not working today so accompany me to sleep for a while."

Even such an intolerable marriage, there were happy moments.

Perhaps towards life I didn't have high hopes, as long as there were a little sweetness, I felt that it can have long-lasting memories.

It really makes one sad ah, my heart was filled with memories of tenderness, when I slowly looked back at him, he has rested his chin on my shoulder, and fallen asleep.

After ten minutes I cannot stand it, because he was badly burning up a fever, he stuck to me like a piece of red brick, I also felt intolerable, how could he take it?

I climbed up to find the medicine chest, upon discovering he has not taken a pill at all I was very angry, he has not even taken the medicine at home.

There was no boiling water, Lu Yu Jiang was ancestors that lived in comfort, he never drinks hideous mess water, all his drinking water was all specialized and boiled.

Every day at noon the home workers would come, because he does not eat at home, so the workers are just responsible to clear and clean up. It appears from the last night he began to have a fever, does he intend to die in bed? I took his temperature, darling, just 40 degrees, no wonder he turned into a firing paper tiger.

“Hey!” I want to shake him awake, “Get up! Lu Yu Jiang! Get up, let’s go to the hospital!”

He groaned, and finally I understand he hummed, “I’m not going.”

I was furious.

Whether you are a sick cat or a paper tiger, but now I can fix you.

I lift up the quilt, and then pulled his pyjamas, he still knew to ask me, “Why are you taking off my clothes?”

“What am I doing?” I smiled at him, with a small specific adjectives, that laugh is——evil! Wonton! Charm! Delude!

Then I shouted at him, “I have seen it many times, what should I do?”

Although I had so many opportunities to see this, I still want to say, the paper tiger’s body is really very good, his body was the best strip naked man’s body I’ve seen.

However, this one was the only naked man I have seen, so it might not be too accurate.

One side my mind was full of peach blossom evilness, while changing his clothes. Then I put socks and shoes on him, I also went to wring a hot towel to wipe his face.

Fortunately, he can still walk on his own, however, he needed me to help point.

Helping him into the car, it caused me to sweat all over, after buckling our seatbelts I drove to the hospital.

When I drove his Black vulgar Diaoza Mercedes, speeding on the North Fourth Ring road, I thought, why should I be nosy, to send him to the hospital?

It's certainly not because of feelings, but because I've done too many bad things, I'm scared after my death, I'll go to hell, so I'm doing one good deed a day.

If I don't send him to the hospital, if he really burned out and some unexpected misfortune occurred, the residential surveillance video would have captured the scene of me climbing the balcony.

Would the court sentenced me with murdering my husband?

Pei Pei!

Clearly my ex husband!

One side I had random thoughts, while arriving at the hospital, to the emergency room, the doctor completing the examination, immediately busied open with words, "The patient is complicated with pneumonia, how come you bring him now ah? You as his wife, how can you act like it doesn't concern you, your husband has burned up like this, you also don't know to bring him to the hospital?"

I was lectured like a grandchild, could only be submissive, unable to justify myself.

He finally turned from the emergency ward, I breathed a sigh of relief, and then began to make a phone call.

I'm such an intelligent person ah, I didn't forget to take his wallet, or else how would I have the money to pay the deposit. He is still in bed and on the drips, I could easily place his wallet back in his pocket, however the hospital was cluttered with people, and he also in a muddle from the fever, his wallet being snatched, even if I jump into the Yellow River [1] it would not be washed clear.

Besides, such a great weekend, why should I stay in the hospital with a patient, he wasn't my anyone.

[1] 黄河 Huang He: The Yellow River or Huang He is the third-longest river in Asia. The Yellow River is called "the cradle of Chinese civilization", because its basin was the birthplace of ancient Chinese civilization, and it was the most prosperous region in early Chinese history. However, frequent devastating floods and course changes produced by the continual elevation of the river bed, sometimes above the level of its surrounding farm fields, has also earned it the unenviable names China's Sorrow and Scourge of the Sons of Han

So I decided to call his personal secretary, let her come to the hospital to accompany and arrange care for such a messy situation.

When she arrived, I can leave.

Unexpectedly, when the beautiful secretary came, the old madam had also come.

Turns out when the beautiful secretary heard this, after getting off the phone with me she immediately called the old madam to inform her of the situation, the old madam upon hearing her son having pneumonia rushed to the hospital.

The old madam all along didn't like me, when I pester to marry her son, she certainly didn't like me. However, after Lu Yu Jiang and I married, the old madam also didn't say half a malicious remark about me, just with this point I also have respect towards her.

So I respectfully stood up, called out, "Aunty."

I did not expect this word would cause the old madam to tremble with rage, that look, like a swishing knife, almost cut out a transparent hole in my body, "What did you call me?"

Finished!

A bad thing!

I forgot Lu Yu Jiang specially asked before, regarding our divorce, we have to deceive his mother, because the old madam thoughts are traditional, and she has hypertensive heart disease, he has feared that out of anger an unexpected misfortune may occur. And this year when it was the Spring Festival [2], Lu Yu Jiang wanted me to accompany him home for dinner, to continue to play a loving couple in front of the old madam, Lu Yu Jiang said, “I have to slowly tell my mother.”

[2] 春节 Spring Festival: Also known as Lunar New Year or Chinese New Year (农历新年) is an important traditional Chinese holiday celebrated at the turn of the Chinese calendar. In China, it is also known as the Spring Festival, the literal translation of the modern Chinese name.

How did I know he's slow is more than half a year, he still haven't told the old madam?

I also stood there slightly at a loss, on the bed Lu Yu Jiang was awake, his voice was weak, called out, “Mother.”

The old madam immediately left me, rush over to pull up her son's hand, “Look at you, I told you to pay attention to your body, how did you manage to end up this way.”

Lu Yu Jiang raised his eyes, glanced at me, “Why did you disturb/startle mother?”

When talking to his mother it's still feeble, once I lose my temper it's full of air, I'll offend anyone, or did I owe him my past life?

I open my mouth wanting to tell him, the result I saw him desperately winked at me, his eyes unexpectedly——piteously begging? I have never seen Lu Yu Jiang beg anyone, suddenly my heart was overjoyed, his face had a very aggrieved expression, muttering, “This, I was thrown into a panic.....”

“You young people, there's no backbone at all.” The old madam glared at me, “With a fever why didn't you take him to the hospital earlier?”

I plausibly told the old madam, “I would have taken him earlier, however he would not go. If I had not dragged him out of the bed, I also do not know how it'll be like.”

Lu Yu Jiang on the bed certainly wanted to strangle me, because I saw him just glared at me, I looked up pretending I didn't see this, besides I didn't lie.

“This child, with his father virtue, always feel his physically healthy, with good resistance.” Mentioning that year father-in-law passed away of cancer, the old madam was really sad, “You don’t even think for both of us, you do not cherish yourself, is earning money endless?”

Very good, although standing until the base of my feet were in pain, however listening to the old madam chatter with Lu Yu Jiang, and he didn’t even dare to reply a word, it is worth the price!

Finally, I send the old madam out, she also praised me, “Good child, although on the outside Yu Jiang usually in a presentable shape, he is actually improper, you have to watch him, don’t let him act recklessly and mess things up.”

I just nodded and said to the old madam, well, let me look at Lu Yu Jiang, his imperial sword is useless.

I return to Lu Yu Jiang’s room, his spirit has been much better, he asked me, “What did my mother say?”

I made a face at him, “I’m not telling you.”

Besides he’s lying on the bed, he’s unable to get up and do anything to me, so I am a small man intoxicated by success [3], my bravery has increased, my heart is greatly relieved, I even felt like I was breathing fresh air.

[3] 小人得志 Xiǎo Rén Dé Zhì ; Describes a situation where a mean-spirited person, a bigot or hypocrite is in a position of power and control.

He was silent for a moment, ask me, “Then, why do you want the permanent residence booklet?”

Oh!

This ordeal, I almost forgotten my purpose, luckily when he was burning with a fever, remember I find his permanent residence booklet. But I don’t want to tell him the truth, “Why are you butting into my business?”

He seems to have thought of something, his lips curved into a smile, sneer silently. I saw his crafty smile and I felt disgusted, and every time he be opinionated, or he obtained some evidence against me, he will mystifying sneer.

I really shouldn't have to send him to the hospital, even if he burned silly at home, it's none of my business. I am the farmer, giving the frozen snake some warmth, then it would immediately come back to bite me.

"You want to get married?" His inadvertent expression made me feel more hatred, "Your actions are very quick ah, is it Chi Fei Fan?"

I was muddled by his words, it took me a few seconds to react to what he meant, I never thought this permanent residence booklet also has another use, and that was marriage registration. But I was utterly discomfited, straining out a sweet smile, "Yes, whom I married does not need your permission, in any case giving me the permanent residence booklet will do."

He looked at me coldly, as if I was a snake, or whatever other animal, the type that's ugly and disgusting, a face full of disgust.

I have not abandoned him!

When he burned like a hot iron, I have to change his clothes.

"You just rush into this?" He very gloatingly said, "The permanent residence booklet is lost, you must hurry, go to the Public Security Bureau to reapply yourself."

Even if you beat me to death I won't believe the permanent residence booklet is lost, and if I really require to reapply, it wasn't ten days and a half months matter, I won't be able to rent the house. I was anxiously angry, "What's wrong with you? You deliberately do not want you to see me better, is that it??"

I was angry, but he is happy, "I intentionally do not want to see you have an easy time."

F*ck!

suteki: I thought Jing Zhi would have raped Lu Yu Jiang hahaha...!

4.2

Chapter 4.2

I want to curse now, “In front of the old madam didn’t I smooth things over for you? And seeing that I worked hard to get you to the hospital, why do you have no conscience at all?”

“Conscience?” He was aggressive, “Do you have a conscience?”

I suddenly collapse.

No I didn’t, my elder sister treated me so good, yet once she died, I rack my brains to seduce Lu Yu Jiang.

And Lu Yu Jiang clearly doesn’t like me, I also forced him to marry me.

I pushed open the ward’s door with my head hang down and silently left.

In front of the hospital I hailed a cab, after getting in the cab I gave the landlord a call, “Master, I’m not renting the house any more, sorry ah.”

I’d rather live in rented rooms in the basement than go back to be confronted with Lu Yu Jiang’s face.

When moving Chen Mo came to help me, there weren’t many items so things were packed up quickly, Chen Mo cautious, quietly asked me, “You’ll have to use the public toilet, will you get used to it?”

“This is only temporary and for a short while. Wait until I find it a good house and then I’ll move.” I pointed to the gourd outside the window frame and showed him, “You see, it’s within the Second Ring Road, pushing the window open and you’ll see green, where can you find such a house?”

Chen Mo who was speculating, amused pop out a laugh.

After having dinner outside, I strolled back to the alley alone, in the distance I could see a nice car parked in the alley, a silver Q7, what a really nice car.

A person was leaning against the side of the car, a man of striking appearance.

It reminds me a long time ago there was a “stepmother” who wrote a novel, the male lead leaning against the Maybach, who was called Yu Shu Lin Feng [1].

[1] 玉树临风 Yù Shù Lín Fēng ; Describe someone who's dashing and beautiful. 玉树 literally means a jade tree; 临风 means to encounter the wind, or in the wind. The tall and slim figure is compared to a jade tree. Imagine a tall slender man standing with his sleeves and robe blowing in the wind.

Maybach should have the opportunity to engage Chi Fei Fan so late on, but that car is too expensive, I estimated Chi Fei Fan was reluctant to buy this, unless, he's like Lu Yu Jiang that was almost exploiting capitalists class.

Chi Fei Fan's smile is still so refined and cultured, "How come you move and didn't mention it? I could have come to help you."

I know Chen Mo have betrayed me, Chen Mo has always been obscene to wealth, poverty cannot change him, not subdued by force, and like me, he didn't have much immunity against handsome guy.

Chi Fei Fan walked with me in the alley, it was the end of summer, the most beautiful season is about to approach the city, the cool breeze blew gently, the air already had a breath of autumn.

I vaguely heard the sounds of cicadas on the locust tree.

The cicada must be very lonely, its companion had already died, it climbed out from the mud, hide from its bird predators, climbing into the tree singing for three days.

There were many people taking a stroll, many old married couple, also many young lovers.

The alleyway seems like old neighbor, upon seeing someone they would greet affectionately, there were small talks from the uncles, aunties to the grandsons who just started school.

I felt very interjected about the so-called "hold your hand, and grow old with you" [2], after dinner two people strolling away in the alley.

[2] 执子之手，与子偕老 ; Zhí Zǐ Zhī Shǒu, Yǔ Zǐ Xié Lǎo ; For life or for death, holding your hand, and aging with you.

Chi Fei Fan asked me, "Why do you always heave great sigh?"

I pulled a long face and said, "Because recently there's too many people who sought after me, I'm sloe-eyed."

Chi Fei Fan laugh with his small dimple, I used to hate men who have dimples, I felt like it was too womanly, but Chi Fei Fan's long eyebrow stars eyes, with dimples wasn't womanly, instead it was very good.

My flirt factor stirred in my veins, I said, "Brother-in-law, if I still not married by next year, we get together, okay?"

Chi Fei Fan looked me up and down for a moment and said, "Okay!"

I asked him, "Why are you feel so confident ah? You feel that I'm unable to get married by next year?"

He said, "If you marry, it would only be to marry me."

I almost forgot, this man everything was better than Lu Yu Jiang, however he was just as cocky as Lu Yu Jiang.

It should be said, as long as there's no Lu Yu Jiang in my life, my little life would still be very moist.

For example, Chen Mo just received an industry award, I can happily extort him to invited me to dinner.

We sisters are very close, our tastes were surprisingly consistent, Chen Mo like Q7, I like Q7, Chen Mo like frozen cola drink, I also like to drink iced coke, Chen Mo likes to eat fish, I also like to eat baked fish.

I often said this sentence to Chen Mo, "Why do I love you?"

Chen Mo will blankly glance at me, "Yes, if you didn't love me so much, how could you regardless of the danger rob Lu Yu Jiang? You did all those for me!"

I was sitting in the shop with him, the waiter served the sizzling grilled fish, fragrant to moisten, a cumin and pepper aroma assail our nostrils, I'm afraid Chen Mo and I will frighten the waiter, we hurriedly raised our chopsticks, "Let's eat fish!"

Recently Chi Fei Fan to me has taken a sentimental offensive, all day long he would take me to all those pretentious restaurant, every day in the faint candlelight holding a knife and fork, if it wasn't French foie gras then its Italian truffles, I ate so much that I could divergent write a luxury restaurant Guide. With great difficulty, Director Chi was aboard on a business trip, so I could tug Chen Mo and let him treat me grilled fish.

We ordinary people enjoyment was easy.

Using the chopsticks I placed a piece of fish towards my lips I suddenly felt uncomfortable, my throat to kept emitting acid water. I hastened to put down the chopsticks, end up drinking a big mouthful of cola, it didn't come around. Finally, I covered my mouth and ran towards the Restroom, retching for a long time, also I didn't spit out anything, the Restroom towel aunt was frighten, repeatedly asked me, "Miss, are you okay? Otherwise I'm afraid you'll have to go to the hospital, having a fish bone stuck, it's no laughing matter."

I haven't eaten yet, how could there be a fish bone stuck?

It must be Chi Fei Fan's special farewell dinner last night, I ate too much shellfish, this just spit, there's a chance I'll have diarrhoea.

This fish, I really should have not come to eat, just the slightest smell I felt nausea, it best to have a kimchi rice flavor dishes instead, Chen Mo didn't eat much when I hurriedly pull him to pay and leave.

While reserving the car Chen Mo asked me, "Are you okay, why does it look the same as being pregnant?"

I snap, "You just got pregnant! I'm not a cockroach that can parthenogenesis. I don't even have a particular life, but if you can get pregnant, please show me!"

Just finished saying this sentence, I was petrified.

I don't think I was too harsh and hurt Chen Mo self-esteem, I always spoke to him with blood in every word, he wasn't so petty.

I know that my temple was jumping, I knew it was a serious problem.

This month my period didn't come, I thought it was the tiredness from moving, or because I was eating every day with Chi Fei Fan, eating into an endocrine disorders. Besides there no telling to my days, but it's no later than ten days to a half month. However today I panic, the more I panic the more unclear I was of my days, was it exactly fifteen days late? Or was it twenty days?

Being late wasn't a problem, the real problem was there's a life, the night before I moved out, I estimated that Lu Yu Jiang has gone mad that he would encroach on his ex-wife. And because Lu Yu Jiang didn't use love TT [3], so the original prevention before anything happen was all my doing. I was also afraid to play out a life, so every month I took the medicine on time, but after our divorce of course I stopped.

[3] TT: Is a Chinese slang for condoms.

On the way back I saw a pharmacy, I told Chen Mo to stop the car, "I'm going to buy some stomach medicine."

When I saw two strip of clear lines, there was no exaggeration to say that, my entire body weaken, I almost passed out.

I looked through the test specification, the above said reliable rate of 99%, that is to say that I have 1%.

For that 1% of hope, I took a half day off and line up at the hospital.

The doctor listened to my intention, asked me, "Do you want to have a blood test, or want to do a B ultrasound?"

I asked her, "Which is more reliable?"

The doctor wrote a list, "Then we'll use both to check."

The blood test results have not come out, but because it is working hours, there were many people in the hospital, the female doctor who did the B ultrasound had a benignant appearance, seeing that I was too nervous, she pointed at the screen and comforted me, "It's all right, the development is quite normal, have a look."

I roll up, the female doctor was pointing to a big soy bean spot while smiling at me, "You see!"

A large black bean!

I walked out of the hospital feeling frustrated with the blood test results and B ultrasound report, my mind was filled the large soy bean dot.

Okay, let me think of what I have to do.

Nip the bud?

Forget it, Lu Yu Jiang is the family's only son of five generations, the moment we just got married the old madam urged us to immigrate, she said we can have many children. Every time the old madam returned home the first sentence she would say was, "How there's no forthcoming?" Ask me causing me to feel guilty. The old madam anticipated for grandson until her eyes and nose bleed, although Lu Yu Jiang and I are now divorce, but I didn't dare to murder the Lu family's sixth generations, the old madam will hacked me to death. I also didn't dare to provoke Lu Yu Jiang, so why would I go and offend his mother? I'm not brave enough.

If it was a novel, of course I should flee the horizon, bring up the child alone, and then wait for the male hero to come and find us mother and child. First we'll bluntly yell at each other and then he'll dragged me into the church and we'll begin to live a blissful life, but if the hero is Lu Yu Jiang then forget it.

If it was TVB, of course I should also flee the horizon, bring up the child alone, and wait for him to become business elites, then go destroy Lu Yu Jiang's company, forcing him to quickly jump off the building, finally show our cards, "My mother I have come to seek revenge for you!" Then the ultimate big boss Lu Yu Jiang's followers will rise in revolt and his closest friends forsake him. Even his son does not recognize him, the thought of this was a great satisfaction.

If this is the plight of Taiwan drama, of course I should also flee the horizon, and then marry someone else, find the child a cheap father. Finally, the child grows up, fall in love with Lu Yu Jiang's daughter, after knowing their half-sibling, that bitterness..... even more bitter than rhizoma coptidis..... the heroine will tearfully cry for forty episodes.....

I put all the possibilities are very cool YY again, finally came to my sense: What ah?

Should I run with the ball, and then all alone brings up the child, miserably became a tragic female heroine? Pei!

I should go to Lu Yu Jiang negotiations showdown, twist his face in anger. Ask him to give me living expenses, alimony and payments! When the child is born, to give the child support payments, I ask him to give him this much then he would have to give that much, I'll have feudal order with the emperor [4]! What the villain women do in dramas, I shall do the same!

[4] 挟天子以令诸侯 Xié Tiān Zǐ Yǐ Lìng Zhū Hóu ; have a firm hold over the emperor to oppress the princes ; have the emperor in one's power and order the dukes about in his name.

suteki: So Jing Zhi finds out she's pregnant... what will she do? What will Yu Jiang's reaction be?

Chapter 5

My blood boil with indignation, just the thought of Lu Yu Jiang I'll fulminate with anger, I felt that life is full of significance, the sky is so blue and the clouds are so white even the taxi on the high street all look so lovely.

After Lu Yu Jiang was released from the hospital, I had not seen him, but I decided the place I should start should be his mother, so I hailed a cab and went to see the old madam.

The old madam lives alone in a small yard in the west end, there was a housekeeper aunt that lived in the house and accompany the old madam. Not that Lu Yu Jiang was not filial to his mother, it was the old madam who wasn't used to her son, so when there's a chance Lu Yu Jiang also occasionally go back to see her.

Because of a guilty conscience, so I spend my original capital bought a lot of food, drink and also nourishment. When Aunt opened the door for me she was stunned for a moment upon seeing me carrying packages, the old madam who was in the yard asked, "Who is it?"

Aunt just came back to her senses, hurriedly rushed and smiled at me, turning back to reply, "It's Xiao Jing."

When the old madam was polite, she would call me Xiao Jing, so Aunt has also followed and called me Xiao Jing. I didn't think the old madam upon seeing me also felt quite astonished.

Drinking a cup of tea in the living room, I knew why the old madam felt surprised, because after Lu Yu Jiang was discharged from the hospital, he gone to the elderly and laid his cards on the table, the old madam finally knew that I had already divorced with Lu Yu Jiang.

I haven't come back to my senses, I did not think Lu Yu Jiang would conceal the truth for so long, erupted in happiness. The old madam's expression appeared very calm, "Alas, young people with strong personality, had less together, won't do the hard bound. No matter what us elders say, it's only wishful thinking."

The old madam was polite and asked me to stay for dinner, I felt uninterested, found an excuse and said my goodbyes.

I do not know why, my mood was very bad, I do not know why Lu Yu Jiang suddenly becomes delighted, but I abruptly couldn't grasp it, even if I'd gone to lay down my cards with Lu Yu Jiang, regarding this matter what reactions will he have, it's hard to say.

Although the old madam hopes for a grandson, he did not want children, at least, I didn't want to, this I certainly know.

Just the thought he had urged that me to take my medicine every month, I felt almost hopeless.

I lowered my head walking to the alley's entrance, precisely a car drove over, press the horn. I looked up, was still at a loss, why does it feel like the black Benz look so familiar?

Until Lu Yu Jiang lowered his window, I obviously felt choked up.

He probably guessed, I just came out from his house, and asked, "What are you doing here?"

Seeing him with that cold expression, I felt angry, so I said, "To come clean with the old madam."

"No need, I have already told her."

"I know, just come out of your house."

Our conversation was so short, he leaned back, revealing a woman sitting, then introduced to me, "This is Gao Xi Li, my girlfriend."

Kao!

I only felt flames leap over my head, looking at this beautiful little face, I was tempted to curse. But this moment I have to bear down even vomiting blood, so I smile more brilliantly than Koguryo [1], "Oh, Hello, it's nice to meet you."

[1] 高句麗 Goguryeo or Koguryo was one of the ancient Three Kingdoms of Korea.

Then I praised her, she looked pretty, temperament and is blessed, also said that the old madam will definitely like her, Gao Xi Li is probably the first Lu Yu Jiang has brought back, so I was discursive praising and boasting, but like a quail she sat there, smiling without a word. I praised Koguryo again, and held Lu Yu Jiang a few words, praised his good taste, and finally said, "Don't keep the old madam waiting, I shall leave."

The car started, the windows weren't closed, I vaguely heard Koguryo asked Lu Yu Jiang, "Who was that?"

I clearly heard Lu Yu Jiang say, "Relatives."

Relatives your f*cking head!

At the subway station I cried, bastard! Bring a girlfriend back for the old madam to see, no wonder when the old madam saw me today it was as if she have seen a ghost, it's only been a few days, he already found a girlfriend for the old madam to look over. When we were about to get married, it was me who forced him to take me home.

He didn't like me, the old madam also didn't like me, so she eagerly look forward to our divorce.

I don't know where so many grievances came from, I cried all the way to the terminal, from the terminal cried until the station's starting point, finally returning to the transfer place. From the subway reflective glass, I could see my eyes were swollen like a peach.

When Chi Fei Fan called me, I drown my sorrows in wine.

In fact, my alcohol tolerance was particularly poor, in other words I'm a person without capacity for liquor, a cup of beer can bring me down, I will blush rude from a cup of Irish Coffee. After ordering a cup of Long Island Iced Tea, I also took a sip, tasting the flavor. As expected it was really easy to ingest, like a cold sour fruit juice. I did not expect the strong delayed effect, just drank a sip, I haven't even chatted with the bartender a few words, I was dizzy, cannot sense my directions.

At this time Chi Fei Fan called asking if I have eaten.

I asked him, 'brother-in-law, is the moon abroad round?'

He immediately asked, “Have you been drinking?”

How can I tell him the truth ah, so I merely ramble all sorts of irrelevant matters with him. Finally, he had enough and roared towards me on the phone, “Are you going to tell me where are you now?”

I didn’t think the always gentle Chi Fei Fan can suddenly turn to Martha roar, I was so frightened that I trembled, so I told him Ma Liu Er Jiang’s bar name and address.

He approximately felt my mind was clear, so he breathed a sigh of relief, then asked me what happened.

Even if you beat me to death, I cannot say ah, so I was faltering, talk a lot of insincere and nonsense to him. Fortunately, the international long-distance was very expensive, my estimation Chi Fei Fan was very busy, he also didn’t inquire further letting me off.

I hung up the phone, very sadly in one breath, drank the Long Island Iced Tea.

This wine in the novel, there’s a very high frequency, when every actress drink it, an accident will occur. Generally they will be drunk and disorderly then lose their virginity to a millionaire [2], and lived a happy blissful life.....

[2] 金龟婿 Jin Gui Xu: In ancient China’s Tang Dynasty, only certain high-ranking officials could carry the “golden turtle pouch” as a rank symbol, hence a “golden turtle husband” as the Chinese term literally translates, was used to refer to a husband with a very high social status. But today, it only means a rich husband.

Why all the stories since then they live a happy blissful life?

That time Lu Yu Jiang was drunk, he suddenly held and vigorously kiss me.

I knew that he was drunk and disorderly he thought that I was my elder sister, so I deceived to sleep with me.

The results?

Bullsh*t! Entirely bullsh*t! Those novels are deceptive!

When, I was still dizzy lying on the bar I still thought, if I want to really be driven into a corner [3], I will write a romance novel, deceive my author’s remuneration, deceive people’s tears, deceive people’s trust and f*cking love in this world!

[3] 走投无路 Zǒu Tóu Wú Lù: At the end of one's rope; be driven desperate.

My alcohol tolerance really wasn't great, the last remaining consciousness, I remember, was someone to pull me into the car, I vaguely felt Chen Mo. I couldn't figure out how Chen Mo got here, anyway, he put me in the car, I pulled his hand and praised him, "Chen Mo, I'll marry you, it's always you that comes to rescue me every time..... In this world you treat me the best, only you will love me....."

Chen Mo also said something, I didn't hear clearly, tilting my head and fell asleep.

I also don't know how long I slept, when I woke up I felt a headache..... Intense pain.....

I got up to go to the bathroom, why is Chen Mo's house renovated, even his wallpaper change, the structure changed, causing me to unable to find the bathroom, finally found it by pushing open a door down the hall.

Inside the bathroom someone came out, entire body soaking wet just wrapped in a towel, early in the morning, also was not afraid of my long needle's eye! I rubbed my eyes and said, "Chen Mo, I want you use the bathroom, go out."

The man didn't move, instead folded his arms and lean against the door, "Ye Jing Zhi, you are really confused drunk?"

I was frightened completely sober.

There are several seconds when my mind was completely blank, really completely blank, completely shut down. I forgot to breathe, almost suffocated, I stammer, "Brother..... Brother-in-law....."

"I told you not to call me brother-in-law."

I was completely stunned, "Why are you here?"

He remains calm and composed, "This is my home, if I'm not here, then where would I be?"

I looked down at the baggy male pyjamas on my body, suddenly there was an observable chilliness.

Feeling distressed I asked, "I didn't do anything to you, right?"

"Oh," Chi Fei Fan laughed to expose his small dimple, "You didn't do anything to me....." And not waiting for me to let out a sigh of relief, he has stretched out a finger and lifted my chin, "However, yesterday you noisily cried and pestered me like an octopus, I was at the end of my forbearance so....."

My entire body hair stood up, readily grasp things and threw it at him, screaming, "Nonsense! Don't deceive people here! Liar!"

He dodged his head from the gargle cup, suddenly very seriously said to me, "Let's get married."

I am confused, really ignorant.

It was probably the first time someone has proposed to me, who wouldn't be muddled ah?

I said, "This joke is not funny."

The results he very earnestly said, "I'm not joking, Jing Zhi, after what happened last night, I think I should marry you."

It can't be true? He really didn't deceive me?

Why is that I can't recall what happened last night?

My heart was like a mess.

Originally I felt Chi Fei Fan is courting me was not reliable, perhaps because my elder sister reasons, but I don't look like my elder sister ah, why did Lu Yu Jiang take me as a substitute, he also wants to take me as a substitute?

I finally find an irrelevant words to ask him, "Aren't you supposed to be aboard?"

He said, "How far can South Korea be, when I call you, I was already at the airport." Then he criticized me, "your alcohol tolerance is low, also try to be like others and club, you're lucky you have not been sold!"

I was a bit dizzy, felt that there was something wrong, but I just can't think of what was wrong.

I also didn't expect Chi Fei Fan's attitude was so serious, originally I just thought he must be deceiving me. But on Sunday, my father called me, "Jing Zhi ah, dinner is ready, please come back."

He hasn't called me home for dinner for many years, I was little overwhelmed by an unexpected favor, my father all along didn't like me, he treated my elder sister little better, because she's beautiful and talented, since childhood was a "three good" student, outstanding class cadres, and then studied all the way to PhD. Doctor of Science, this only several women can achieve, especially beautiful women. When my father mentioned my elder sister's his face glow, once he mentioned me, he would frown. Typically in his heart, I was a failure, truancy, fought, had no desire to make any progress, it was not easy to marry Lu Yu Jiang, he was nice to me for the sake of Lu Yi Jiang. The results subsequently when I divorced with Lu Yu Jiang, he was so angry that he served the relationship between father and daughter with me.

In any case, served ties or no, it's the same either way. I remembered the Mid Autumn Festival was almost here, maybe it was my stepmother who wanted the family harmony appearance, so call me home for dinner.

I was still very filial to buy some groceries home.

Upon opening the door, I heard my father's laughter, laughing very happily, since my elder sister died, I haven't heard him laugh. Just when I was thinking to myself, my stepmother has come out, took the red wine and cakes in my hands, smiled and said to me, "The Mid Autumn Festival [4] is still a long way off, why waste your money buying these ah....."

[4] 中秋節 Zhōng Qiū Jié: Falling on the 15th day of the 8th month, according to the Chinese lunar calendar, the Mid-Autumn Festival is the second grandest festival after the Spring Festival in China. It takes its name from the fact that it is always celebrated in the middle of the autumn season. The day is also known as the Moon Festival, as at that time of the year the moon is at its roundest and brightest.

Although it was kind words, but it's rare she'll smile so brightly, I was a little moved, called her "aunt", my father had heard, "Is it Jing Zhi who came back?"

I entered the living room, I was confused, these two days there was too much bolt from the blue, causing me to be dumbstruck.

Chi Fei Fan!

He sat in my living room with my father drinking tea.

My father said, "You really came back, also made Chi Fei Fan buy a cake. Even if it's my birthday, it's not a big birthday....."

I was confused and disoriented, not sure what was the situation, however Chi Fei Fan laugh so gentle and refined, "I wanted to come earlier to pay my respects to you and aunt, but Jing Zhi has been thin-skinned, always felt it was awkward. You know Jing Zhi, her temper....."

My father obviously like Chi Fei Fan, in his view, a divorced woman, have a man whose willing to want her, thank god, and Chi Fei Fan still so young and talent. Although Chi Fei Fan sought my elder sister, but apparently he was very glad to see this person around, still becoming his son-in-law.

During the family dinner, as usual, I ate without relish.

But Chi Fei Fan really knew how to coax people, he was not like Lu Yu Jiang, who was indifferent. It's not that he doesn't respect his elders, however, he was accustomed to keeping his distance with people, he treated his mother with virtue, my father and my aunt wanted to please this son-in-law didn't know where to start. But Chi Fei Fan is not the same, he talked about chess with my father, talk about speculation in the stock market with my aunt, making the two of them beaming with delight, he really was capable.

After we finished eating Aunt cut honeydew melon for us to eat, I affectionately offered to help her wash the dishes, she pushed me out, "There's your father, you accompany Chi Fei Fan and sit down for a while, he's our guest."

Cut!

When did he see himself as a guest?

When my father and my stepmother was busy cleaning in the kitchen, while eating the honeydew melon I asked Chi Fei Fan, "How did you know today was my father's birthday?"

I even can't remember which day my father's birthday was, obviously I have been unfilial.

He said, "As long as there's heart, anything can be found out, right?"

Which is true.

I thought something was amiss, and asked him, "What's the meaning of today?"

He adumbrate answer, "I will marry you, of course I have to come back and meet your parents."

His fierce expression was even like Lu Yu Jiang, as expected all crows under the sun are black [5], all men generally bad!

[5] 天下乌鸦一般黑 Tiān Xià Wū Yā Yì Bān Hēi; The world is much the same everywhere.

I'm indignant and threw the honeydew melon away, "Who wants to marry you?"

"We have already....." His expression was more fierce, "What if you get pregnant, what are we going to do?"

Kao!

I'm already pregnant, how can I get pregnant again?

I'm suddenly suspicious, "That night when I got drunk, I didn't say anything to you, right?"

"You did." He was in good-temper while smiling at me, "You said that you loved me for many years, unfortunately I have always liked your elder sister. You also said something about you will not let me go, life or death you will accompany me..... You held my hands, unwilling to let go, your pettish appearance, it was really sweet and lovely....." Unexpectedly Chi Fei Fan also blushed, "Otherwise, I also wouldn't have unable to control myself....."

Once again, my entire body hair stood up, I'm finished.....

I must have been unconsciously drunk that I will regard him as Lu Yu Jiang.

Drunk leads to serious trouble..... Drunk leads to serious trouble.....

Those words I never dreamt of expressing, how is that once I'm drunk it all comes out?

The back of my heart braved a swishing chill, like someone had placed a piece of ice on the my back of my neck.

This is what you called "When a person brings disasters upon themselves, there is no hope of escape" this is me.

My mood is heavy loaded like a lead, Chi Fei Fan the entire time sending me home used every trick in the book trying to make me smile, I still couldn't laugh.

When a thing like this is mixed up, who can laugh ah?

My stomach there is a little soy bean, then I slept with Chi Fei Fan, am I still a human?

I am so shameless, felt so embarrassed.

Getting drunk leads to serious trouble, this year not everyone is lucky to become the heroine, I always thought that a prince can rescue me, almost so naive and f*cking shameful.

Chapter 6

Chapter 6

When I went to work the following Monday I was listless when I found a carton of milk on the table. Chi Fei Fan's handwriting was so decorously beautiful, "Don't drink Coffee."

Every day he was giving me things, sometimes it was a bag of snacks, sometimes it was milk drinks, sometimes it was a flower.

When I used to see these little things I would smile, within these few second I felt vanity very satisfied, but now I could not smile.

I still want to drink Coffee, although it was not good for little soy bean, but little soy bean's father doesn't want me anymore. I sighed, arriving at the tea room for a cup of hot water to warm up the milk.

Lin Xin Fei told me, "Recently my cousin caught a rich husband, whose very handsome. I spent a tremendous effort making her promise to bring him out to dinner, let's go together."

I don't have any interest, "What is there to see with a handsome guy."

Lin Xin Fei almost choked, "It can't be? Didn't you whine everyday saying admiring handsome guys is the only motive in such a boring life. Even when there's a handsome guy you don't want to see, surely it doesn't mean you have yielded to Chi Fei Fan, right?"

Just the mention of Chi Fei Fan I raised with fury, "See! When there's a handsome guy, why wouldn't I go to see! Wanting me to yield? My next life!"

Lin Xin Fei praised me and said, "I know I was right about you!"

The place where we were going to have dinner was a luxury restaurant, I look at the decoration when Lin Xin Fei said, "This catch my cousin caught, is really a genuine rich guy."

Lin Xin Fei said, "Of course, the main point is not being rich, the main point is that they're rich and also very handsome, if they're not Ji Nan then it's not worth the mention of calling you out at all.”

I didn't think her cousin was Gao Xi Li, upon seeing Gao Xi Li arrive arm in arm with Lu Yu Jiang, it made me almost faint.

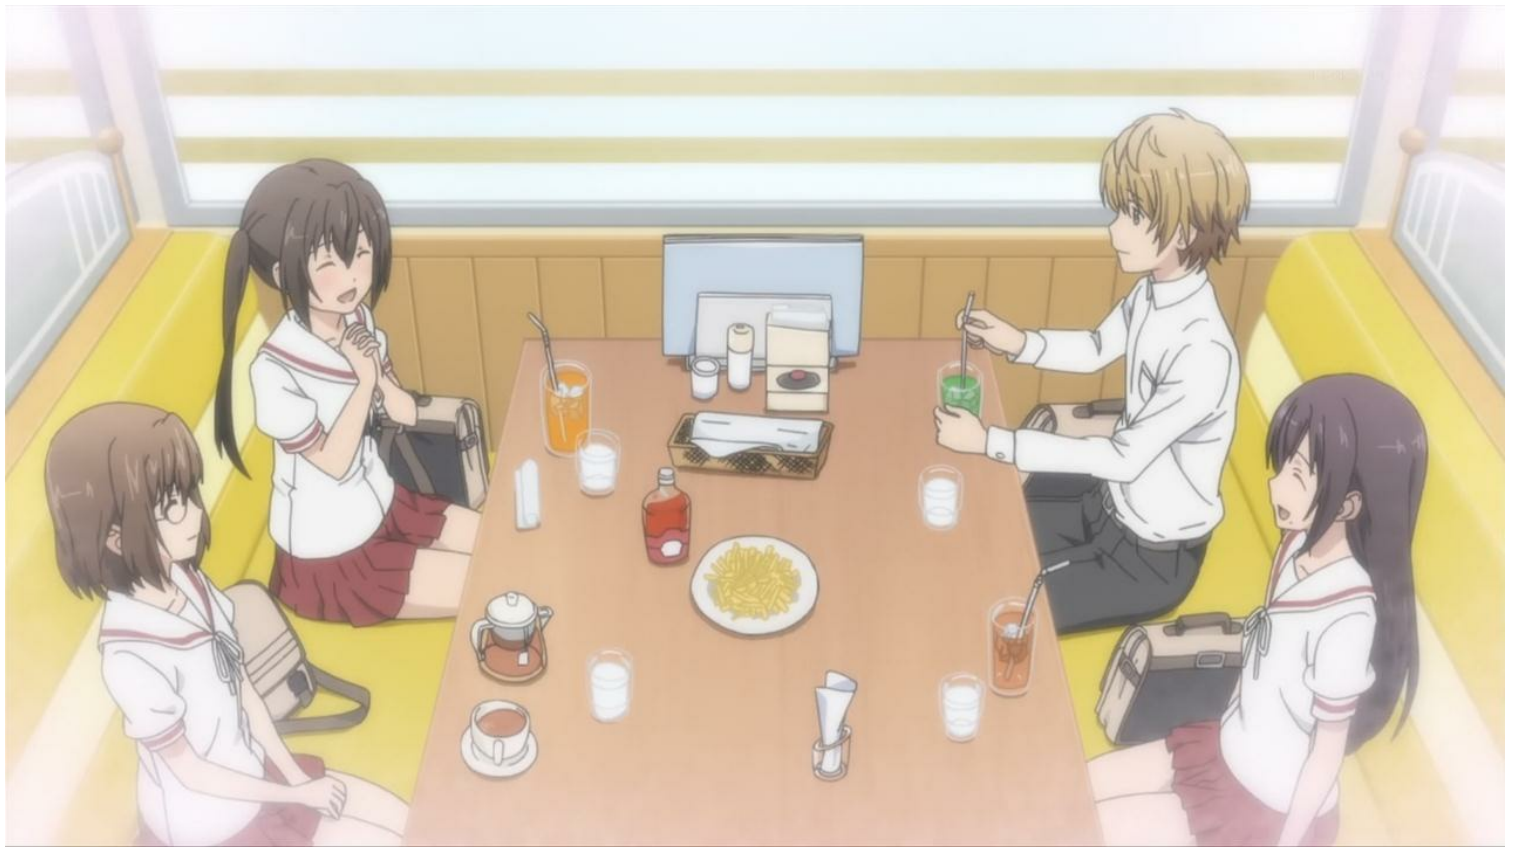

Lu Yu Jiang has never liked people touching him, when I was with him I always walked two steps behind him, like his secretary. He let that woman hold him, even my elder sister didn't have that privilege!

I held the cup with a trembling hand, the cold glass in my hot hand, the chill ran along my palm going straight to the place where my heart beats, causing that place to ache, so painful like a knife piercing through. I refrain myself from throwing the ice water over the cheating couple's head, if I only to throw the cup, isn't it going too easy on the cheating couple? I heard my own teeth chattered, causing Lin Xin Fei to ask me, “Are you cold?”

“The air conditioning is too high.” I flush a ferocious smile at her, the cheating couple has come, as soon as Gao Xi Li saw me she smiled, “Ah, turns out the friend Xin Fei was referring to was you?” She turned to Lu Yu Jiang and laugh, “Don't you think it's such a coincidence? My cousin's good friend turns out to be your relative, right, she is your.....”

“Ex-wife!”

If I let the cheating couple off, then I feel too sorry for my little soy bean, today I have woken, must give him up. As expected, once those two words came out, whether it was Lin Xin Fei or Gao Xi Li, both were completely stunned. Only Lu Yu Jiang acts if nothing had happened, very gentlemanly pulled out the chair for Gao Xi Li, repeat the two words, “Ex-wife, we divorced for a long time.”

For a long time my ass!

It's been just over a year and, exactly thirteen months and 14 days, not even fourteen months!

I flew into a rage, that assh*le was even afraid Gao Xi Li would be angry and explained to her, "I didn't tell you that day it was because I was afraid you'll feel embarrassed."

Gao Xi Li just recovered, she probably felt rude, so try to smiled at me, "Hello, I really don't know....."

"There's a lot you don't know yet." I extremely vicious smile, "How long have you been going out, two months?"

Gao Xi Li was a little muddled, stammered and said, "No....."

"Then you can see it clearly, don't think I've been divorced with him for a year." I patted Gao Xi Li's beautiful small hands, leaned over and use a voice only she could hear and said, "Just two months ago he was sleeping with me, if you don't mind, you can continue to use."

Gao Xi Li still dumbstruck, I have already taken out my mobile phone, in a supercilious manner call Chi Fei Fan. My voice was soft and feminine, even I had goose bumps, "Fei Fan ah, where are you? Working overtime again? I need you to come pick me up. Don't mention it, I do not want to eat this meal.....”

I guess this mannerism made Lu Yu Jiang want to slap me in the face, however, he didn't do anything, just pressed his lips together, staring at me.

The restaurant is very close to the company, Chi Fei Fan came in no time. Upon seeing this scene, he understood the situation. So many elite people, immediately reached out and held me by the waist, his face lit up with joy while he asked, “What's wrong?”

I the offender complain first, “Having dinner would also bumped my ex husband, what a nuisance!”

Lu Yu Jiang's eyes only want to spew out fire, I'm afraid he remembered the old scores with my elder sister, will attack Chi Fei Fan. So I slightly side block in front of Chi Fen Fan, if anything Lu Yu Jiang would not lay hands on a women in public, I said to Chi Fei Fan, “I want to eat oyster, you accompany me.”

Chi Fei Fan cooperated and embrace me affectionately, “Your stomach is not good, don't eat that, why don't we buy a little ingredient, what you want to eat we'll cook it at home?”

“Then you have to make pork braised in brown sauce for me to eat.”

“Okay,” Chi Fei Fan especially polite when greeting Lu Yu Jiang, “She is greedy, we have to go buy groceries so we shall leave first.”

We swagger before others and march off.

After getting into the car I felt exhausted, leaning against the window, I did not want to move.

Chi Fei Fan was very considerate, he didn't bother me, let me quietly lay there.

At a time like this I felt Chi Fei Fan was in fact, quite good, at least he knows when to advance, when to back off, when to let me be, and when to coax me.

Waiting for Chi Fei Fan to cook took a long time, finally when he brought out a pot of delicious braised pork in brown sauce, I was moved to tears, made me almost wanted to marry him on the spot.

“You can cook a meal, you're too perfect!”

Chi Fei Fan said while scratching my nose, “Which students can’t cook? In foreign countries if you want to eat hot food you have to do it yourself.”

I ate a mouthful flow of oil, mm mm nodded, “Brother-in-law, you are the new generation of good men!”

Surprisingly, he blankly glanced at me, “Then why do you still refused to marry me ah?”

It is too difficult to answer, I was very quick-witted, “I want to marry a juniors of high-ranking officials!”

“Ah?” Chi Fei Fan was a little startled, “Why?”

“Because they won’t divorce ah,” I told him gab, “I have been divorced once, I can not bear another divorce.”

Chi Fei Fan felt it was especially funny, “How do you come out with one set after another.”

“Online.” I did not lie to him, when I had nothing to do I would just read romance novels online, the male leads in there were all affectionate, will never change until death, just like Lu Yu Jiang fancy and so infatuated with my elder sister, the results didn’t he still find himself a Gao Xi Li?

And all of those romance novels have happy endings, apart from those stepmother ones. I was telling Chi Fei Fan about 《Cinderella’s Dream》[\[1\]](#), inside the two protagonists special infatuation was especially pitiful, even after death they cannot be together.”

Chi Fei Fan still seems very interested, asked me, “Do you like Meng He Ping [\[2\]](#) or do you like Ruan Zheng Dong [\[2\]](#) ah?”

[\[1\]](#) 佳期如夢 Jia Qi Ru Meng: Is a novel written by Fei Wo Si Cun. It was adapted into a drama with the title: The Girl in Blue.

Synopsis

After university student You Jia Qi met Meng He Ping, the two started dating.

Meng He Ping's mother however strongly objected to their relationship. Jia Qi broke up with He Ping and He Ping angrily went overseas. Jia Qi's friend Ruan Zheng Dong who comes from a rich family, had an accident and ended up in the hospital. Jia Qi went to visit him and unexpectedly met He Ping again. It turned out that He Ping and Zheng Dong were childhood friends. To escape from the heartaches that He Ping's reappearance brought about, Jia Qi started dating Zheng Dong. Zheng Dong ended up in the hospital again due to stomach pains which turned out to be the terminal stage of gastric cancer. He decided to let He Ping and Jia Qi, the two lovers be together and secretly left. Jia Qi started to search for him. After Jia Qi finally found Zheng Dong, she told him that she has already fallen in love with him. Zheng Dong knew that he didn't have much time left and asked Jia Qi to help him retrieve back a very important property belonging to him.

[2] Meng He Ping and Ruan Zheng Dong are both male leads in the novel.

I hummed and hawed while eating the pork, "Of course I want both of them, life will be fulfilled."

Chi Fei Fan angrily poke his finger on my forehead, "Pig!"

I'm not a pig, I'm also not fickle and lascivious, I'm just insatiably avaricious.

In fact, I quite like Zheng Dong, but he can not live, what else can I do?

He had a grand fireworks in the Jin Mao tower, hoping Jia Qi [3] will remember him. Doesn't he know that fireworks blasted and vanished in an instant, like life, who knows who will not be here tomorrow?

[3] Jia Qi is the female protagonist in the novel Jing Zhi is telling Chi Fei Fan about, "Dream Wedding Day"

I ate pork braised in brown sauce until I felt like I'll burst, Chi Fei Fan accompany me in the alley walking in circles to help with digestion, my mood is not particularly good, so I took his arm, and recall my first love with him, also not afraid he'll laugh at me.

"Because he gave you some bubble gum to eat, so you fell in love with him?"

I nodded, "Since young I had no mother, who ever treated me a little better, I'll anxiously shake my head and wag at them."

Chi Fei Fan despise me, "Just then you were a pig, now you're a dog!"

I have serious doubts there's a problem with my own character, even Chi Fei Fan who's so gracious when he's with me, would rush to speak bitter words to me. Maybe my roughness really make a man act ungentlemanly, I angrily said, "Don't you want me to marry you? Can't you say something nice?"

Chi Fei Fan played along and patted his chest, "In fact, I'm fortunate he was your first love, fortunate that he moved away after graduating from primary school, or else won't I have more than one love rival?"

I was amused with him causing me chuckle.

Today was a very uncomfortable day, especially to see the cheating couple, but I also had enough. Eating a big pot of pork braised in brown sauce, and Chi Fei Fan accompany me, coax me happy, I heartlessly felt better.

After sending Chi Fei Fan off, I strolled back alone, just when I was about to get the key to open the door, suddenly in the dark a person appeared reach out and grab my shoulders. Fortunately I also I learned a decade of Taekwondo, my reaction was still there, instincts kicked him past in the shovel. I estimated an average person would have flown eight yards from my kick, however this man response was too quick, in a flash he hid, his strength was great, twisting my arm pushing me firmly against the wall.

Although there was no lights in the dark yard, but just from this move alone if I couldn't guess who this bastard was, then I really must be a pig. Thinking of the things I did today, I knew he would not spare me. But how could he find here. Did Chen Mo betray me? I knew Chen Mo take love more seriously than friendship, I didn't expect him to take love more seriously than friendship to this point! I opened my mouth to cry for help, Lu Yu Jiang pulled my face over, directly use something warm to keep my mouth shut.

I tried hard to struggle, only to find that the warm thing plugging in my mouth was his mouth, this ass*le!

Chapter 7

His tongue stuck in my mouth, trying to push me toward the wall. His two hands cutting into me, my internal organs almost jumped out, suffocating until my eyes almost rolled back. Does this assh*le want to murder me? I only provoke him and that Gao Xi Li and now he want to kill me?

He finally pulled his mouth away, before I could breathe a breath of fresh air, his hand was around my neck and pushed me into the house, he pushed me until I almost passed out, I struggled to get up to run out, he had locked the door.

Without turning on the lights I could still see his eyes, faintly like a wolf, there were almost a burst of meteors. I was really scared, my legs weaken, but I have to try using the delay tactic, "I did not tell your girlfriend anything, I just advised her to reconsider....." Looking at his hand clench into a fist, I was so frightened that I closed my eyes, although he previously did not have problems with domestic violence, every time it was always me that attacked first then he'll deal with me. However he was so angry today, what else couldn't he do?

The results once "Chi La", I didn't know where my clothes were torn, his hot lips on my chest, even his breathing seems filled with fiery hatred, "You dare to say one more word, I'll strangle you to death!"

He painfully bit me, I knew what he wanted to do. This assh*le has really turned into a wolf, a lecherous wolf. I was also irritated, f*ck, he already has a girlfriend but ran to me here to do such immoral behavior. His amazing strength, his action was also very rough, simply venting his frustrations. I began to feel panic, suddenly remembered my little soy bean in my stomach, seeing him in this beast appearance, I'm afraid he'll hurt little soy bean. I was knocked out last time, if I let him win this time, I'll be unable to face the party and the people. I grit my teeth, lifted my face and kissed him. At first he ignored me, only seek to bite me, I patiently kiss him from his lips to his ear. I knew his neck was his most sensitive area, so I deliberately remain there, gently biting and sucking his neck, his tyrannical and tension gradually relaxed, he even slightly inaudible grunt, it seem to have worked, his hold on my arm also imperceptibly loosen up, stretching out his hand to fondle my hair. At this time, I unexpectedly bend my knee and desperately served him a kick.

He gave a grunt and fell, for a long time he didn't utter a word, I turned on the light, only to see him sweating profusely in pain, he could barely stand.

I couldn't have really kick that hard, right? He's reactions has always been quick, I thought he would have dodge it.

I tugged his clothes while kept a wary eye on him.

He lifted up his head to look at me, he gritted his teeth and asked, "Ye Jing Zhi, do you hate me so?"

I said, "I don't have the energy to hate you. Let me tell you, if you do this again, I will call the police!"

Lu Yu Jiang gave a cold laugh, "I will leave immediately. Don't worry, when you and Chi Fei Fan get married, I will definitely send a red packet [1]."

[1] 红包 Hóng Bāo: For Chinese Weddings, guests will give a red packet of money as a form of blessing.

I am not so stupid to believe that he was jealous. The enmity between him and Chi Fei Fan is too deep, plus the fact that I made Gao Xi Li angry, I guessed that Gao Xi Li must have broken up with him, hence he was so angry.

He finally left. I sat here, my clothes in a mess, my feelings numb.

I could not forget his expression when he spoke, it was filled with disgust and disdain, and also a trace of an inexpressible painful hatred. His words kept echoing in my ear, as he asked, "Ye Jing Zhi, do you hate me so?"

I did not hate him at all, not even a little bit.

No matter even if he had never loved me before, no matter how badly he treated me, no matter how cold and heartless he was during the divorce, no matter even if he went to find Gao Xi Li today, I have never hated him.

I used all my strength to love him, so I did not have any excess strength to hate him.

I was this useless.

At the start, he did not know elder sister for very long and she fell sick. He was extremely righteous, he paid for all of elder sister's hospital bills. You must realise that for a normal family, the hospital bills were an astronomical sum. Luckily there was him, if not elder sister would not have lasted so long. But finally, elder sister had withered until she could no longer go on, in her sickest moments, her temper was very bad, but he would always gently and carefully cajole her to be happy. He would go to her hospital ward everyday to help her comb her hair. Elder sister used to have a head of beautiful hair, but because of the medicine, they had almost all fallen off. When he combed her hair, he was always very careful to hide the strands that fell off, so elder sister would not know and become sad.

When elder sister passed away, she held his hand without letting go. She could no longer speak, but she still always held his hand. He tightly grasped elder sister's hand, as if he wanted to give her some strength, as if he wanted to hold onto a bit of her life.

At that moment, I thought, this man is someone you could give your life to. Elder sister must have been very very regretful that she could not marry him.

I used all sorts of methods to marry him. I was afraid he did not love me, but, I still loved him.

In Demi-Gods and Semi-Devils [2], Ah Ci [3] said, "On that night, in the huge thunderstorm, at the little bridge, I saw you kill my elder sister. You cried so heartbroken that my heart started to really really like you. My heart said, 'You don't have to be so sad. Even though you no longer have Ah Zhu [3], I will be like Ah Zhu, I will treat you well and love you with all my heart.'"

But so what?

In the end, Qiao Feng [3] still did not like her. Dislike is dislike, one cannot force it.

[2] 天龙八部 Demi-Gods and Semi-Devils is a wuxia novel by Jin Yong (Louis Cha). The plot is made up of several separate yet intertwining story lines, revolving around three protagonists, who are sworn brothers: Qiao Feng the Warrior, Duan Yu the Prince and Xuzhu the Monk. The complex narrative shifts from the initial perspective of Duan Yu to the other characters' and sometimes back.

[3] Ah Ci, Ah Zhu and Qiao Feng are all characters from Demi-Gods and Semi-Devils.

Even at the end, in front of death, Ah Ci hugged Qiao Feng, and jumped down the lofty and bottomless cliff.

I felt that Ah Ci was much luckier than me, I did not even have a chance to hug Lu Yu Jiang and die together.

Disclaimer: Start of ** to the end ** passage has been translated by decembi. No point in double translating, since translating does take a lot of time. ^^

For several days I was depressed, since the incident that occurred that day Lin Xin Fei did not gossip with me about handsome guys. The company was very calm, there were no indications that any of my colleagues knew that I am Lu Yu Jiang's ex-wife. On this point I was very grateful towards Lin Xin Fei, she has quite arena of moral, even if I messed things up for her cousin's millionaire, she also wouldn't speak ill of me.

I think I must be in a very bad mood, I was listless while handling work matters. It was almost the end of the day when I received a phone call, it was Chi Fei Fan who called me.

"Did you know? Just then in the meeting the big boss has decided to increase your bonus."

I was surprised and asked, "Why?"

I was below the big boss so many levels (floors) ah, this old man also know in the company there was a person like me, who so quickly in front of the big boss set me up? Besides increasing my bonuses does not require the big boss to nod ah, human resource approval was enough. Could it be Lu Yu Jiang was so determinedly angry that he even resorted to using his influences in the business industry to retaliate against me? This is too despicable!

Chi Fei Fan's mood was heavy, "Because for a few days your face was like dark clouds, the big boss think you're seriously affecting the morale in the company."

For a moment I was surprised, I realised Chi Fei Fan was especially making fun of me, so I very flattering hollow laughed twice.

Chi Fei Fan hearing that I was still dejected, so he said, "You're still not happy? Well I still have some very happy things to tell you."

"What?"

"Lu Yu Jiang just planted a somersault, I estimate right now he even has the intentions of jumping off the building."

I simply did not believe it, "Who can cause Lu Yu Jiang to jump off the building ah, it's not too late to wait until he actually jumps then inform me to speculate."

"You don't believe me?" He lowered his voice as he told me, "Doesn't Lu Yu Jiang have a Real Estate Company under his leadership? It has been accused of illegal loans, the bank credit director committed suicide, the situation has been blown out of proportion. Now it is still unknown to outsiders, the moment the press finds out it'll be hilarious. China Vanke prices falling, Lu Yu Jiang will encounter creditors knocking on his door, gee, recently major developers days are really difficult."

I paused, then said, "He will not do illegal things, he is not a stupid person."

"He didn't do it, maybe his employees didn't either. Now something has happen, there are people dead, he can cleanly clear himself from this?" Chi Fei Fan tone was very relaxed, "Besides, his business outside how much can you know? Can you be certain he has nothing to do with this?"

I was suffocated by him, when we weren't divorce, Lu Yu Jiang never mention his business in front of me, he rarely took me out to dinner parties, unless it was such occasion that required his family. He probably thought I can't be presentable in public, and I never had that ambition, also honestly I just stayed at home and never questioned.

I asked Chi Fei Fan, "How did you find out about this?"

Chi Fei Fan said, "That you don't bother. Yes, why don't we invite Lu Yu Jiang to have dinner with us tonight.”

He emphasis the word “we” exceptionally clear, I was distracted for a moment, “Why do you want to invite him to dinner?”

“A few days ago didn’t he bring his girlfriend to swagger before you? Didn’t that make you so mad that you even finished the pot of braised pork in brown sauce, such a big pot of meat ah, I didn’t even finish eating. Honey, this round we have to win. While he is being scorched by the flames, we’ll invite him to dinner, and be all affectionate and drive him crazy!”

The way he said honey was really creepy, I felt at lost whether to laugh or cry, “Brother-in-law, how come I have not discovered you were originally so black bellied?”

“What is black bellied? This is call not suffering looses” He asked, “What, your heart is aching?”

“Why would my heart ache for him?”

Although I do not believe Chi Fei Fan’s word, but to hear him vividly describe every detail, I still felt a bit confused. To read the news online two days later, I suddenly saw that particular bank credit director’s suicide involved a huge violation loans and so on, my heart-felt golden.

Just a few hundred word news, I anxiously read over a dozen of times, did not see any clues.

That night I dreamt about Lu Yu Jiang being arrested, although he was framed, but he was such a proud and arrogant person can he really bear this? Taking on all the crime, he was finally sentenced to jail, when the police took him away I cried overwhelmed by grieved, just the thought of my little soy bean born without a father, I was heartbroken, cried until I woke up crying.

I was born despicable, really despicable!

I ran to Lu Yi Jiang’s office, because I didn’t have the key card so I couldn’t get in the villa, with no other choice but to look for him in his office. The beautiful Secretary upon seeing me immediately turn pale, I pretend to push her, she was so frightened that she retreated three steps, begging me, “Miss Ye, Lu Zong have guests, let me give him a call, okay?”

Last time when I broke into the office, Lu Yu Jiang must have criticized her, why would employees makes things difficult for another employee, besides I'm already here, Lu Yu Jiang wouldn't dare not to see me, with such determination who can stop me?

So I tenderly said, "All right, you call then."

Exceeding one's expectations I gently soothe the beautiful Secretary, her expression was obviously much better, also gratefully smiled at me, she spoke a few words on the phone, after hanging up she was trembling with fear like a small white rabbit, "Miss Ye, Lu Zong asked you to please wait a minute, he is currently busy."

He's really was a big tail wolf disguised.

But thinking of my purpose for coming here, I'll endure this, endure until I vomit blood I still have to endure.

So I said gently, "Okay, I'll wait here."

The beautiful Secretary was so shock that her jaws just dropped. To be honest this timid look of mine even I couldn't believe it myself, how could she?

I waited for about ten minutes, when I finally heard the door "Kacha" sound, it was Lu Yu Jiang personally sending out his guest.

Surprisingly this guest turned out to be Gao Xi Li.

Kao!

I was on fire!

I was worried that he was scorched by the flames, who knew he was being affectionate with that women in his office, at a time like this he still had the mood for romance, and the most unforgivable sin is he actually deliberately left me hanging outside!

Chapter 8.1

When Gao Xi Li saw me, my estimation it was enemy meeting with particular jealousy, her gaze was like a swishing knife, my gaze was like a whizzing bullet, a cold weapon against a hot weapon, who was afraid of who? Finally, she was unable to withstand the sustain blows, her eyes were red, dejectedly retreat.

Lu Yu Jiang still wanted to send her out. Well, even if sending each other off I will make you two break up, you want to play 《Butterfly Lovers》, I tell you even if one become a fly one become a butterfly, you won't even have the chance to fly side by side. So I suddenly jumped up, pull Lu Yu Jiang's sleeve, "Yu Jiang, I have something important to tell you."

I never ever called Lu Yu Jiang this way, whining so much even I have got goose bumps. I grabbed and held onto Lu Yu Jiang's sleeves, he also didn't pull my hands away, however stared at me with his eyes.

I was accustomed to his stare, like a sticky candy I just smile at him.

The beautiful Secretary act very accordingly, seeing Gao Xi Li brimming with tears, she immediately said, "Miss Gao, I'll send you out, the elevator is this way."

Gao Xi Li got a way out, turned and left.

Lu Yu Jiang didn't look at me, he stormed into the office. I followed him in, he didn't talk to me.

Who said a distressed Phoenix is inferior to a chicken ah? Seeing him hold his airs appearance, like there was no difference from before.

However on a closer look, I felt that his complexion was not very well, there were black circles around his eye, his chin was more pointer than before, obviously thinner.

We only haven't seen in a few days, he has worn out incredibly.

It seems what Chi Fei Fan said was 80% accurate.

Originally I thought Lu Yu Jiang was second generation rich [1], at best he can be considered an entrepreneurial success, now I think about it, in fact, it has not been easy for him, there were several firms under his management, with so many employees, they all rely on him for a living. The board of directors were a bunch of old guys who are ruthless and greedy [2], I remember every time before the board conferences, a few days he obviously had the instability to eat and sleep well, even when I act endearingly [3] he also ignore me.

[1] 二世祖 èr Shì Zǔ: is a Cantonese term. Refers to a generation of powerful rich people, the next rich generation that just idle away in seeking pleasure without a single success. However for the translation I have used 富二代 Fù èr Dài which is the Mandarin term with the same meaning.

[2] 吃人不吐骨头 Chī Rén Bù Tǔ Gǔ Tóu: To eat and not spit the bones it's a Chinese idiom which means cruel, and greedy.

[3] 发嗲 Fā Diǎ: In Shanghai dialect, not only a young woman but also a man can employ endearment to attract attention or invite sympathy.

“Have you stared enough yet?” He folded his arms and leaned back in his chair, his eyebrows knitted together in a little frown, between his eyebrow there was an apparent word “River”. I suddenly wanted to have an iron, to iron flat this word.

I pulled my skirt, coughed again, not knowing what to say.

His eyes narrowed, “You wouldn’t be bringing me your wedding invitation? What a big thing ah? Bring it out then, I said I will send you a red envelope.”

I was angry with him and ask, “Would you marry ‘Koguryo’?”

He hesitated for a moment then came to understand, “What ‘Koguryo’, why do you give people nicknames? Miss Gao is my girlfriend, whether I marry her or not, it’s none of your business.”

He always had a way to make me feel heart-broken, also not waiting for me to speak, he put out a “attending to a myriad affairs daily” posture, “What’s the matter?? I have a meeting in a moment.”

I open and closed my mouth, seeing that I rarely spoke haltingly, he unexpectedly smiled, “What words are that difficult to export, it is difficult because you want to borrow money from me?”

This assh*le caused me much anger, I blurted out and said, “I’m pregnant.”

Saying the two words was much more difficult than I’ve imagined, what if he wasn’t excited as I was, but I spent a tremendous effort, it was almost hard to make them come out through my teeth. The office was very quiet, I could even hear my own heartbeat, thump thump. My palm was also sweaty, my eyes never blinked, stared into his eyes, wanting to see what his reaction would be.

In fact, he didn’t have any big reaction at all, he only rapidly narrowed his pupil, but there was no expression on his face. I noticed his hand, because he was holding his arms, I could only see his index finger, slightly trembling, his elbow was very tight. I uneasily stared at him, regarding this matter it was also my first time, I also don’t know what his reaction would be. In fact, I just wanted to tell him, regarding the business situation it’s also not a big deal, even if failed he can also start all over again. I can accompany him and there’s also our child, there will be no one that can’t separate our family of three. The child and I will be with him, always accompanied by his side.

But his appearance like this, he didn’t even turn back to utter a word to me, I don’t know what he’s thinking, however seeing him like this, I was not at all happy.

Finally, he smiled, his laugh seems very calm, very cool, “Oh, it turns out to be a shotgun wedding, no wonder it’s so urgent.”

I exhausted my entire body’s strength to control myself from taking the knife on the table and throwing it at him, “You assh*le! The child is yours!”

The interior was surprisingly quiet, he stared at me, I could not inarticulate what his facial expression was, he appeared startled, and also look surprised, or was it confused, or even heart-broken, in any case there still no joy.

My heart sank to the deepest part of the sea, my fingers were cold, my lips tasted bitter, ask, “You don’t believe in me?”

He quickly said, “I believe you.”

I breathed a sigh of relief, at least in his mind, I will not take this kind of thing to deceive him.

But he did not look happy, he even appeared very, very lost, he stared at me, staring at me the entire time, I have no idea what he was staring at.

I don't know why, I suddenly felt a bit fearful, like a bad premonition, probably because he was silent for too long, too long, long as one's foot coming down the stairs, I do not know what was waiting for me.

His voice was like a string that's hasn't been tuned, with indescribable dryness, as if a great deal of effort, before he uttered this sentence, "Ye Jing Zhi, abort this child."

In my head "buzz" a sound, I felt an unpleasant shock, looked at him incredulously, I could hardly believe he would say these words, but he clearly just said them. I used to just think he does not love me, now I know, it turns out he absolutely despise me. Even his own flesh and blood he wanted to kill, did he despise me to this extent?

I heard my own voice, already trembling, "Why?"

He looked at me, staring at me the entire time, I don't know what he's looking at, but I knew was trembling, I asked again, "Why?"

He finally turned his face away, his gaze fell into the distance of nothingness, "I don't want you to have a baby."

These eight simple little words pushed me into the terrain. Many previous situations from our three years of marriage flash like a movie playing in the back of my mind, he treated me indifferently, the awkwardness, those words he said... ... I bear out a layer after layer of sweat, just like all the blood in my blood vessels were to seep out of my skin, I felt my mouth parched and my tongue scorched, my limbs were cold, just as tempting to suck away my tendons, like I was stabbed by dozens of knives, all stabbing in my heart, so painful that my stomach twitched. I could not stand up, holding down the table. I looked at my own big tear drop on the carpet, then many soon followed, blurring my vision. What is there to cry about? For this ass*le, he doesn't want me, he also doesn't want my child either, what is there to cry about... ...

"Jing Zhi!" He still wants to embrace me, I tried desperately to pull away, but was unable to break free from his hand, instead the back of my head hit on the table legs. I'm always so foolish, so muddle and harming myself. He did not dare to move, like begging, "Jing Zhi, you're still young, you can always have children later... .."

I finally looked up at him, look at this guy I have loved for five years, from the age of twenty-one until now, the most beautiful years of my life were given by him. I gave him all my love. But the presence him, I don't know at all. Or the person I thought he was, was only my own wishful thinking.

My tears surged out, just like my heart, broken into pieces, embedded within my internal organs, stabbing me very uncomfortably, but it was hopeless. I looked at him, and asked, "I can have children again—— just not with you, right?"

Through the blurred tears, I saw his lips moving, like in vain to explain something, but I couldn't hear the slightest of what he was saying. My ear had a rumbling sound, as if one thousand big truck passed by and crushing my entire person in the process.

Little soy bean, mummy never thought in a thousand to million that your daddy really didn't want you. He is so cruel, mummy is being unfair to you.

I was extremely heart-broken, as if someone has broken my heart, and then piece by piece were all thrown into the fire, watching it burn into ashes.

Turns out the saddest thing in this world was when a heart turns grey.

Chapter 8.2

I finally wiped my tears, I'm a pregnant woman, crying is not good for little soy bean, I won't let anyone hurt little soy bean. In that moment I made up my mind, I have to go with the TVB route, since Lu Yu Jiang don't want this child, I will run away and give birth to him, and then bring him up to become a business elites, comeback after twenty years and destroyed Lu Yu Jiang's company, smashed his business, forced him to jump off the building, finally we mother and child will not think of him as a dish, drive him crazy!

Just because you have a few lousy bucks!

I will turn you into a pauper, no more girls to flirt with, no money to fling.

Lu Yu Jiang never thought in this moment I'll have so many ideas, but overwhelmed by grief I still cried, while gnashing my teeth in anger, he probably was afraid I'll set his office on fire, so he put his arm around me tightly, "Jing Zhi, you listen to me....."

"Listen your f*cking head!"

I readily took the giant crystal ashtray on the desk and fiercely hit it towards his head.

The ashtray was imported Czech crystal, twelve inches in diameter, it was simply a murder weapon!

Just hearing the sound "Plop", he had fallen on the carpet. His head was broken and bleeding, looks rather than frightening.

I tried to find his pulse, indeed he just fainted. I knew my strength limits, because I didn't want to receive a suspended death sentence for murder, causing little soy bean to neither have a father and no mother.

I felt like I didn't vent enough, while scolding, and I even kick him three times, "Even a vicious tiger would not eat its own cub [1], you're even worse than a beast! [2]"

[1] 虎毒还不食子 Hǔ Dú Hái Bù Shí Zǐ: The idiom means this proverb ‘Even a monster would not hurt its own children.’

[2] 禽兽不如 Qín Shòu Bù Rú: The beast is an idiom, meaning even than a beast. Describe the personality is low, very badly behaved ; to behave immorally.

Although I didn’t dare to wear high heels because I’m pregnant, but the strength on my feet was not a bit vague, if I don’t kick him until he had a subcutaneous soft tissue contusion, I’ll be unworthy of the taekwondo I’ve practice for more than ten years.

When I valiantly dash out of the office, the beautiful Secretary from behind the computer screen hesitate to stuck her head out and look at me.

I rushed to give her a pleasant smile, “Lu Zong fell asleep, so I’ll go. You don’t bother him, these two days he was very busy, let him sleep.”

The beautiful Secretary nodded, still sweetly escorted me to the elevator.

Sitting in the cab I started to think, I have to find a cheaper father for little soy bean ah, after all, single parent families, it’s a little pitiful. The first preference would be Chen Mo, he will do anything for me, but if it’s like this little soy bean would still have no father, instead he’ll have two mothers, this is also too absurd. The second choice is Chi Fei Fan, but I don’t know what his attitude would be towards little soy bean.

What the hell, I’ll laid down my cards with Chi Fei Fan, if he is willing to be this cheap father, of course it’ll be a very good omen, if he is not willing, I also have to live to up and just let him die in this heart of mine.

I went straight to Chi Fei Fan’s apartment, he has today off, he’ll definitely will be at home. So I rang the doorbell and he opened the door for me, upon seeing me he even bluntly blinked twice, presumably surprised why I suddenly came to find him. I took a deep breath, threw the bomb toward him, “Chi Fei Fan, I’m pregnant!”

Chi Fei Fan looked at me, I haven’t said my second sentence when I heard a “bang” sound, a teacup landing behind him.

I tiptoed towards Chi Fei Fan and my looked behind, I saw a beautiful woman, but her age seems a little more mature, her face has just recovered from the shock, her teacup fell on the ground and broke into a pool of slag. I'm finished, did I get into trouble? I didn't expect Chi Fei Fan also hide an intimate girlfriend, usually this guy was very considerate towards me, I didn't think he would be stepping on two boats [3], also the new trend of "cougar" relationship. [4]

Today my ba zi [5] was restricted in daily fortune [6], where ever I go will encounter evil spirits.

[3] 脚踏两条船 Jiǎo Tà Liǎng Tiáo Chuán: two-timer, to have two lovers at the same time.

[4] 姐弟恋 Jiě Dì Liàn: Literally means, "elder sister-younger brother love". A love relationship in which the female is older than the male.

[5] 八字 Bā Zì: A Feng Shui term that refers to one's date and time of birth, or the destiny that one is born with.

[6] 犯冲 Fàn Chōng: Is Feng Shui terms, that is often said that the restriction in daily fortune.

Before I could come up with the words to explain this misunderstanding, the older beautiful woman said, "Fei Fan, what is this all about?"

I'm finished, listening to this harsh tone, she certainly thinks Chi Fei Fan and I were adulterer and doxy.

The results Chi Fei Fan righteously hug my shoulder, said to the beautiful older woman, "Mother, this is my girlfriend."

I... I... I...

This made me almost vomit blood, this scenario is too BH. [7]

[7] BH is the abbreviation pinyin for Biaohan, which means fierce/tough.

Even if you beat me to death I also don't think this was his mother, how could his mother be so young? My thoughts were running wild, Chi Fei Fan had secretly pinched my arm. I don't know what he meant, but if I didn't follow his words, I estimated he will be use ruthless hands and pinch me, so I stammered exclaimed, "Aunty....."

Aunty that maintain herself quite well stared at me for a moment. Oh, thinking back to the year I met Lu Yu Jiang's mother, I did my hair, apply a mask, wore new clothes, I carefully prepared for several days, when the old madam saw me, also didn't praise me. Today I wore coarse clothes, my make-up was ruined from just crying, my eye were swollen, this aunty must have thought, where come out a strange ugly person, even dare to fight for her son's attention.....

The results aunty laughed quite gently, stretched out her hand and took me by the hand, "Come, tell aunty, what's your name?"

Why this aunty seem like a kindergarten aunty ah?

But the show must go on, Chi Fei Fan was begging me, for a friend, I will do anything, let alone my brother-in-law?

I pretended to be a small white rabbit, coyly told her, "My name is Ye Jing Zhi."

"Jing Zhi ah, this name is really nice." She patted my hand, her hands were soft, very comfortably in my hands, "How long have you and Fei Fan been going out? Fei Fan has been keeping this from us."

I dare not utter nonsense, looked up Chi Fei Fan, he said, "She is my classmate's younger sister, we knew each other before I went aboard, I did not expect that upon returning we would work at the same company, quite fated, we started dating."

Aunty seems quite satisfied, I guess it's because our company is the world's top 500, able to get in would be a person with virtuous and talented, academic ability are awesome too, of course I was an exception like a fish in troubled waters. Aunty complains to Chi Fei Fan, "You this child, really a muddle-head. How many times have your father and I urge you, if you have a girlfriend, to bring her back for us to have a look. You have a look, what do we do now?" She said while eyeing on my belly, could not help but beam with delight. "But it's also good, hurry up and prepare the wedding, there's still time!"

For someone who was so thick skinned I also wanted to find a dug hole in the ground and hide..... This plot development..... It was indeed too dog blood.....

Chi Fei Fan said, "Mother, didn't I just inform you now? We haven't discuss about marriage yet....."

"You're still won't get married?" Aunty was angry, "how long do you want to drag to?"

I could not help but say, “In fact.....”

“In fact, we also want to get married.” Chi Fei Fan rushing to interrupt me, “but Jing Zhi has once been married, I am afraid you and father will disagree.”

This tactic/move was really ruthless, who wants their own son to marry a second marriage. I haven't praise Chi Fei Fan for his cleverness when aunty had said, “Divorced can't remarry? Come, follow me go home, today your father is at home, regarding your father let me speak!”

I guess “father-in-law” background is very big, however I had not guessed that he, the old man's background was actually big to this point.

When I saw the guard, I was thoroughly muddled, finally when I got off I didn't which direction my leg was taking.

Like reading romance novels on the Internet, it couldn't be more normal than having a dozen of chapters in front of you, then reaching the end when the author suddenly reveals the male lead is a junior of high-ranking officials, who wouldn't be shocked by such magic and illusion and thrown into a chaos by the wind?

Without such shock..... I almost want to hold the author who wrote my story and shake their head! No professional ethics..... their inspiration must have dried up..... sure signs of cheating the fees.....

“Father-in-law” was quite kind, he asked me a few simple questions, such as what does my parents do for a living, which university I graduated from, where do I work now. Upon hearing Chi Fei Fan and I were colleagues, he seemed quite happy, and then criticize Chi Fei Fan, “Since now there's a problem, then we must use effective methods to solve the problem, don't procrastinate, procrastination is not responsible.”

Indeed the art of speaking for leaders were unique.

But did he really intend to let his son take responsibility, I feel sick.

“Father-in-law” had a conference meeting at night, he chatted with us for a while before he needed to leave. Aunty seems quite satisfied with the results, so let Chi Fei Fan take me to his room to rest.

Once the door open I didn't collapsed on the sofa, tearfully accused Chi Fei Fan, "How can you harm me?"

"Who told you to rushed in and say you're pregnant?"

9.1

Chapter 9

Yes, I was guilty, not to such heinous crime extent ah.

I pulled a long face, “I’ve known you for so long, you didn’t say your father is such a big leader.”

Chi Fei Fan unexpectedly also comforted me, “There are many that are higher level of leadership than my father, and besides the nature of all civil servants are the same.”

I relentlessly accused him, “But you’re usual presentation doesn’t come off as a junior!”

He felt like it was very funny, “Then how should a junior should be ah?”

“At least drive a Maybach?” I counting down, “As well as Bugatti Veyron, Spyker, Maserati, Phaeton .....”

Chi Fei Fan said, “I’m not selling cars, and besides with my salary can I afford these cars?”

So to say romance novels are deceptive! Deceptive!

After the shock, I thought things through again, and I finally felt relieved, “Will your mother check my ancestors three generations, and then go on a vigorous campaign to break up us the affectionate couples [1]? A woman like me certainly can’t become your family’s daughter-in-law, do not let her waste her strength, I’ll automatically withdraw okay?”

[1] 棒打鸳鸯 Bàng Dǎ Yuān Yāng: Analogy for loving couple or lovers. 鸳鸯 Yuān Yāng are Mandarin ducks. Literature used the analogy of husband and wife.

Chi Fei Fan blankly stared at me, “You read too many romance novels, is my mother that kind of person?”

I told him very earnestly, “The child in my womb is not yours, we can’t get married.”

Chi Fei Fan inverted a sad face, “How is that you and your elder sister are both this like ah? Your elder sister always asked whose son I was, she was also like this. You also said you wanted to marry a junior of high-ranking officials, the results you are Lord Ye professed to love dragons! [2]“

[2] 叶公好龙 Yè Gōng Hào Lóng: Lord Ye professed to love dragons – Lord Ye of ancient times who was very fond of dragons adorned his whole palace — beams, pillars, doors, windows and walls — with drawings and carvings of them. When a real dragon in heaven heard of this it was deeply moved by his infatuation and paid him a visit. When Lord Ye saw the real dragon thrusting in its head through the window of his study and its tail moving in his palace, he was frightened out of the house for his life. Clearly, what Lord Ye loved was not the real dragons.

Lord Ye... was someone who claimed to be fond of dragons was scared out of his wits when a real one appeared. Yeah, I didn't think I have the same problem as the same clansmen ancestor, I did not expect Chi Fei Fan still have such a sad history. My elder sister true love is also really hard to find, it actually caused people to be rendered speechless.

I have laid my cards down, the calamity has been caused, I have returned “home”, I also have seen “father-in-law”, even if the sky is falling I'll just think of it as a quilt cover. I am very open-minded, anyway this is the most bizarre episode I've come across, I also have nothing to lose, I'll see what else blood pouring there is to come.

As Chi Fei Fan's friend, of course I want to be frank with him, “The child is not yours, it's Lu Yu Jiang.”

Unexpectedly Chi Fei Fan even smiled at me, “I know.”

I really “bang” a sound and fell to the ground unable to get up.....

Today, there's too many accidents, one after another, it's really too much for me.

He said slowly, “That night you were drunk, you told me.”

My mouth fell open, if he already knew then why did he sought after me, sought until I was in a general turmoil, and even today making the best of an error without rectifying it, pushing me to stand in front of his parents?

I murmured, “You must love Lu Yu Jiang isn't it? So you recklessly tried to sought after me, knowing I had his child you still sought after me. It is because you are under the pressure of your parents so you can not be together with him, so you decided to find the best solution within the secular sight, and that was to marry me... ..this way you can encounter the person you love from the third kind, because that person is Lu Yu Jiang..... Did you and I really sleep together, or when you slept with me you finally felt you were closer to Lu Yu Jiang.....”

Chi Fei Fan finally found it unbearable, “What is your mind filled with ah? Did Chen Mo influences you to be like this?!”

“Ah? So you do not love Lu Yu Jiang, instead its Chen Mo.....”

It’s really dog blood [3], magnificent, extraordinary love triangle.....

[3] 狗血 Gǒu Xiě: Can be used to describe the plot more old-fashioned, plot childish dramas or novels.

Chi Fei Fan was frustrated sitting in the sofa, holding his head, he appeared very painful.

I patted his shoulder, “Brother, it’s okay, it’s not your fault you’re homosexual, it’s only God playing a joke. Moreover Chen Mo is quite good, he’s gentle and considerate, he is my sister, I assure you, he is a very good person.” I tried to emphasis, “really!”

Chi Fei Fan finally took me by the hand and gently said to me, “Jing Zhi, today you must be tired, you sleep for a while, get some sleep.”

What he said is true, today I am very tired, very tired today, I was physically and emotionally exhausted. That bastard of Lu Yu Jiang made me sad, Chi Fei Fan’s family shocked me, all the things like ran up to me, like the tsunami in Indonesia, taking thousands of my brain cells and swallowing it up. I have no energy to think too much, I also did not have the energy to think about what to do in the future. I laid in Chi Fei Fan’s big bed, unconsciously closed my eyes. Chi Fei Fan help me pull up the quilt, his voice still gentle and nice to listened to, “Jing Zhi, the following matters let me handle them, I will let you be happy.”

I wanted to tell him, I will never be happy, because Lu Yu Jiang’s doesn’t want little soy bean, he doesn’t want me.

But this doesn't no matter, I knocked him unconscious, I kicked him in the balls.

That guy is such a jerk, and I also don't want him, I'll live on and give birth to little soy bean, take good care of little soy bean and bring him up, and then tell him that his father is major bastard, so I left him.

I had been loving him so hard, loved until my heart ached, loved until I felt despair, loved until I was unable to extricate myself, loved until my soul was destroyed.

What I owed him, it has been paid off, what he owes me, also has been eliminated cleanly.

From now on I will not love him.

Slowly closing my eyes, I haven't reach out to wipe my tears when the tears has slid down my cheeks.

Basically Chi Fei Fan and my situation was called "He who rides a tiger is afraid to dismount."

When I woke up, Chi Fei Fan's mother has already ask for leave from my company, the company has approved my paid vacation. She also gave me a new mobile phone sim, saying the original number was not secure, this number will not display my number when I called out.

I looked at Chi Fei Fan, he finally have some junior of a high official feel.

Chi Fei Fan said, "Pregnancy in its early stage is not stable, taking a vacation is also good. Changing your mobile phone will avoid too many people finding you, pregnant women needs to call less."

Aunty nodded approvingly, "Finally look a bit like a father figure."

Chi Fei Fan and I were oppressed by the demons of our guilty conscience, our scalp were numb.

I also want to be quiet for a period of time, my injured heart wants to hide to recuperate. Although my heart is very rough, but just like when you're injured it'll also hurt, bleed, it'll retreat like a hermit crab, slowly crawl back into one's shell until it thought it was safe. So I changed my mobile phone number, only to give my father a call to tell him I'm going abroad on a business trip, temporarily won't be using my mobile phone.

Father said, "On a business trip? Does Chi Fei Fan know?"

Just look, he remembered Chi Fei Fan more than he remembers me.

I said, "He knows, it was him who took me to the airport."

My father was rest assured, thus he hung up the phone.

Chi Fei Fan arranged a small two bedroom house for me to live in, the food and drink was good, every day there was an aunt that take care of me and cook very delicious food. I ate mouthful of oil flow, there wasn't a day where my weight didn't soar like a slaughter pig.

It was almost like passing my days like a fairy/god, almost like the treatment the female leads in romance novels will receive, almost simply like the evil capitalist way of life.

A few days later Chi Fei Fan's mother came to see me twice, while also particularly over the top. Once with a full set of the obstetrics and Gynecology group, from the old professor to senior midwife, they gave me a lesson in pregnancy knowledge, from what to eat and drink to bathing, and what to pay attention to while sleeping, I listened until I dozed off.

Aunty was especially tolerant, "Being sleepy is a normal reaction, today we told you too much, you take a rest, after two days I'll bring some books for you to read."

I think for a brief moment I felt I'm an unforgivable sin. Why did aunty treat me so well, it is because she thinks little soy bean in my womb was Chi Fei Fan's child? But Chi Fei Fan and I have lied to her, especially me, it was simply shameless.

I have once done shameless thing before, but I also did not expect to do it the second time.

Chi Fei Fan solemnly asked me, "Don't say anything to my parents, leave it to me to deal with, okay?"

I had to promise him.

I ran after him to ask what happened the other night, he didn't tell me, he just smiled, "Let's get married, raise the children, isn't the result good?"

What so good about this? He was willing to be cheap father, but I was not prepared to find such a father, the main point was such a prominent a grandpa. When I thought of this I felt distressed, I don't know what Chi Fei Fan wanted to do, I could not guess his thoughts, just like I always could not guess Lu Yu Jiang's thoughts.

I thought being husband and wife for three years, Lu Yu Jiang would have a little bit of sympathy for me. Just like the famous female writer who wrote in novels, after getting married, as times goes by, after giving birth to the child, the man more or less will treat her with sincerity.

I was wrong for being too stupid and naive, if he really did have feelings for me, then why would he would want to divorce me?

It's because he doesn't love me, he didn't even want little soy bean.

I will always remember the words he said, "Jing Zhi, abort the child."

How could he even say it?!

It is a life, a living life, it was a fusion his and my bone and blood, it was an embryonic being in my body, it was his and my child.

How could he even say it.....

Chapter 9.2

Once I thought of that wonderful day, I felt as if a knife was piercing through my heart. The person I loved the most, the person I exhausted all my strength to love would use such cruel treatment towards me, towards little soy bean.

I stroked my small belly, inside there is a small embryo, who's thriving and growing healthily.

"Little soy bean, it's only me and you now, we need to live well, live healthily and hold our heads high....." I smiled at my own reflection in the glass window, "as for your bastard father, let him go to hell!"

Finished finished! This time we have gone too far, not only have I've seen "aunty", but I also been home to meet "father-in-law", this is also too mind boggling. It's all my fault, upon seeing Chi Fei Fan I threw a bomb, instead of blowing up others it blow into Chi Fei Fan and me.

As expected Chi Fei Fan also did everything to delay, "Mother, going back to see father is not too well, you let me underlay underlay, to save him from beating me.."

"You know also know your father will beat you?" Aunt said fiercely. "How long do you want to drag this till? Don't drag it until the child's full moon banquet and then get married? I'm telling you, today if you dare not go with me, I will tied and bring you back!"

Once a beauty explodes, of course she won't be a Hello Kitty.

Chi Fei Fan who was such a ruthless person was also afraid of his mother.

We obediently went down stairs, each step forward accompany the beauty's affection. The car was parked downstairs, the driver upon seeing us coming down has opened the car door. I wrinkled my eyebrows coming up with a plan, "ouch" a cry while holding my stomach.

Chi Fei Fan was surprise and helped me, "What's wrong?"

“I have a stomach ache.” I hunched, sounding tenuous, “it hurts ..... I do not know if I just twisted my waist.....” I used my back to block beautiful aunty’s sight, and I rushed to give him a wink.

Chi Fei Fan look very cooperatively anxious, “Are you alright? Does it hurt? I’ll take you to the hospital, right??!”

Beautiful aunty who has always been with me said, “Is the pain severe? Quick, get in the car!”

The results beautiful aunty harshly glare at Chi Fei Fan, “A person who is about to become a father doesn’t even have a little mature thought! Get in the car!”

I was even helping aunty get into the car, Chi Fei Fan also kept up, we have cunning outwits ourselves ah! Cunning outwits ourselves!

Aunty told the driver, “Go to the hospital!” Then she made a phone call, “Director Qin, I’ll have to trouble you to arrange a ward, let the Professor Sun of Obstetrics and Gynecology and Professor Chen take some spare time to come. Yes, my daughter-in-law is feeling a bit ill, we’ll be right there.....”

I was trembling, it’s not that beautiful aunty called me her daughter-in-law, but who she was, how can she be so insufferably arrogant? Calling the hospital’s director and then specify two professors, why is that just from listening her background is not small.

I partially collapsed in Chi Fei Fan’s body, too scared, I don’t know what would happen when we get to the hospital. Chi Fei Fan was holding my hand, presumably to give me some comfort and said, “My mother is the vice president of the hospital, she’s very familiar with the staff at the hospital.”

Turns out that beautiful aunty was the head of the angels in white (nurse), isn’t this trying to steal a chicken only to end up losing the rice? I swallow my saliva and said, “I do not want to go to the hospital .....”

“That won’t do,” Aunty said, “You being like this, it’s best to examine properly.”

“My stomach doesn’t hurt anymore.” I pulled Chi Fei Fan a pleading face, “I’m afraid of tight hospital, you know that my mother, and also my elder sister all died inside the hospital..... ..... as soon as I entered the hospital I’ll tremble..... “

Chi Fei Fan held me close and gently patted my back, as if coaxing a child. I didn't speak, not only I would never go to the hospital, especially in large hospitals, once I enter the door, I will feel the difficulty in breathing, as if floating in the air was not of a sour taste, instead nerve gas.

I said, "Aunty, my stomach it does not hurt anymore, I guess that I was really just a little nervous."

Probably seeing that I was hiding in Chi Fei Fan's arms with a delicate and charming appearance, beautiful aunty finally spared me, "Forget it, let's go home, if you feel unwell, then let the doctor come to the house and have a look."

When she said this, Chi Fei Fan could not help but clench my hand tightly, as if home is the worse option than going to the hospital. We're finished, "father-in-law" who has not made an appearance, his background is certainly greater than aunty! G I'm running out of tricks, I could not think of a way out of this.

The car drove past the half of the city, and finally pulled into a quiet street. I didn't expect Chi Fei Fan to live in such a quiet place.

Late at night, when Chi Fei Fan came to see me, aunty made several dishes, I want to eat boiled fish with bean sprouts in hot chilli oil, Chi Fei Fan said nothing, he personally cook boiled fish with bean sprouts in hot chilli oil, it was really delicious, and it was master chef standard.

I was sweating profusely, incessantly happy, "Brother-in-law, if you open a restaurant it'll definitely be successful. Why don't we partnership, rent a courtyard, set up a table, you personally cooking. I even thought of a good name for you, called 'Fei Fan's Kitchen'. Every day just to reserve a table, as for the menu you can decided, those who wanted to choose their own dishes, we can arrange what they want to eat. But every night the restaurant will open at six thirty, we'll close on time. If there's no reservations they won't able to eat. Rather than the awesome family Li's imperial cuisine, isn't their family known as the authentic cuisine of the imperial household? We can be known as the red private home cuisine. What the emperor eats ah, the commoners can also keep pace with the times, they certainly must want to know what they want to eat. We also have gimmicks, we can be known as China's first no. male chefs. Ah those CEO, chief representative, get to eat a meal, especially the females.

Directed by your beauty and your craft, you'll certainly gain fame. But we're only selling our skills, not our bodies, of course, if someone is willing to spend big price, you can also consider....."

Chi Fei Fan almost used his chopsticks to knock me, "How come your dog mouth did not spit out any ivory?"

"If a dog's mouth spits out ivory would it still be called a dog? If you put it this way wouldn't the dog be a God?" Being together with Chi Fei Fan and talking nonsense is the most happiest, what I say he'll laugh, while he was happy I asked him, "Last time you said that my elder sister kept asking about your family matters, upon discovering your background she immediately eliminated you, is true or false?"

When I mentioned about his sorrow, he would sigh and tell me, "Of course it's true, your elder sister heard who my father was, she immediately bend angles and told me that we can not possibly together."

"Why?" To be honest, I also could not understand, my elder sister studied all the way to Ph.D, she and I was in a different league, her and my ideological level were not the same. Since we were young us two sister interest in hobbies were completely different. She was interested in reading, I like to fight, she was a good student with good academic performance, I made the teacher have a headache with unruly molecules. If it wasn't for my average performance results, even if you beat me to death I wouldn't believe elder sister results were high, the results after my high school teacher actually knew I was the younger sister of Ye Jing Zhi she was startled, in her words, we were both from the same father and mother, how did they give birth to two completely different daughters?

"Your elder sister thinks my family situation is too complicated, she had long thought of going abroad to continue to do theoretical research, because she always wanted to go farther in her academic, so she wasn't willing to date me, saying that it would delay me, I have repeatedly explained to her that my parents are very open-minded, they do not ask me to marry early, but she still has doubts and hesitations, and later she met Lu Yu Jiang ....."

It's a sad past, but my elder sister is gone, except for the two of us bringing her up we will feel nostalgic, who else will remember her? Especially Lu Yu Jiang that bastard, that time he appeared so infatuated ah, now he has long forgotten about elder sister and pushed her to the back of his mind, he also found himself a “Goguryeo.” I still thought of the affairs of the world are inconstant, while Chi Fei Fan was still immersed in the wonderful memories, “The first time I saw your elder sister, it was in the lab, I thought she was the administrator of her lab, during that time she was blowing welding chips, I said to her, this is a high-precision laboratory, when you’re cleaning up could you do it without moving our things, okay? “

“The result, she said, ‘You’re Fei senior right, you weren’t at the last meeting, I’m Ye Jing Zhi, the old man tactics new recruited student.’ Our supervisor was called the old man. Before I have also heard the old man recruited a female, I initially thought he was having a joke with everyone, because we didn’t have many professional females that can be admitted to the old man’s PhD, it is out of the question. I’ll never forget the way she spoke that day, so playful and cute. Wearing sterile clothes and a mask, seeing a pair of big eyes, twinkled and glittered.”+

“This twinkled and glittered made your heart flutter away?”

He sighed, “Sure, it still have not come back yet.” This big tail wolf, finally revealing a furry tail, “Since your heart still have my elder sister, then why you sought after me ah?” My question took him by surprised, he immediately gave a look of innocence, “I’ll grow a new heart out, this I can give to you ah”

Chapter 10.1

I want him believe that I'm really little red riding hood. Chi Fei Fan was the specially cunning wolf grandmother ah, he immediately changed the topic, "I got something for you."

I thought it was a big diamond ring, or was it a gold card, the result it was a strange shape phone.

Chi Fei Fan proudly told me, "It's the latest smart phone the company has developed, at present also belongs to the concept of machine, it's currently on trial with the company's top executives."

The modelling was strange, as a member of the company, I have to say, the operating system of our company in mobile phones has always been failure among failures. As one of the world's leading mobile phone manufacturers, in the traditional mobile phone market share in the US has occupied a favorable position, but in recent years there's been a rise of copycats, the smartphone wars, so the mobile phone business has been very competitive.

"This is the joint development of Microsoft's smartphone operating system, the interface is very friendly, very powerful, and very interactive."

Chi Fei Fan's occupational disease has raised, treating me as a customer, persistently praising the new product's features to me. I have always been an idiot when it comes to electronic products, so picking up the phone to observe, in addition to Microsoft's interface being really very friendly, I also failed to see anything else.

"The mobile phone radiation is currently the world's lowest, significantly lower than the EU safety standards, you take it to use first."

It's also not that useful, and now I rarely go out, except to go downstairs to walk in the garden area, I rarely access and used the mobile phone. But Chi Fei Fan criticises me, "As a company employee, using rivals manufacturing mobile phones everyday, what is this attitude? This is not showing your love for the company.....”

I gave him a supercilious look. “Niu Gen Sheng [1] also drink Erie milk every day for breakfast. This is my reminder for Big Boss, be vigilant in peace time.....”

[1] Niu Gensheng 牛根生 is the founder of the Chinese dairy giant Mengniu Dairy, is a legendary entrepreneur and philanthropist.

“To be vigilant in peace time, the recent milk incident raised much uproar criticism, my mother wants me to accompany you to the hospital for a body check tomorrow. My mother gave me clear orders, if you do not go, I’m going to be disposed.”

Just hearing that I’m going to the hospital I felt a headache, “Also check ah? Yesterday didn’t your mother just have a group of doctors examine...”

He looked at me with very pitiful eyes, I was almost frightened out with goose bumps forming, he said, “There are some tests they are unable be done at home, the old madame has been a doctor for her entire life, if you don’t let her do a thoroughly examination, I reckon she won’t be able to sleep at night.”

I couldn’t help but ask him, “What you intend to do. The old madame is so happy now, when the time comes for her to find out the truth, wouldn’t she swallow me alive?”

“You don’t worry about it.” Chi Fei Fan laughed very evilly, “I have my own excellent plan.”

If we need to check then check, besides it has already come to this, then I have to put on a brave face and go to the hospital. I never thought of the things of the future, with no ambition at all is the biggest advantage for a person like me, tomorrow never comes, all is well.

In other words, I am a snail, shrinking in my own shell, seldom go to think outside ups and downs. As for the supposedly safe shell will be crushed tomorrow, I really did not have the strength to think further.

The hospital was always like that in my memory, full of the smell of disinfectant, and I always can hear a child crying from afar, I think it was my illusion. Because when my mother died I was still young, less than three years old, I couldn’t remember if I cried, I only remember the adults were busy in the ward, no one took care of me. The ward next to us seems to have a child crying, constantly crying.

That winter, only my elder sister holding my hand, that winter, her hand was very cold, my hand was also very cold, so cold I shivered from the coldness, at that time elder sister was five or six years old. I remember I was hungry, so hungry until my stomach was growling, then my elder sister bought a cake for me. At that time the cake was ten cents a piece, wrapped in a layer of lubricated oil paper. When we were young we didn't have pocket-money, I also don't know where she got ten cents from. But I remember the very sweet and fragrant of the cake, it was elder sister who fed me, breaking it into small pieces, and putting it into my mouth. I've been hungry all day, I thought the cake was so delicious. But elder sister didn't ask me whether it was good or not, I couldn't remember whether she cried or not, I don't remember, she and I were the same, we haven't eaten for the whole day.

That time I was too young, I didn't know what it meant to have my mother passed away, I don't remember her face, besides I still have my elder sister.....

When elder sister died I cried the most severe, I simply wouldn't let anyone push her to the morgue, kicking up a fuss, desperately, in any case I didn't believe that my elder sister was dead, I didn't believe that she was the same as my mother, abandoning and leaving me. I heard there was a child crying in the ward next door, continuously crying. I knew this was my own illusion, because elder sister lives in ICU, and the ICU ward next door, there simply will not have a child crying. But I clearly heard it, just like when I was three, squatting on the ground continuously crying. Because I know the person that loves me deary, has finally left me. I wept and fainted, and when I woke up, they had taken her away.

That day my elder sister died whether Lu Yu Jiang cried or not, I already do not remember, perhaps when I fainted he already cried, perhaps I was too heart-broken, and paid no attention to him.

Originally I was determined to forget this person Lu Yu Jiang, but I do not know why always think of him. In the middle of the night when I woke up in a haze, for a spilt second I felt inexplicable fear, when I was in a daze without rhyme or reason..... I'll always think of him. Perhaps it is because in this life I wouldn't be able to forget him, no matter how he detest me, how he hates me, I had to admit during those three years together with him, I had the most happiness.

Chen Mo once said, he was very envious of me, because I can justifiably be together with Lu Yu Jiang, I can marry him, even if we were divorced, yet I could continue living under the same roof as him, this was a happy matter.....

When we're in love with someone, we are humble and pitiful, as long as we're given a little bit of charity, we would feel happy.

But the depletion of self-esteem, we would usually just get hurt.

I sat alone in the room when I heard the door rang, I thought it was Chi Fei Fan, but I did not expect it would be Lu Yu Jiang.

I stared at him with my mouth wide open, not because how he unexpectedly came to the hospital, it's also not because he's head was bandaged. I knew I knock him until I saw blood, how much pain there was, was much pain I felt, I would have let him have just as much pain. It was because he looked utterly miserable, it's only been three days since we last seen each other, he was like a changed man, he has become thinner, his chin was pan green, he was a person who's vain, he will not likely go without shaving his beard.

I ask him very maliciously, "Has your company gone bankrupt?"

I was a villain, I will take revenge for the smallest things, and take pleasure in other people's misfortune.

For little soy bean, I also have to severely criticized him a few words, who told him to be so inhumane, even his own child he doesn't want.

He continued to walk until he was in front of me, then crouched down. My goosebumps raised as I stared at him, instinctively placing both of my hands and holding my belly. I felt wary, what does he want to do?

He stretched out a hand and help me tie my shoe laces, his voice seemed very calm, “You’re an adult now, you don’t even know your shoe lace have loosen, you’re not afraid you’ll trip?”

Sugar-coated bullets!

Sugar-coated bullets of the enemy!

I won’t fall for it!

I asked viciously, “The police didn’t capture you? You profiteer, illegal loans is a big deal, you also don’t have to go to jail, this also defy the laws of human and divine!”

He looked rather puzzled, “What illegal loans?”

I had the feeling that something was amiss, the kind of feeling like being deceived. This thing won’t be brother-in-law deliberately lying to me, right? Lu Yu Jiang suddenly showing up at the hospital, perhaps brother-in-law also betrayed me. Because the hospital arrangement for me to come to the hospital was made by him, but why should brother-in-law lie to me? My mind was confused and I couldn’t think of the reason.

I said, “You really didn’t do illegal loans?”

Lu Yu Jiang seems very angry, “Ye Jing Zhi, why do you always think of me as the worst person?”

He rose up and sat down beside me. I felt nervous for no reason, I don’t know why, I always have a sense of foreboding. Probably because each time he treat me with a benign countenance, I’ll mess up. So I want out, “You go sit on the other side, you’re not allowed to sit next to me.”

He was very obedient, quietly sat on the other side.

This is too weird, all along if I told him to go East, he would choose to go West, not to mention after the divorce, his mission was to anger me. Today, why is he like this?

I will not be the ashtray, did I really bring out his illness? What if I really brought out some illness with his brain, wouldn't I bear the legal responsibility?

I decided to strike first to gain the initiative, "I didn't mean to beat you, who told you not to speak. Anyway, I have also hit you already, henceforth we call it even. The child is mine, don't even try to interfere with me."

"Jing Zhi," He was very calm, "in your heart, I am really that bad?"

"Who told you to want to murder my little soy bean!" Mentioning this thing caused me much rage. Assassin! Executioner! Murderer! Wanting to kill your own flesh and blood, although it was only an attempt, it was enough to make me have deep resentments!

There were several minutes he did not speak, he just sat there facing me. Through the window came the late autumn sunshine, because of the back lighting, his entire person was within the golden light, even his eyelashes were fluffy, there seems to be a layer of golden aperture. He looked at me, his encircle of velvet lashes slightly trembled, like butterfly stretching its wings. Even with his head bandaged, he was so handsome, but again no matter how good his surface was, it also cannot hide the coldness of his heartless heart. I really love the wrong person.

Chapter 10.2

He finally said, "I've always been looking for you, but your mobile phone is turned off, your father said you were on a business trip, until yesterday Chi Fei Fan told me the truth....." So it was Chi Fei Fan that betrayed me, no wonder Lu Yu Jiang could find me in the hospital, these two men, what did they want to do?

I was outraged, "Why are you seeking me? Did you want to put me on the operating table? I tell you, the last time breaking your head I was being easy on you, you dare to have any inhumane ideas. Today, I'll castrate you, let you completely die without any descendants!"

He rubs his bandaged head, and gave a wryly smile, "Jing Zhi you've always been so strong."

"Of course, or else I would have been bullied to death by you this assh*le."

"Jing Zhi, it's not that I don't want this child," His voice was low, there was a long pause, "I don't know what to say to you." I didn't expect that he also dare to say, I was so angry that I wanted to choke him, "Of course, such inhumanity words, it must be hard."

He also looked at me, because of the back lighting, I couldn't see his expression, but intuitively, I suddenly felt heart-broken, because he just dazedly stared at me, like he never seen me, I suddenly felt very sad. His eyes were dark, like the night when there's no stars and there was also no moon, dark like the boundless sea/ocean. The way he looked at me, I suddenly felt myself almost drowned in the sea. He had never stared at me this way before, such seriousness, such focus..... Finally, I finally heard his voice, "Jing Zhi, I love you."

I almost fainted, a bolt from the blue, just giving me a split. Although I have dreamed of this many times, I dreamt Lu Yu Jiang would say that to me, but I never thought he would be really say to me. But in this case, I am not happy, not one bit, I know he must be deceiving me, because he trying to conceive me not to have the child, so he does not hesitate to use the beauty tactic. Miserable wretch! My teeth itch with hatred, but my face did not expose any expression at all, I even smiled at him, “If you love me, why won’t you let me give birth to our child?”

Hitting where it hurts, he actually dare to use the beauty tactic, I’ll beat him at his own game. He paused for a moment, and finally made up his mind, and handed me an envelope. I take out a look, and thought it was my elder sister’s CT. When she was in hospital, I’ve often seen this type of brain CT’s before, the attending doctor always pointed to the shadows and told me how many tumor and diffusion there was. In front of the terminally ill, the modern medical science and technology simply was at a loss what to do, what the doctors can only do, is to try to reduce the pain of my elder sister, let her get pass each day.

But this is not the CT film of my elder sister, I realised because there was no dreadful shadow, I took the film, looked at Lu Yu Jiang some doubts. His voice was very low, it seemed as if he was to be trying to repress something, maybe it was my illusion, but he said, “When your elder sister died, you cried until you fainted in the ward, the doctor perform first aid for you, but for a very long time you did not regain your consciousness, so they did a body check, the results they found there was a large soy bean lump in your skull base.....”

My eyes instinctively fell on CT film, and I finally found a large soy bean black dot, and it was in my skull base, if you didn’t look carefully and you would never be able to find it. I looked at the tiny bean, the small black dots only made me feel frightful. I didn’t know when my hands started to tremble, I personally seen my elder sister’s own head gradually grew a small tumor, until it finally ferociously swallow her life. Thinking back on her last days, I just felt dizziness, nausea and wanting to vomit.

“The position is very bad, it within the nerve most intensive areas, the doctor said if we risk the operation, there’s a very high probability you will become a vegetable [1], if it’s not stimulated, under normal circumstances, it should not malignant.” He reached out his hand to hold my hand, I discovered that my hands as cold as ice, and his hands were just as cold as mine.

[1] 植物人 Zhí Wù Rén: A vegetable (vegetative patient): serious functional brain injury, the victims in irreversible deep coma, loss of consciousness, but to maintain spontaneous breathing and heartbeat can be sub-cortical central.

I have never seen Lu Yu Jiang like this, his eyes had tears, “Jing Zhi, you’re a person who loves being active and mischievous, when the doctor told me, I don’t want to, if the operation fails, you lying there, cannot see, cannot hear, but also can never eat anything, cannot move, lying in bed for a lifetime, I know it will make you feel worse than death. The doctor recommended conservative scheme to me, he said that as long as there is no hormone stimulation, there is great hope it will not worsen. As long as it does not grow, you besides having occasional headaches, you can live like normal people. I specially consulted the neurology experts from almost all domestic and foreign, they recommended, as long as you not to have children, you should not have any risk. So..... So I selfishly decided for you, I don’t want to let you live in the shadows. When your elder sister left, you were very heart-broken, if you knew, you will feel afraid, so regarding this issue I have kept you in the dark. Jing Zhi.....” His very hot lips on the back of my hands, “please forgive me, forgive my selfishness.....”

I was shaking, my entire body was algid, like sitting on ice. I couldn’t hear what he said, I clutched the CT film. The scene of my elder sister dying flashed before my eyes, when the tumor was pressing on her nerves, very early on she could not see anything, she was so thin there was only bones left, her hair all fell out. I can never forget her last gasp appearance, when I think of her I’ll tremble, I’m really afraid, afraid I’ll become like her. I am timid, I am afraid of death, life is so good, the world is so beautiful, I really want to live.

At the moment I am very grateful towards Lu Yu Jiang, he deceives me for so many years, let me live without sorrow and anxiety, if I had known about my sickness, and I would have long died—— I really couldn’t bear such things as being terminally ill, especially my loved ones by one leaving me, and now it’s my turn.

I know that fate will not let me go, I know there are more cold story waiting for me, but I never thought, the writer of this story was so ruthless, to give me a terminally illness! Aren’t you known as the tragic Queen? Don’t you always commit innumerable murders? Don’t you always abuse your readers to wail and whine? Don’t make me into tragic female lead, it’s uncomfortable!

I asked Lu Yu Jiang, “You married me is it because you pity me?”

“No, not at all.” He looked up, “Jing Zhi, it’s not what you think.”

I laughed, my laugh must looked worse than a cry, I said, "Thank you for saying that you love me today, I didn't know that you pitied me for so long."

He held my hand with great strength, but his voice was very low, "Jing Zhi, I love you, not because I pity you."

Anything he said was futile, it was in vain. I looked into his eyes, his eyes still so black, reflecting my own shadow, my face in his eyes there are some deformation, I looked at this person who I swear that I will not love. I didn't think I would have the same disease as my elder sister, there will also be a day, when I would be like my elder sister and die a painful death. I don't even hear to what he had said, there were humming sounds in my ears. And after a while, I could not see his face, I've once loved him, after my elder sister died, I thought, don't be sad, I will love you in elder sister's place.

I did not expect such a cruel fate, not giving elder sister a chance, also not giving me a chance.

"Jing Zhi, you always have been so stubborn, no matter what I do, you will fled further away....." He crouched there, mumbling, no coherence to his sentence, not knowing what to say, "That time during the divorce I thought, if I let it go, maybe you will be happier than being by my side. But I wasn't rest assured, I wasn't reconciled, I wanted you to stay, a place where I can see you. But you always have a way to make me lose control, Jing Zhi..... It is my fault, I always have been very careful, but that day you really made me angry....."

Incoherent words a sentence into my ears, I don't want to hear them, I don't want to listen to anything of this, no matter what he wants to say. Why did he not keep it from me? Why did he have to tell me? Place such a cruel thing in front of me, he never loved me, he egoistic, making everything into this, then tell me I have cancer, I cannot have children. My days are stolen, I lived so long, if I want to survive, I had to give up my little soy bean.

I must have looked at Lu Yu Jiang with gnashing my teeth in anger, he shook my hand and pleaded, "Jing Zhi, you don't be like this, why don't you cry it out, okay? Jing Zhi, you don't hold back....."

I pulled his hand, "What is there to cry about?"

Although I was really afraid, although I wanted to cry too, but who am I? I'm Ye Jing Zhi, play the immortal cockroach, the most powerful actress/female lead. I will not weep and sob like Lin mei mei [2], utter in anguish like those South Korean soap dramas, even if you have a terminal illness to me, but if you wanted me to be sad tragic female lead, no way!

[2] Mei Mei: Younger sister

Especially before Lu Yu Jiang, I will not ever shed a tear. He lied to me, he lied to me this way, he still want to deceive me until this day. I will never cry in front of him, even in death, I won't die in front of him.

Lu Yu Jiang was still very worried while holding me, I gently pushed him away and said, "Regarding this matter I'll have to think about, I want to have to go back."

He said, "Jing Zhi, I beg you, don't be strong-headed, don't use your life as a joke."

Today Lu Yu Jiang was very weak, he has asked me several times, I have never seen him so timid and over-cautious, I didn't want to think of the reasons. I was really tired, I said, "This is a big matter, let me think about it."

Perhaps my complexion looks terrible, he didn't press further on. I asked him to leave, I said, "You go, Chi Fei Fan will accompany me."

I don't know what he already discuss with Chi Fei Fan, but on the way sending me home Chi Fei Fan didn't say anything, and after I entered the house I said, "Brother-in-law, I want to eat pork braised in brown sauce."

He personally drove out and brought the meat, and then returned to the kitchen cooked a pot of delicious pork braised in brown sauce.

I also ate the whole pot of meat.

I was so full, even using the wall for support as I walked. I asked him, "When did do you know?"

He said, "Yesterday." He paused and said, "You knocked Lu Yu Jiang into a concussion, he was hospitalized for two days, the doctor was unwilling to discharge him, so it was only yesterday that he found me, and told me everything about your illness. I felt that you guys still needed to have to talk face to face, he was afraid you wouldn't see him, so I just told him to go in the hospital."

If only I was little bit more extremely cruel and merciless, at that time directly used the ashtray to kill Lu Yu Jiang, then I've would have never known I'm sick. Happily through the rest of my life, and happily die because little soy bean.

I sighed.

Chi Fei Fan said, "Jing Zhi, where there's life, there's hope [3]. Maybe in the future there will be medicine developed, at that time you can have babies again, and perhaps the risk is much less than now....."

[3] 留得青山在: This idiom means "As long as the green hills are there, one need not worry about firewood."

I know even Chi Fei Fan will revolt, in the TV appeared this kind of plot, there's always a lot of people cry on each other's shoulder, then this advise that said, endless, stretching out to twenty episodes.

I said, "Brother-in-law, let me quietly think things through."

He must also know I'm tired, I was physically and mentally fatigue, my complexion must also look terrible, so he also did not say anything further, let me sleep early, and then he left.

I eaten a belly full of pork braised in brown sauce, I was in bed for two hours in a mercifully dreamless sleep, and then climb up. Opening the refrigerator rummaging, when aunty heard the commotion, she came in and asked me, "What did you want to eat?"

"I want to eat aloe yogurt, a big box."

"I'll go buy it for you."

Chapter 11

Once Auntie left, I start packing up my belongings, it could be said as clear out, however, it was only a small bag, my identity cards, cash, mobile phone and left.

Chi Fei Fan obviously have betrayed me. The two men harbour evil intentions, if I want to continue to live here, I'll be fish meat on the chopping block [1], if I need to disrupt the enemy's deployment, first I need to get out of the encirclement of the enemy, catch them off guard and strike the enemy when their unprepared.

[1] 人为刀俎, 我为鱼肉 Rén Wéi Dāo Zǔ, Wǒ Wéi Yú Ròu: The metaphor refers to a person's life and death at the hands/powers of others.

It doesn't matter whether I have this child or not. Thirty-Six Stratagems, fleeing is best [2]

[2] 三十六计, 走为上策 Sān Shí Liù Jì, Zǒu Wéi Shàng Cè: Refers to if a person is unable to resist the enemy, to escape is the best policy. When you're in a helpless situation, there is no other good way, you can only run away.

I slipped sayazi [3].

[3] 撒丫子 Sa Ya Zi: I'm leaving now.

Using romance novels it's called running with the ball, using Hong Kong film it's called running away, using drama that this is called running away from home, without saying good-bye.

Chen Mo certainly can not go, I know those two men are not idiots, so they will certainly think of a way to find me. Especially that junior of a high-ranking official Chi Fei Fan, who knows how much ability a junior of high-ranking official may have, according to how romance novels are written they can be all-powerful, there's was nothing he can't do, not to mention in terms of finding a person was not a difficult/technical task, so I must fly far and high.

I don't have much cash, while nobody found that I have run away yet, I called Chen Mo and asked him for a loan.

I sitting in the small park waiting for Chen Mo. The weather gradually cool, there weren't many people in the park, the red leaves in the lake began to turn yellow, I remember that summer evening, when I sat here, and met Lu Yu Jiang.

That day I sat on the bench under a tree, watching him wandering around the lake. Because he is very handsome, I always like observing handsome guys, so I paid attention to him. There was a water-lily in the lake, the fat lotus flower, he walked along the lake with his head lowered, then a little while later, he'll come back again. I sat on the bench, within an hour, he has made five or six trips around the lake.

In this hour I listen to 10 songs in the MP3, after eating all the gum in my pocket, I also went outside the park and brought an ice cream cone at the convenient store. I haven't eaten two mouth full of the ice cream cone, when I suddenly saw him stride over the lake's white marble railings.

Although it was an artificial lake, but the water was very deep here, last year there was cancer patients who jumped into the lake and tried to commit suicide, they were finally saved by a policeman that passed by. I did not expect such a handsome young man would be so pessimistic, with great presence of mind in the moment of danger I loudly shouted while hitting him with the ice cream cone.

The result... The result was of course Lu Yu Jiang ablaze with anger and stare at me, covered in ice cream he asked, "What are you doing?"

I very carefully advised him, "Don't be so pessimistic, you're still so young, whatever the thing is you can figure out tomorrow! Have a look the water, if you jump in it'll be more uncomfortable ah, besides a drowned man looks terrible, you're so handsome, to have an ugly death is not worthwhile."

He laugh, "Who wants to die? My mobile phone is in there, I want to fetch it, at least reduce the battery pollution."

This result of this incident was Lu Yu Jiang originally wanted to get his mobile phone, was in a complete mess as I smashed my ice cream cone at him. Most of all he was a rich man who still wanted to live, the clothes on his body even if you sold me it was unable to paid for it.

I forgot how I met him in the panic of chaos, finally I use a clever and an ingratiating manner to convince him in letting me off to pay for his cleaning fee, also finally made him admitted that my intentions are good. The only thing I remember was his black bright eyes, he said, “Oh, I wouldn’t jump in the lake and commit suicide, I can swim.”

Causing me to think he wants to jump in the lake. I made a face at him, “I can’t swim, I was afraid once you jump in I wouldn’t be able to save you, so I just hit you.”

He said, “You think hitting me would stop me from jumping into the lake?”

I was speechless, “Once I hit you, your clothes would be dirty, an ordinary person would definitely follow me to dispute ah, when you’re arguing with me I can pull you up, you also wouldn’t be able to jump into the lake.”

He said, “If a person really wants to die, who will want to dispute with you over dirty clothes?”

Well that is true, but I was in an emergency situation.

I said, “Forget it, I’ll treat you to dinner.”

I don’t expect such a handsome boy would strike up a conversation with someone as low-level as me, but I don’t know why he agree to have dinner with me. Afterwards I found out that day he was in bad mood, so I was just hit with dumb luck.

That day eating braised pork in brown sauce, in my most loved restaurant outside the west side of the school, I eaten a lot, ate until I was bursting full, he also ate a lot. Then he sent me back to the dormitory, I can be overwhelmed by an unexpected favour.

Later I had my intern-ship, I shamelessly to call him, and asked him if he could help me, I didn’t expect him to remember who I was, the results he also really made arrangements for me. So I hit a snake and it crawls up the stick [4], often ask him to eat braised pork in brown sauce, to tell you the truth that I was sick of eating braised pork in brown sauce, but being able to eat with him, no matter what we eat, I was really happy.

[4] 打蛇隨棍上 Dá Sèh Chèuih Gwan Séuhng: To exploit a situation to one’s advantage, to ask for something or something extra by seizing a particular opportunity.

And then, I requested him to teach me how to swim. I didn't think he will agree, when I was waiting for him to agree, I felt very embarrassed so I took elder sister along with me.

Then, he met my elder sister.

And then, he likes my elder sister.

In the pool, I was swimming laps around the pool, dangling to play in the water, he taught my elder sister. He taught with patience, my elder sister learn seriously, learn to breath, learn to paddle..... My elder sister is very clever, not even half a day she learnt them. He was in front of my elder sister holding her hand, my elder sister would dare to move forward.

My elder sister has white skin, has a good figure, in the swimming pool, she was like a mermaid, and he was the prince holding her hand, two people to swim a circle again and again while those on the side watched with envy.

Subsequently I never learned to swim.

In his words, I was lazy, stupid and not willing to.

When we already got married, at the club's swimming pool, I comfortably had my arms around his neck, using him to support me floating in the water, "Besides, I have you, even if I don't learn how to swim I really won't drown."

The results he pulled my hand, like a weight, "plop" a sound I started to sink. I clawed and scratched, watching my own head submerging into the blue water light, in any case I was not floating to the top. Drowning made me feel fear and despair, I couldn't see Lu Yu Jiang, though I knew he was not far from me, but no one came to help me, surrounded by empty water I couldn't grab onto anything. Sinking deeper and deeper, I constantly choked on water, luckily the lifeguard saved me and pulled me out, I almost choked to death. When I floated to the top Lu Yu Jiang also said, "If you don't swallow water, how will you learn to swim?"

At the time I felt Lu Yu Jiang didn't love me at all, he was right beside me, yet he also refused help me up. Then he said he would teach me how to swim, life or death I refused to learn. No matter how he called me stupid, said I was lazy, I just don't want to have that feeling of drowning. Unable to reach, unable to touch, obviously I knew he was around, but I could never catch him.

Furthermore every time I'm near a swimming pool, I also think of the time he taught my elder sister how to swim. If there is no accident, he and my elder sister should have been a divine couple, rather than me the ugly duckling, crossing a hard beam to grab him.

When I was heart-broken, someone patted me on the shoulder, it startled me. Turning around, it is Chen Mo. He sat down on a bench, and handed me the envelope, inside there was a heavy amount of cash.

Holding the money I said, "Don't mention it, I will pay you back."

Chen Mo didn't ask me what I wanted the money for, he sighed and said, "Jing Zhi, you can't run for the rest of your life."

I made a ha ha sound and said, "At present the most important thing is to go fly far and high before discussing further."

Chen Mo said, "Lu Yu Jiang is crazily looking for you everywhere, he also came to my house. Jing Zhi, I don't know what happened between you and him, but the way you see things it may not be as bad as you think."

Terrible, I was going to die, can that also not be bad?

I asked: "What did Lu Yu Jiang say, how is that every time you always take love more seriously than friendship?"

He said: "Lu Yu Jiang didn't say anything, he just asked about your whereabouts. I said I don't know, he was very disappointed."

I have not spoken, when Chen Mo suddenly said, "Jing Zhi, have you ever thought about talking this over with Lu Yu Jiang?"

I was taken by surprise, Chen Mo said, "I've loved someone before, so I know what it's like to love a person. Jing Zhi, if I am not wrong, Lu Yu Jiang does love you."

I was taken aback by this phrase, Chen Mo said, "With the way he appears when he was trying to find you, I know, he should love you. I don't know where you were, I saw the light in his eyes just gradually darken, like a heart turning into ashes.”

I hollow laugh twice, “Sweetheart, you suddenly being so literature, I think I have goosebumps.”

Chen Mo said, “Why don’t you give yourself a chance, let Lu Yu Jiang set things straight for you?”

What else is there to say, he said he loved me, I know, it is because he pitied me, just like the way he pitied my elder sister, so he said he loved me.

He said, “Jing Zhi, you cannot encounter a problem and run, this is wrong.”

Yes, I’m weak, I’m incompetent, I’m afraid, I fear death, I’m terribly afraid, so afraid that I’ll tremble, when I encounter something I want to escape..... But I really don’t have the courage to face Lu Yu Jiang, I don’t have the courage to look into his eyes, I don’t have the courage to think of things in the future, because I don’t know how long I can live. If I die, let me die alone far away.

So I continued to smile, “Chen Mo, you don’t understand.....”

“What don’t I understand?” Chen Mo suddenly turned his head, staring straight into my eyes, “Ye Jing Zhi, I have always regarded you as my friend, so I don’t want to see you make detours, I don’t want you to lose the best things. You obviously know you love him, he also loves you, why do you still need to run?”

I lowered my head, holding the envelope of money, and after a long time, I heard my own voice, “Chen Mo, I don’t have the courage. You know, I really don’t have the courage, he told me you love me, then, you also say so. But I don’t have the courage to believe. It seems like when I was younger, the teacher always said I was stupid, my elder sister said a slow sparrow should make an early start [5], as long as you work hard, you can always get first place. So I worked very hard very hard, I finally got one hundred points, but the teacher said, I must have copied the answer from the same table. Because of my desk mate, also got one hundred points. Only I knew that I didn’t copy, but no one believed me..... Everyone said I copied, in the end, I also could not believe that I got one hundred points on my own.....”

[5] 笨鸟先飞 Bèn Niǎo Xiān Fēi: Clumsy birds have to start flying early — the slow need to start early.

“When I was young my mother treated me the best, but she’s not here any more. When I was younger I like the moon. There was a night when the sky was overcast with dark clouds, unable to see the moon, I cried I wanted to find the moon. Finally, my father was sick of the racket so he gave me a slap in the face, I also stop crying. My elder sister secretly told me, the moon is still there, but you can not see, it is behind the clouds, as long as you know it’s behind the clouds that’s enough. My elder sister treated me the best, she will coax me, she will let me act pettish, but my elder sister is not here any more.....”

“I love Lu Yu Jiang, but I don’t have the courage.” I looked up, my eyes were dim, perhaps I cried again, I don’t know why I love to cry, I sniffed, “He is one hundred points, I do not believe that I can make it on my own. He is the moon behind the clouds, no matter how noisily I cry saying I want it, maybe it will come out, but maybe just it’ll stay behind the clouds, never come out again. And crying will annoy another, they will just hate me more.”

“I know a lot of people hate me, I’ve always been more furious than him. Hmph, besides I don’t love you. But sometimes I really felt afraid. Elder sister said, the moon is still there, it’s just behind the clouds..... But I once couldn’t see the moon, sometimes I think, is still the moon really there..... it could have already gone away.....”

Chen Mo didn’t say anything, he held out his arms and embraced me. I cried until I felt very tired, “Chen Mo, I want to leave here, to a place where nobody knows me. I’ve been trying to support myself for so long, I can’t go on further, I have been forcing myself to go on, but I really can’t hold on any longer.....”

Chen Mo didn’t say anything, he’s like a sister, patted my back, like patting a child. When I was younger I already wasn’t a child any more, because I have no mother, I had to be like an adult to take good care of myself, and not let my elder sister worry. When my elder sister left me I also wasn’t a child, I must be brave, I must be strong, I don’t want others to look down at me.

Even if I know there’s a small soy bean in my head. I also can not be weak, because in my stomach there’s also little soy bean, fate is forcing me to give it up, I’m struggling to hold on, I do not want to, I want a child, this is my own child. No matter what others think, I still want to hold on. Even if holding on there will be hardship, tiring, there is no one to share the burden with me.

A long time ago I read Kuang Kuang's [6]《When a woman》[7], the last paragraph is: "All my life I desire/wish to be cherished, to be safely placed, to be tenderly looked after. To free me from fear and suffering. Exempts me from wandering without any reliance. However, that person, I knew, I've always knew, he would never come. "

[6] 匡匡 Kuang Kuang is a Japanese novelist.

[7] 时有女子 "When a women" is a novel written by Kuang Kuang.

Now it was popular online, anyone on BBS [8] can read it, in literature and art young women used it as references again and again. Who doesn't know, in the summer of 2003, I saw these words in Sina [9] forum, at that time I read it over and over again, every word was engraved in my heart. I know, I know he would never come. From the mouth into the heart, I knew deeply.

[8] BBS is abbreviation for bulletin board system.

[9] Sina is a Chinese online media company for Chinese communities around the world. Sina operates four major business lines: Sina Weibo, Sina Mobile, Sina Online, and Sina.net. Sina has over 100 million registered users worldwide.

I turned off the webpage, going to the thick English vocabulary. Going through all the blood, sweat, tears and heartache to graduate school, but my father did not give me a smile. Going through all the blood, sweat, tears and heartache to marry Lu Yu Jiang, however, he didn't love me at all.

No matter how hard I tried, it was in vain. No matter how piteously I beg, fate will never give me good grace.

I just couldn't hold on any longer.

Chen Mo said, "You go to rest, think of it as a holiday." He sightly paused as he added, "If there's any difficulties, call me."

In this life having Chen Mo as a friend is my greatest blessing.

Chapter 12.1

I do not think too much, Chen Mo and I said our good byes, I went straight to the train station. Going on the plane required identity cards, I wasn't so stupid. Travelling by train who can check my destination?

Up until the express train pulled out of the station, my heart was still tight because I wasn't willing to think of what I wanted to do, what am I going to do with little soy bean that's in my womb, I simply don't want to stay, stay to confront Lu Yu Jiang, confronting everything, confronting these I had no choice, so I ran. But that soy small black spot in my brain, it always going to threaten my life.

Hiding in the north was impossible, however I can stay hidden in the city, so my destination was China's first big city—— Shanghai. Trying to find me within hundreds of millions of people, I estimate even if Chi Fei Fan was a junior of a high-ranking official, he wouldn't have this ability. The ticket I brought was the upper bunk, there was no other choice, when I brought the ticket there was only these tickets left. Before I may also could carelessly climb up, but now with little soy bean in my womb and a small bean time bomb in my brain, I was also pessimistic, there was a moment of hesitation as I thought of how to safely climb up.

The world most care free Chinese Aunty in the lower bunk stood there staring at me, and asked me, "Miss, what's wrong?"

I shamelessly told her, "I'm pregnant, so I'm thinking how to safely climb up there."

"Oh! How can you climb up there?!" Aunty was especially enthusiastic, "Judging from your appearance you're no more than three months, it's not stable during this time, don't climb, I'll sleep up there, you can sleep here."

I thanked Aunty profusely, Aunty's body who was light as a swallow has already gone up, she turned back and smile at me, "You two big belly, just sleep together." On the lower bunk there was also a pregnant woman, but her belly was way bigger, she should be seven or eight months pregnant. She laid there gently smiling at me, her smile was so nice, maybe this was the so-called maternal glory. I also smiled at her, and then laid down. This was a direct express evening to morning train, along the way the train does not stop at any site, arriving at Shanghai the following morning.

In the middle of the night I slept soundly, when I was suddenly awakened by moans. In a daze I rubbed my eyes, Auntie was also awakened, she stuck her head out to ask, "What's wrong?"

The pregnant woman before us even spoke feebly, "My stomach hurts."

I was shocked, I didn't even feel sleepy any more. I've seen the news on TV about a pregnant on the train in crisis, but never in my dreams would I thought that I'll encounter such situations. Auntie "oh no" a sound, all of a sudden I grabbed my shoes and went to look for one of the train employees. By the time I found one of the train employee, Auntie already have taken a cup and feed the pregnant women some water. But the pregnant women was in so much pain that she was profusely sweating, she couldn't even drink. Auntie who has gave birth to a child before, had more experience, she said, "Her amniotic fluid has broken, I'm afraid she's going into labour."

The train employee seeing this situation also has become more frantic, turning the whole train lights on, and then went to find the train conductor. The train conductor was anxious, "The train is a direct express, we shouldn't be stopping any stations along the way, even if we temporary try to reschedule now, I'm afraid it'll be too late." He went the broadcast and tried to find a doctor, everyone was awakened by the sound of it, those who heard about the matter were very enthusiastic, some brought milk, other found some blankets, but there were not doctors on the train. The radio broadcast several times, finally a man from another carriage came. We all thought he was a doctor, he especially guilty and said, "I am a vet....."

The train conductor rolled his eyes, the man said, "I'm originally a vet from the Wolong Panda base [1], specifically responsible for the giant panda, I have delivered a lot of giant panda cub, but I have never delivered humans before....." The global Chinese free forum, "rolling" ah..... that caused people fall into an ecstasy "rolling"..... He was the legendary Panda doctor. I looked at this doctor who treated our national treasure with infinite worship. I have yearned for a long time regarding his occupation, I really did not expect to meet people within this profession. “It’s extremely urgent! There is no other doctors!” The train conductor ran round in circles, “If he can treat our national treasure, then he can treat humans, humans and giant panda should be about the same, besides we’re both mammals!” If the situations didn’t have such urgency, I estimated everyone would have been amused by the train’s conductor sentence. But at a time like no one could laugh, even me someone who was so heartless felt nervous.

[1] Wolong Panda Base should be referring to the Wolong National Nature Reserve is a protected area located in Wenchuan County, Sichuan Province. Wolong National Nature Reserve houses more than 150 highly endangered giant pandas.

The Panda doctor head had crustily skin, the train conductor got pieces of blanket and surrounded the sleeping area. Then the train employee went and got boiling water, there were enthusiastic passengers that brought out new towels, the Panda Doctor asked Aunty and me to stay and help. My legs weaken, “I don’t know how to do anything!”

“It’s all right, you can help pass things to me, whatever I need/want you get them.” The doctor turned and commanded, “Aunty, you go help her, don’t let her get into a state of panic.....” I have never seen a person give birth before, I estimated that most people like me, have only seen this on TV. The TV drama was very exaggerated, there were piercing cries. But today I finally realised how it’s acted out in TV was not exaggerated, the cries are really piercing. When I just got into the train, the pregnant lady was refined and quiet person ah, I still remember her smile, gentle and shy. Now she’s with dishevelled hair and a dirty face, exactly the opposite, the muscle on her face was distorted, she was covered in sweat. Aunty desperately tried to comfort her, encouraging her hard, but her cries was more miserable than the last, causing my legs to weaken upon hearing this.

I saw the Pandas Doctor also had a head of full sweat, I estimate him more nervous than the pregnant women. The train conductor came back with two buckets of boiling water, he also brought new towels and a plastic basin. Every time I saw people giving birth on TV there was boiling water, I do not know why they needed hot water, but the doctor said “towel”, I handed him a towel, the doctor said, “alcohol”, there was no alcohol, I shouted to the train employee, the train employee found a bottle of liquor, which also would do.

I don't know how long it will take to give birth to a child, but we're all covered in sweats, even the train employee, the train conductor, even passengers from the next carriage, we all had a tense expression, we were all mentally stressed. When we finally heard the baby crying, I was stunned. The doctor asked me to get a towel, I hadn't had time to react until he repeated himself again, I handed him the towel. Not waiting for my response he has already quickly and neatly wrapped the baby and placed a soft thing into my bosom, “You hold the child.”

I stared the pear size face, so tiny, his eyes were not opened. His small head was about the same size as my fist, but with long strands of black hair. I have never seen such a small baby, so delicately wrapped up in a towel, like a doll. There were many dolls in the shopping centre that was bigger than him, but he was warm, soft, crying loudly in my arms, this wasn't what I had envisioned of a newborn baby.

The mother's that was lying on the bed her voice was hoarse, but she struggled to raise her head, “Baby.....”

I carried the baby towards her, “You see! He's crying.”

She was very happy, “His a big fat baby, look at his tiny arms and legs, so much power! You hear his voice, his crying loudly!”

The new mother with her newborn baby was overwhelmed with emotion as she cried. Not to mention her, Aunty and I was so happy that we wanted to cry. The train employee was also happy, he excitedly went to the dining carriage to cook some sugar egg, and warm up some cow's milk for the baby. The train conductor heard that the mother and the baby were doing well, he smiled squinting his eyes, “Everything has been arranged, the ambulance is waiting on the platform, once we reached the station, the adult and the baby can go to the hospital, to ensure that everything is all right.”

I felt like I was a guest struck with fright at a blockbuster movie, tired and weary. The doctor looked more tired, he was the leading man ah, although the child had no relations with him, but he was the hero that saved by the mother and the baby.

I just have time to go to restroom now, all along the way the passengers who weren't asleep asked me, "She given birth?"

I look cheerful, replied one after another, "Oh, yes she has given birth!"

There were passengers on the upper bunk who eagerly stuck out their heads and asked me, "Is it a girl or a boy?"

"A big fat boy!"

"Oh! Congratulations!"

"Thank you, thank you!" I was happy as if I was the one who has given birth to my own child. The train will be bursting with happiness, and a Aunty specially came up, from her luggage gave me a tea eggs [2], "You must be tired, Miss, eat something to restore your energy."

[2] Tea/spiced eggs uses ingredients like salt, soy sauce, pepper, ginger to braise. It's a cold food, which is nutrient rich and taste delicious.

I simply refuse, she still shoved the whole package towards me, "If you can't eat all of it, give some to the doctor for me. You have been busy for half of the night, it's really not easy!"

Who says that the modern social humanity was indifferent? The passengers on the train were all strangers to each other, but all everyone was warm-hearted. When I came back from the restroom, the train employee was looking for me, he pulled me towards the dining carriage, "Hustling about for half the night you must be hungry, eat a bowl of hot soup, everyone has worked hard."

"Then the adult and the baby....."

"Another train staff will help take care of it, don't worry."

The dining carriage chef specially cooked up some noodles for us, under the noodles laid several egg. After becoming pregnant my appetite was particularly good, I was bursting full. The doctor was also bursting full. I placed the whole bag of tea/spiced egg towards him, "An auntie gave this, she said you have worked hard and said I must give these to you!"

The doctor was very moved, he ate one boiled egg and gave the rest of the train conductor asking him to share it with everyone.

He said, “In my home town, when you gave birth to a child you’ll eat red eggs.” An authentic Sichuan [3] words just come out. I just remember he was a vet at the Wolong panda base, specializing in taking care of pandas it was my life most desirable occupation, so I seized the opportunity to ask him, “Is it fun to raise panda?”

[3] Sichuan is a province of the People’s Republic of China, located in the south-west of the country.

“It’s fun, they can act like a spoiled brat, they can listen to you, when you call them over, they would come over. There are times when they seem just like little kids.”

I just noticed that he was already over forty, I asked him, “Do you have children?”

“When he was in high school his performance was particularly good.” He paused a bit, “His eyebrow was quite high” His speech was a father full of pride, he slightly paused, said, “In May this year there was an earthquake, he and his mother went together, they’re not here any more.”

I stood there, thoroughly startled and foolishly looked at him, I didn’t know how to comfort him. His fingers unintentionally rubbed the edge of the bowl, “On the 12th I was working at the base, he and his mother were in the upper town, when the earthquake came they couldn’t escape.”

Chapter 12.2

I know that during the earthquake, there were tens of thousands of people who died, I know that during the earthquake, there were many families reduced to fragments. I watched the news coverage with tears, because blood is thicker than water I had made donations, but I never came close to victims of the earthquake, I never expect to encounter one the train, seeing a doctor that has lost his son and his wife.

“Once the accident occurred I was busy clearing the panda’s out of the inventory, I was thinking of ways to place these national treasures to a safe place, then when the pandas were settled, I had the time to go home and have a look. The road was blocked, I walked back to the town I once knew, my home was gone. Basically all the houses collapsed, especially the schools. I still have 1/10000 of hope, my child was especially good at sports, he once took the number one sprint position for the country, but he couldn’t escape, I couldn’t even find his bones.....”

I felt awkward and didn’t know what to say, but he smiled, as if to conceal the hint of tears in his eyes, “It’s all right, a person’s lifetime, it’s merely just a few decades, what’s the purpose? The purpose is to live well. If my child and my wife in heaven knows that I was too heart-broken to not live on, they will not be happy. You see, this evening did we also hold a newborn? Even though the baby was born in the train, but the child is healthy! Seeing a baby being born, there’s nothing better than that.”

My hands were unconsciously landed on my stomach. The meaning of life is the continuation of it, in this world, the most tenacious of life. During the earthquake, it consisted more than 100 hours of survivors being rescued, there’s Uncle “who wants to drink coke” such an optimism student, the hero who saved two nine years old students..... They never give up trying to escape, they always adhere hope, even before the seemingly common ordinary doctor, also after such great grief, still straighten his spine.

The situation I've encounter with is nothing.

Just because I have a small bean in my head doesn't mean I have to give up little soy bean in my womb. I'm the creator of life, this is the embryo of my bone and blood. It's God's gift to me, no matter what I also cannot give it up.

In the sudden awareness that I had the same sickness as my elder sister, I was also on the wrong foot, I do not want to face such a dilemma, so I ran. Just like before, when I'm face with the real difficulty, I always turn around to run, to escape from the reality. I was weak, I was afraid, I was afraid I will fail, even if I try my hardness, I was afraid in the end it was all in vain. But this time its different, God has given me the most precious gift. He has gave me little soy bean, a tiny embryo, right inside of me, growing day by day.

If I could give birth to little soy bean..... My heart was eager, as long as I can give birth to this child, all my happiness in the future, it's hard to imagine. I will have children, I will have a kids who'll call me mother, I can hardly imagine what little soy bean appearance would be like, I used my bone and blood to cultivate little soy bean..... I want to see him grow up day by day, I will stay with little soy bean to live happily.

I want little soy bean, no matter how hard it is, for little soy bean I want to try. I won't run away, for his sake, I will never give up.

Because, I'm a mother ah, little soy bean only has me, with all my blood, sweat, tears and heartache I will give birth to him. When I was younger my mother was already gone, leaving me alone in this world, I will not let little soy bean bear the same suffering, I will never leave him. No matter what kind of difficulties I may encounter, I will never abandon him.

Getting off the train I hailed a cab and went to the real estate agent to look for a place.

My request is very simple, good environment, not far from the most famous national neurosurgery hospital.

Maybe I'll incidence, that bomb in my brain I don't know what time it will getting bigger, or when the blood vessels will rupture, or when it will oppresses my nerves, so I want to live near the hospital.

After solving the problem of finding a house, I will go to the hospital, to consult a neurology specialist.

I must admit, I reckon the old professor appeared frightened as he shook his head, trying to persuade me, “Too dangerous, because the process of the pregnancy, your body will secrete all sorts of hormones, and intra-cranial pressure changes during pregnancy..... These are likely to stimulate the masses, you cannot take such a risk!”

I asked him, “If I insist on having the child, what’s the likely probability of the illness increasing?”

He thought for a bit and said to me, “The probability would be more than 70% .....” Two seconds later he changed to, “80 – 90%! In other words it’s too dangerous, you can’t take your life as a joke. If you really love children, then adopting is a good option.”

If there is no little soy bean, I would like to adopt a child. But now there’s little soy bean, it’s germinating and growing slowly in my body. It also shares blood my vessels and breathe together with me, how can I say don’t want it, and murder it?

Even if only 1/10000 of hope I would like to use all my strength to fight, even if the chances are only 10% now.

If my elder sister was still here, she will definitely complain I’m a foolish child.

In this world, I’m not as good as my elder sister, but I’m luckier than her, although I have the same hidden danger as her, but my illness has not attacked. I hope I will be stronger than her, I give birth to little soy bean, no matter how much the risk is. I know my elder sister had a lot of regrets, she didn’t marry, she didn’t have time to become a mother, and hastily bid farewell to this world. All the regrets she felt, all the things she has not experienced, I will fulfil on her behalf. I want to live well, not only give birth to little soy bean, I want to live on.

The old professor felt that I was helpless, so he had to tell me, “Be on schedule for your check up, if you have any discomfort, you should immediately come to the hospital.”

I don’t know this discomfort whether it was pregnancy reactions or not.

Since I haven't been in Shanghai for long I was not accustomed to the climate, every morning I would throw up in a complete mess, before noon I was hungry as a horse. I miss Chi Fei Fan's braised pork in brown sauce, I miss Beijing Mei Yuan's milk, I miss everything that I couldn't eat, and the things I could eat, I also do not want to eat them.

Regardless I had to make myself eat or else I'll have malnutrition. I download recipes from the Internet, and tried to make my own braised pork in brown sauce, I tried several times without success. It was either too burnt or not chewable, I had to ruefully admitted, I had no talent when it comes to cooking. And there's also the milk rolls from the plum garden, it was originally from Lu Yu Jiang's home, occasionally he'll give me a box to eat. I used to think this thing was fragrant and sweet, nothing remarkable. But now I even dreamed of it, each time I woke up, I had slobber flow on my pillow.

Because I miss the milk rolls, I also miss Lu Yu Jiang. Although I still think that he is a big assh*le, but pregnant women's thinking is peculiar, I really miss the big assh*le.

I slept until the afternoon, I began to worry about what to eat tonight. Although I had bad morning sickness, but that didn't stop my weight from increasing. I was getting fatter and fatter, I would eat and then puke, puke then eat, sounds very sickening, but I still hopelessly gain weight, the new maternity trousers I brought has loose a button.

I went to the supermarket and brought yoghurt, beef, mutton, carrots, tomatoes and dumpling skin, intend to wrap dumplings and cook them myself. Don't be frightened by the things I have brought, you need to know that pregnant women appetite is amazing. I didn't dare to eat the frozen dumplings at the supermarket, so I just had to make the filling and wrap them myself. Although I don't know how to make dumpling, but as a mother, I need to learn to cook, or else how am I going to raise my child in the future?

I carried the large bag of things and used the elevator to go upstairs, and finally when the elevator door slid open, within my sight..... Why does the man standing in front of my house look so familiar? A grown man with a big teddy bear, it was really funny.

I suddenly recognized that teddy bear, this teddy bear had accompanied me for several years!

Lu Yu Jiang!

My whole body's hair bristled, I stretched out my hand to press the close button, but because I was pregnant, my hands and feet were slow, he rushed over to jam the elevator door.

Very good!

He looked me up and down, then his eyes fell on my slightly swollen belly. His complexion changed as he straighten his neck and yelled at me, "Why are you alone carrying so many things?"

Inhumanity ah!

At a time like he also dare to yell at me, he also wasn't afraid of scaring a pregnant women like me.

Since I can't run away any more, I placed all the shopping bag into his hands, I petulantly said, "You carry it then."

He held all the things in his hands, while holding on the teddy bear tightly, then took me to open the door.

I entered the door and laid on the sofa paralysed and said, "I want to eat dumplings."

Lu Yu Jiang placed the teddy bear down went to wash his hands, and started to chop the ingredients for the dumpling filling.

Kuai Kuai, I still haven't found out that Lu Yu Jiang can cook, not to mention dumplings. Why men are so capable, and me the genuine woman cannot tell wheat from beans [1], whose four limbs are like a parasite that do not toil? [2]

[1] 五谷不分 Wǔ Gǔ Bù Fēn: Unable to distinguish one kind of grain from another ; cannot tell corn from turnips ; cannot tell wheat from beans — ignorant of common things

[2] 四体不勤 Sì Tǐ Bù Qín: Basically means lazy.

After eating a dish of beef and tomato dumplings, and eat a dish of mutton and carrot dumplings, I burp with my heart content and began to drink yoghurt.

Lu Yu Jiang was obviously frightened by my appetite, but he did not say anything, besides he only care about one thing, “Was it delicious compared with Chi Fei Fan’s braised pork in brown sauce?”

This assh*le, come here but also doesn’t forget to care about his former love rival. I continued, “Brother-in-law braised pork in brown sauce is more delicious. Your dumpling is also an entry-level, my brother-in-law the dishes are master level.”

Somehow, his mood was much better, he snorted a sound and said to me, “I’m not a cook, doesn’t matter how delicious he cooks braised pork in brown sauce, what’s the use?”

I know the reason now, because my slip of tongue, I also called Chi Fei Fan “Brother-in-law”, no wonder this assh*le was in such a good mood, he finally felt that Chi Fei Fan and I was especially innocent.

I deliberately made him angry, “But saying so you are my authentic ‘brother-in-law’, but fortunately my elder sister didn’t marry you, otherwise Chi Fei Fan would have made braised pork in brown sauce for my elder sister to eat, my elder sister would regret marrying you sooner or later.”

He was finally angry, “It’s only braised pork in brown sauce? I don’t believe I will never learn to make it!”

Very good, very good, it seems like I’ll have braised pork in brown sauce to eat tomorrow.

But this assh*le is not tactful, he changed the subject again and tried to persuade me to give up, “Jing Zhi, I know what you’re thinking, but you should not make blind risk.....”

I had a pair of Sister Jiang [3] looked of awe-inspiring righteousness, and interrupted him, “You can cut off my head, my blood can flow! But if you want me to give up little soy bean, dream on!”

[3] Sister Jiang is a 1964 Chinese-language western-style opera based on the

“But your body.....”

“It’s my body, little soy bean is mine!” I just didn’t draw a three eight line in front of him, forbid him deviate a step further, “If you dare to have any ideas with me and my child, I’ll use a brick to kill you!”

Instinctively he rubs his head, the ashtray scar that I hit him before has not entirely healed, his gave a wry smile.

He could not convince me, I could not persuade him, but I have a trick. From the beginning when I ran away I knew there would be a day when I would be found, when Lu Yu Jiang was trying to convince me, so I’ve been wondering how to persuade him.

Ideological work is the priority among priorities!

There’s a check up at the hospital I finally came up with a plan.

Today I will make use of this trump card.

I said to Lu Yu Jiang, “Accompany me to the hospital to do physical examination tomorrow, once the examination is done then we can decide whether or not to keep the child.”

Of course he did not refuse.

Chapter 13.1

When it was night-time, he insisted on sleeping on the floor in the living room, refusing to go to the hotel, he was probably afraid I would run. So I ignored him, I threw him a pillow and a blanket, let him sleep on the couch.

The living room's sofa is very short, and he is so big, so he could only curled up on top. I guess he must feel uncomfortable, because he has not fallen asleep, I also couldn't sleep. I was also too full, how could I sleep? Although Lu Yu Jiang brought my baby bear brought from thousand miles away, I always thought that after our divorce, he would have thrown the teddy bear away, I didn't expect him to keep. I asked him, "The bear wasn't thrown away?" He didn't seem to be angry, "I didn't throw it away!"

Why did he want to keep this teddy bear? I couldn't help but have many thoughts running through my mind, even though I was holding the teddy bear I couldn't sleep. However, Lu Yu Jiang's dumplings was really wonderful, how come I never seen he reveal these hands before? I didn't think he was the same as my brother-in-law, he was elegant enough to show around to the guests, and diligent enough to make good cuisines.

I couldn't sleep so I simply climb up, went to the living room and talked with Jiang Lu, "How did you find me?"

This is important. I just forgot to ask hi, recently I was intellectually decline, I do not know if it's because of little soy bean in my womb, or it was because of the small soy bean in my head. Of course I want to protect little soy bean in my womb, so I behave the blames towards the small soy bean in my head. Although there was no indication that it's growing, but it was arch-criminal, without it, would there be so much things?

The results Lu Yu Jiang closed an eye to say, "I'm not telling you!"

I was angry so I went back to sleep.

That night I slept exceeding well, I do not know if it was because I was on the winning end, or because the dumplings Lu Yu Jiang made was really good. Anyway, I had a black sweet sleep, when I woke up it was broad daylight.

Waiting for me to brush my teeth, Lu Yu Jiang had prepared breakfast. It seems like he really made brother-in-law's braised pork in brown sauce, merely just a breakfast, he fried poached egg, hot milk, made congee, bought me a steamed stuffed bun from downstairs, specially roasted some hot toast.

I lived up to his expectations, eating everything there.

He was not a bit surprised at my appetite, he just helped me to carry my bags and accompany me to the hospital.

The hospital from here was a short distance, walking there took less than ten minutes. Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, did all the basic inspection of the pregnant belly, everybody also had someone accompanying them. I felt that this time I had a feeling of exaltation upon fulfilment, the last time I come here alone, this caused everyone to stare at me with strange glances, today I also have someone accompanying me.

I specifically asked to have a B ultrasound done, I said, "I haven't done this before so I'm a little worried."

In fact, I lied, when little soy bean was still the size of a small bean, I've done it once. But today I was prepared, the doctor agreed, gave me a simple check list.

This antenatal care B ultrasonic room allowed family members to go in. This time my luck was not bad, a very kind and warm female doctor did the examination, this female doctor was already a mother, so towards pregnant women she had a very good temper. I pestering asked her questions, completely standard mother's curiosity. She was very patient pointing out to me, "This is the baby's little head, this is the baby's arm, this is the baby's heart....."

The child has been formed, from the screen you could see what he/she may look like, especially the heart, one after the other, plop plop, so strong as if he/she wanted to tell me something. I secretly glanced over at Lu Yu Jiang, he has been completely stunned, just staring at the screen, he looked like he wanted to drill into the screen, and our child's heart beat was like a black hole, sucking all our visions inside it. I secretly laughed. After the female doctor gave us the report results and on top there was ultrasound scans photos, a hazy body shape baby, curled up like a frog. She smiled and said, "You can keep this as a souvenir, this is the first photo of your baby!"

Lu Yu Jiang placed the reports in his hand, same as holding a baby, I saw him smile, even I didn't know why he was smiling.

I dragged him upstairs, he also don't know what I'm doing, his mind was somewhat unhinged as he follow me, I know that his soul was absorbed by the plop plop little heart. I took him to the neonatal observation room, through the big glass we could see many little baby, a row of babies sleeping in the warm box, so tiny, each one of them were less a hot water bottle in size. Some were crying, some were sleeping, some had their eyes open.....

The last time I came here I stayed for a long time, not wanting to leave. Lu Yu Jiang legs also did not move, he excitedly pointed out to me, "You see that, in his fist, and this, actually yawning! Really tiny! You can see his mouth, very interesting!"

He and I had our faces up close on the glass, looking at the little angels, each of them is God's greatest gift to mankind. Standing here, my heart will melt away, I thought of my belly's little soy bean. Now it more likely a big soy bean, he/she has a head, arms, legs, he/she has a heart, in a few months, he/she would be born, like all babies, come into this world, making me feel over the moon.

Lu Yu Jiang turned to me and smiled, and then gently held my hand, moving a little forward, behind the glass to see those little face, each one of them are so cute. Until a nurse pass by, she kindly asked us, "Do you want to see your baby? Which cot is it? And it's wrist card, I can carry them out for you."

Lu Yu Jiang the boss this just felt a little embarrassed, he smiled at the nurse, "No, my wife haven't given birth ye, she's only four months pregnant." He tightly clutched my hand, feeling very embarrassed to say, "We're just having a look....."

The nurse also understand, "No problem, as excepting parents are all excited."

I think, Lu Yu Jiang basically has fallen in my trap. This is the trick of mine, move with affection, I don't believe that his heart is not made out of flesh. Letting him helplessly watch the baby's heartbeat, and then have seen others babies faces, would he still have the heart to execute his own child?

Yes, I am fanning the flames of love, do not think that only the author of a novel can use sensationalism, I also know how ah, but I can make fan sensation towards a favorable direction. Hum, rather than a stepmother that would only use child sensation, isn't this a higher level?

On the way home, Lu Yu Jiang holding my hand, and slowly walking towards the direction of my home, he finally said, "Jing Zhi, I have been very worried about your body, I don't want you to take such a big risk, but today when we look at the babies, the glow on your face, I have never seen that before. I think this is probably the so-called motherhood glow, you're not the same as before. If you insist on having our child, I will not oppose any more. But I hope you consider carefully, because I don't want to lose you."

I have to admit, when Lu Yu Jiang talked about love it sounded very good, although he just said one sentence—— oh no, is only half a sentence, but I am still very happy, "Lu Yu Jiang, when did you start loving me?"

His complexion suddenly became very strange, he tried to avoid my question, "What would you like for lunch? Braised pork in brown sauce?" I loudly asked, "When did you fall in love with me?" Those who walked pass looked back curiously, I'm not afraid of this.

He was forced to shame, "This sort of thing shouldn't be asked on the street? We'll talk when we get home!"

"Turns out you never loved me....." I choked with sobs, "you also don't like my belly's little soy bean....."

"Who said that?"

"You always deceive me, even a major thing such as my illness you deceived me, but run away....."

"All the things I've done is for you, and then I have apologized to you, please forgive me....."

"Would an apology be useful to the police?" I was being overbearing, "you forced me to divorce you, but you didn't even leave ten cents of the property for me, even the house we lived in together, you also calculate....."

"It was you who wanted to divorce me, and besides regarding the house matter, it was also because I wanted to make you stay, so I just let the lawyer specifically with that clause. You see you even implicated me into such measures to make you stay, I was afraid you won't be able to fall sleep in the future.....”

So the cat is finally out of the bag, I thought it was the lawyers who utterly devoid their conscience, even half of the house property they were set so harsh, turns out all along it was this assh*le's doing!

With my hands on my waist I told him in a threatening manner, “Lu Yu Jiang, we're done. The child has nothing to do with you, you want to have a baby go find ‘Koguryo’ to have one with, we would have divorced, one clap two scatters [1]. Now you walk on your broad road, I'll walk on my single log bridge! [2]” [1] 一拍两散 Yi Pai Liang San is an idiom that generally describe the two-party determined to end the relationship.

[2] 你走你的阳关道, 我过我的独木桥: You go your way and I'll go mine.

Mentioning ‘Koguryo’, Lu Yu Jiang cannot help but quarrel with me again, he lowered his head and pulled my hand, “It was only because I was cornered by the old madame, I had to catch ‘Koguryo’, and take her home to comfort my mother. You know that my mother have heart disease, once I told her that we're divorce, she almost admitted into the hospital, she forced me to quickly and find a girlfriend, so I.....”

Contemptible! Shameless!

Chapter 13.2

I was angry: “Then what kind of person do you take Gao Xi Li as? What sort of illness do you men have, you think we woman’s feelings are the mud beneath your feet, however you want to trample over, you can trample over?”

He could only smile: “Why are you speaking up for her.....”

“Why can’t I spoke for her?” Why would women make things difficult for other women, the thing I hate the most is when men still look for an excuse to humiliate women’s feelings. What I love her body, I don’t love her soul, what a night of passion, after they finished playing then flung to the side, in the end the one who’s injured are always the woman!

Lu Yu Jiang said, “You really think she likes me? These few months while I was with her, she used me find a good job, get promotion and a pay rise, and finally she wanted to use my name to juggle with the government bidding. That time when you came to my office, she came to ask for my help, but I refused, so I had to make a clean break with her.”

I didn’t believe it, my eyelids curved with tears almost bursting out, “You and her appeared so affectionate, I even encountered it twice..... She even dares to climb on top of you, very early you two on must not be innocent.....”

Seeing that I wanted to cry, Lu Yu Jiang finally thoroughly nasty, “Jing Zhi, don’t cry, I just wanted to make you angry. Every day you were together with Chi Fei Fan, how can I not be angry? I have nothing going on with her, we just had dinner a few times. If I deceive you then I’m a dog!”

Okay!

The dignified Lu Yu Jiang have anxiously cursed himself, I also estimated was his speaking not far from the truth. All the information I essentially have it on the palm of my hands, and those remaining things, I can also slowly retrieval.

I smile through my tears, and patted his face, “Affliction drama has played out, let’s go home.”

For a long time his soul has not returned, he didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "Ye Jing Zhi, how could you do this to me?"

Hum, I was being easy on you by merely giving you a fright. This is also for the sake of little soy bean, if it wasn't because of little soy bean, I would have even scare you disdain, just you wait you.

I frowned and said, "Who frighten you? I'm pregnant, my mood is ever-changing, do you hope I continue to weep and sob? If you want, I'll cry....."

He was scared that he surrendered, "No, no....."

I finally had little soy bean to make Lu Yu Jiang yearning. Now he treats me well, whatever I want he'll have to buy for me, whatever I want to eat he will have to make for me, he cannot quarrel with me, but also coax me all day. Even if I say that the moon is a square, he would say, well, there seems to be a little corner.....

Not even two days, I felt so bored that my hair ends were standing. Lu Yu Jiang being like this was terrible, I'm really not used him holding my hands fear that I might fall, afraid of what goes into my mouth. Although I felt very angry, it washed away many years of wrong doing, but our days passed too slow, so I urged him to go back to work, "If you don't manage your company, you'll be out of business!"

"Pei pei, you crow mouth!"

"Who are you referring to?"

His voice suddenly drop eight degrees, and obediently said, "Don't get angry, I was referring to myself."

Tell me your opinion, my days like this how do I continue living? All my bones are bored to tears, I pleaded with Lu Yu Jiang, "You go back to work, I'll be all right here."

The results he didn't let go, "I will never let you be alone, I will accompany besides you."

Resolute and decisive, extremely elegant and valuable.

This man, if his determined to do one thing, ten Dongfeng Cummins [1] will not be able to pull him back.

[1] Dongfeng Automobile Co., Ltd. (DFAC) is a company makes light trucks and auto-mobiles for the Chinese market. In the novel I think Jing Zhi is referring to ten diesel engines produced by this company will not be able to hold Yu Jiang back.

I thought of another way, “Why don’t I go back with you, that way you can work, when you finish work you can come and see me.”

“You cannot go on planes, it’s dangerous! You cannot to take the train, it’s too dangerous! You had better stay here, regarding the matters at the company I have it under control. If not, I can put moved the board conference meetings to Shanghai, besides last year we also opened in Sanya. [2]”

I forget this man heard me mention the baby’s adventures I’ve met on the train that night, he had developed a fear for pregnant women taking the train now. He even indulge in the wildest fantasy to use his own identity as a NPC [3] member, to recommend the NPC member to passed legislation prohibiting pregnant women take the train, in order to avoid accident. He was also not afraid of national expectant mother scolding him, he was simply..... hopeless.

[2] 三亚 Sān Yà is the southernmost city on Hainan Island, and one of the three prefecture-level cities of Hainan Province, in South-east China.

[3] NPC is abbreviation for National People’s Congress.

I am depressed, I am bored, all day long I badgered him, “Say you love me.”

He behaved very frankly, “I love you.”

“From what time did you fall in love with me?”

“Long long ago.”

“How long?”

“As early as when you don’t know.”

I am not at all satisfied with his answer at all, “How long?”

He said, “When you hit me with the ice cream.”

If I believe him—— it’ll be just too strange!

The things he usually does not allow me to do was many, in order for me to avoid bending down to tie my shoelaces, he bought me a bunch of lace-less flat shoes. Every time we went out he would squat down to lift my heel for me, as if I bent down you could see the gleam of little soy bean. As for avoiding certain food there were plenty. I'm not allowed to eat spicy, saying there's too much heat, every day he forced me to eat fish and meat, or else it was eating fruits, causing me to be like a panda, growing plump and round.

As for the check up, he drew a circle on the calendar every time. Regarding the small bean in my brain, he was more cautious than I was, and sometimes when I was nervous about little soy bean in my belly, he tried to comfort me, "everything is fine."

Every time he accompanied me to the hospital for examination, he didn't let me talk to the doctor, in fact I didn't especially think about the small bean in my brain, as long as I mentioned the topic, he would try to change the subject.

I have to consult a psychologist, the results the doctor told me to take the matter seriously, "This is typical anxiety for a expecting father, let him come himself to cooperate with the treatment."

But Lu Yu Jiang simply refused to go to see a psychologist, he also stubbornly defended himself, "I'm not sick."

He is not sick, but I'm almost going crazy because of him.

Thank heavens being pregnant only last for ten months, thank god the small bean in my brain has been safe and sound. I know the stepmother who wrote my story also felt that it's too cruel to give me a terminally illness, so she let me off. But she also deliberately want to give me a hard time, so she set up Lu Yu Jiang to torture me, tortured me until I'm in labor. Just when I was on the verge of collapsing, when I had an argument with Lu Yu Jiang, my stomach finally had movements.

I spent all night in the hospital ward, Lu Yu Jiang already booked the room in advance. The present hospital service is good, and there's also parturient meals options. After I had the small bean in my brain examined, there was no signs of deterioration. The old professor of neurology was amazed, "This is a miracle."

I was thankful that my luck has been good, I encounter the ten percent hope, while I felt lucky I told the old professor, “If you don’t fight for it, miracles will never happen.”

I admit that I am actually very timid, I want a child, but I also want to live, fate forced me to choose one of the two, I can only rush into danger. I also didn’t expect to come out of the cliff unscathed step by step, the so-called miracle was God letting some ray of light through his fingers.

Although it was little, but it was always there.

Very early on we decided on caesarean section, because Lu Yu Jiang was worried about labour being too painful, just in case any mishap may occur to the small bean in my brain. While I was on the train seeing the labor process I was frightened by the scene, I had a psychological shadow within, so pushing the boat along with the current [4], I also nodded agreeing with the caesarean section option.

[4] 顺水推舟 Shùn Shuǐ Tuī Zhōu: Make use of an opportunity to achieve one’s end; make use of the favourable current situation to push matters through with little effort; turn any favourable factors to account so that the least effort would produce the results desired

Even my own due date I did not remember, because I even forget my relatives visiting date (she’s referring to her period), fortunately, Lu Yu Jiang remember, so the doctors calculated, I did not think our baby was so impatient, about a week early, she/he simply cannot wait to come out. But I admire Lu Yu Jiang the most, just taking tonight’s incident as an example, I slept in a dazedly, I just felt a little uncomfortable, he suddenly got up, asked me, “Are you having contractions? Let’s go to the hospital!” I really don’t know how he knew. This man knew me inside out, no wonder I was defeated in his hands for so many years, you must know yourself as well as the enemy, If I won him it would have been too strange.

The caesarean operation was small, the doctor did not give me a general anaesthesia, soon I heard our baby crying, I struggled wanting to turn my head to have a look, “where’s the baby?”

“You’re already someone’s mother, why are you impatient like a child, we just open it and have a little fist stretch out, we will carry the baby to you as soon as possible.” While speaking the doctor hastily wrapped the child and gave her/him to me, “Come, dear one!”

I was lying on the operation table, so I could only to see the child’s face inclined. I did not see what she/he looked like, I could only to see her/him mouth crying very loudly. I don’t know why I was shedding tears, I kissed my baby’s face, so soft, so sweet. This is little soy bean, this is my baby, I finally can see her today, the baby I used my life to give birth to. Not waiting for me to look long enough, the doctor took my baby away.

The operation to take the baby out was not long, but having the stitches done took a really long time ah, this is the only experience I felt about giving birth.

It was only after coming out of the operation room, that I knew I had a daughter, seven jin [5] and six pounds. As soon as I left the operation room Lu Yu Jiang was there waiting for me, leaning on my bed and he said to me, “My daughter is really beautiful, just like you!”

[5] 斤 Jīn is 1/2 kilogram

I never felt I was beautiful, but this moment I believed him, because he was holding my hand, his palm was full of sweat, his forehead was also full of sweat, while waiting outside the operation room he must have be more tense than I was. As he bent to kiss my forehead, there are two drops of warm substances on my brow. This man, unexpectedly also cried. I looked up, he had tears in his eyes, in the moment of being moved I said, “Why don’t we try to have a son in the future, you are your family’s only son of five generations!”

His complexion suddenly changed as he yell at me, “Don’t even think about!”

Such inhumanity!

Chapter 14

So we have finally come to the last chapter of Love Can Do Miracles, it has been a super fast journey. Some loose ends will be tied up, ending on a happy note. I hope you all have enjoyed the novel as much as I did, regardless of the loopholes and flaws Fei Wo Si Cun has created. It's sad to say good-bye to the characters sobs especially Jing Zhi who I have grown to love.

---

Chapter 14

At a time like he also dare to yell at me, he also is not afraid of scaring me this woman who have just given birth.

As expected the doctor glared at him, "Be quiet!"

He obediently closed his mouth, he was even afraid to breathe loudly, while accompanying me to the ward.

He has always keep the old madame in the dark regarding my situation, so he was elated to make the call and announce the good news, I have forgotten that the old madame didn't know I was pregnant. Lu Yu Jiang proudly told the old madame that she has a granddaughter now, almost causing the old madame to have a heart attack, she directly took the fastest flight over. There was also my father and stepmother, after receiving the phone call they were also surprise and overjoyed.

The old madame was so happy holding little soy bean that she was not willing to let go, "Good ah, what a pretty little girl, look this is our Lu family's children, have a look at her big eyes and double eyelids, have a look her long eyelashes, have a look at her nose bridge, and her small mouth..... When she's grown up, she will definitely woo some of big-ticket fellow! They lined up after our girl, but they'll have to ask her grandmother first, fat chance!"

Unexpectedly the old madame had long forgotten about the son of five generation matter, it seems as long as there was sixth generation for the Lu family, that is enough.

The uninvited visitor was Chi Fei Fan and Chen Mo. Chi Fei Fan excitedly become a godfather. Lu Yu Jiang upon seeing him was a little upset, but I don't know why, he would reluctantly agreed to let him become little soy bean's Godfather. As for Chen Mo, he simply came to see me. I am most grateful to him as when I was in distress he let borrowed twenty thousand, so I spoke with excitement: "Vote by papain, react with Hainan opera. The immerse grace of letting me borrow the money I am unable to repay your kindness, either way, I'll give Lu Yu Jiang to you, you can do whatever you want with him!"

Chen Mo ferociously glanced at me and said: "Do you remember that night you were drunk? Your brother-in-law at the airport angrily called asking me to I find you, you puke all over me..... Halfway we met your brother-in-law, you threw up all over him..... You are a scourge!"

"Ah, turns out that night you really did come to save me, I remembered it was you, brother-in-law lied to me!" I refrained myself from speaking, he deceived me, causing me to think that I slept with him, he made me to feel remorse for a long time..... I glanced at Chi Fei Fan, he laughs cautiously, an unexplainable regnant, "See if next time you will also drown your sorrows in wine. If I do not give you a lesson, you won't remember."

Lu Yu Jiang didn't know what we were saying, if he knows even if you peel my skin I wouldn't be able to live..... Just as the nurse said she has to give little soy bean her vaccination, I hurriedly sent Lu Yu Jiang to carried little soy bean away.

Taking advantage of Lu Yu Jiang walking away, I secretly asked Chi Fei Fan, "What evidence do you have against Lu Yu Jiang? He's fond of you, and let you become little soy bean's godfather?"

He secretly told me, "I told him your address in Shanghai, how can he not be fond of me?"

This is a great mystery I didn't want to know, I didn't know how Lu Yu Jiang found me, turns out it was Chi Fei Fan who told him. But how did Chi Fei Fan know? Did a junior of high official really have such great magic power to this point?

Chi Fei Fan said, "The prototype mobile phone I gave you, has a function, even if off, still can make global positioning by satellite, and accurate orientation to no more than five meters radius, so the company all executives refused to put it into the production, they think it invade personal privacy and national security.....”

Holly crap!

I was thinking how I could be found in such a big city with tens of millions of people, where finding a person is more difficult than to looking for a needle in the ocean, turns out I ran away with the most tight GSP.

I looked angrily at Chi Fei Fan, “You tracked me, how can you face me?” He smiled at me, “Do not be angry ah, if I don’t track you, I also don’t know how long you and Lu Yu will painstaking duel for. You see how good things turn out ah, because I meddle in, your family is reunited.”

I felt like I was unable to laugh or cry, “Brother-in-law, what is all this for ah?”

He laughed quite evilly, “You call me brother-in-law, don’t you know why?”

I stared at him, he rubbed my hair, this gesture always reminds me of my elder sister, his tone and elder sister was almost the same, “Silly wench, stupid people have silly blessings, if your elder sister can see you now, she will feel very happy. Lu Yu Jiang that big idiot, made me quite furious. Your elder sister just happens to like him, but she was ill. So he never has not said anything, also accompany with your elder sister until the end, he is a good man. But he didn’t tell you, absolutely excessive abusing a good person becoming an excessive ass*le.”

I was almost abundantly dizzy because of him, “My elder sister..... He.....”

“This ass*le, when I heard he divorce with you, I was hacked! When he wanted to marry you, I specially bought a ticket back to punish him for his crimes... he said so many empty promises, he said from the beginning the one he love is you, however because your elder sister was ill, in order to let her heart feel better, I didn’t say anything. Your elder sister was not her any more, he still wants to marry you. At the time he said that he will be passionately devoted to you, I asked him what does he love about you, he said that he loves how you eat braised pork in brown sauce. This ass*le, not even three years he divorce with you. Hum! I don’t clear this account with him, how do I live up to your elder sister!”

Turns out the one who love my elder sister the most was Chi Fei Fan. Because of elder sister, he has done so many things, but he also help me to find my own happiness.

But even if you beat me to death I also still don't believe that from the beginning the person Lu Yu Jiang love is me ah, it's too dog blood. Oh, well, I know the author arranges my story, she can never go on without using dog blood.

I am very grateful, calling him "brother-in-law", I asked, "Your mother....."

"I have already smooth things out earlier on." Chi Fei Fan smile, "Originally every day she was nagging me to find a girlfriend, so I brought you home, give her a fundamental solution, and then not long ago, I told her you were not well, there's a tumor in your brain, now she can't force me."

I knew he had ulterior motives when he took me home, it was to kill two birds with one stone, I don't know how he is to succeed, he can never be at the shorter end of the stick.

I thought I must carefully interrogate Chi Fei Fan and not fall for his story, although he is my brother-in-law, but he is also a man, man can not to be relied on. So I must make clear, exactly what time did Lu Yu Jiang fall in love with me. I thought it was strange, exactly what time did he take interest in me? If it was before my elder sister pass away, that's too inhumane, if after my elder sister's death, that's still inhumane! If from the very beginning he has taken interest in me, then that's even more inhumane!

The inhumane Lu Yu Jiang will come back soon, but I was listless and very depressed.

Turns outs in accordance with the nurses said, he was holding our child to take the vaccine, when they asked for her birth certificate.

We don't have a marriage certificate, only a divorce certificate, so certainly we wouldn't have a birth certificate.

When I was pregnant we were in a bustle and then I ran away, he found me and then just took care of my health, both of us have entirely forgotten this matter.

So he was like thunderbolt, carrying our child back. I also was also like a thunderbolt, it's the end of the end, my little soy bean was born as an illegitimate child, she doesn't even have a legal status, this is a bolt from the blue! I know the author of the story will not let me off so easily, all these unexpectedly new problems have arisen.

The old madame was more anxious, scolding Lu Yu Jiang, "Serves you right, such a good daughter-in-law, who told you to leave her? You have a child and still not remarry, look at it now! I'm telling you, if my granddaughter does not go into the family registry, henceforth I will not allow you to enter the house!"

From the side Chi Fei Fan watched Lu Yu Jiang and I become dejected and despondent appearance, he laughed and slowly said, "Jing Zhi ah, say at the time like if show you Lu Yu Jiang and your marriage certificate and birth certificate, what do you think Lu Yu Jiang will promise me?"

I haven't replied when Lu Yu Jiang said, "I'll promised you anything." His voice also has not decline, when he reacted immediately, "Anything except the matters regarding the girls."

Indeed he is a crafty old scoundrel, Chi Fei Fan laughs loudly, he took out two red books from the bag, and the birth certificate, "Here, you two sort out the matters you have completely forgotten to do! My god-daughter almost went into the black population, what's the use of having parents like you guys?"

I gave Chi Fei Fan scold cheerful look. Without the party present he still was able to obtain the marriage certificate and birth certificate, my brother-in-law finally has a junior, he is worthy of being my daughter's godfather, this godfather is really not in vain.

This time even Lu Yu Jiang was convinced, very politely said, "Thank you brother-in-law."

"You are welcome." Chi Fei Fan patted Lu Yu Jiang's shoulder, "Don't forget the things you've promised me."

I even have goosebumps on Lu Yu Jiang's behalf, my brother-in-law is too black belly, if he want to calculate a person, it is impossible to guard against him. Who knows what he wants Lu Yu Jiang to do, perhaps it also could be more difficult than those things Zhao Min [1] asks Zhang Wuji [1] to do!

[1] 赵敏 Zhao Min and 张无忌 Zhang Wu Ji were the lead characters on the novel The Heaven Sword and Dragon Saber (倚天屠龍記) written by Jin Yong.

But Lu Yu Jiang was neither humble nor pushy, “Rest assured, since I promised you, so no matter what happens, I will do my best.”

I really wanted to know what Chi Fei Fan will make Lu Yu Jiang do, but I know Chi Fei Fan sense of propriety, it wouldn't be too much. So I also idle to think, after all, the most important now is to take care of my health and take good care of my daughter.

Such a happy ending.

I'm holding onto little soy bean, Lu Yu Jiang went away with a marriage certificate and birth certificate, and then I kissed little soy bean's little tender face.

---

Towards the end of this chapter I have edited and left out some unnecessary things that Fei Wo Si Cun included. Because she start rumbling on about herself as an author from Jing Zhi point of view and honestly so unrelated to the story. I felt like the final chapter wasn't satisfying enough, hopefully the epilogue will make up for it. So stay tune! xx

Epilogue

So the final chapter of Love Can Miracles wasn't that satisfying, so hopefully the Epilogue will make it for up instead. The Epilogue mainly focus on Chi Fei Fan. I'm sure everyone that has been on this journey from the start, wants him to have a happy ending and find new love himself.

---

Epilogue

"I heard that you have a daughter."

Chi Fei Fan raised his eyebrows, looking at the woman across the table, rather is a girl, she is still in school, still young and inexperience. Her dark eyes looked directly at him curiously, her long eyelashes fluttered, like a flower bud swaying in the wind, "Is it true?"

Chi Fei Fan "Hum" a sound, and told her, "I also have a girlfriend, haven't you heard?"

"That's great." She smiled happily, "then you won't take up too much of my time. Why don't you give your girlfriend your schedule. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, or Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, keep Sunday for me, I don't mind."

Chi Fei Fan scrutinized her up and down, "So generous?"

"Oh, anyway we're both on the orders of our parents, on the notion match-making. You, regarding your mother you have no way out of this, and me? Regarding my mother I have no way out of this either. If they want us to fall in love, we will date with vigour and vitality for them to see."

"Have you ever been in love?"

"I've dated, I only once."

"Then what happen?"

She looks a bit depressed, "Then we broke up."

He don't know why he laughed, "Well, from today let us start dating then."

He kept his promise, he only went to see her on Sunday, because Monday she had classes, and Sunday she often had to go back to school. The University Campus garden scenery was picturesque, the loneliness of autumn. Walking down the road with lined tree of fallen leaves, listening to the yellow leaves crush beneath his soles, there are students riding their bicycle jingling past, and then he called her.

That time she didn't bring mobile phone with her, her room-mate answers, "Cen Ge is in the laundry room, wait, I'll call her."

Her name is Ren Cen Ge, her room-mate called her name, it also sound very good.

He stood on the edge of the woods waiting for her, from afar he could see her walking out of the dorm, passing by the flower coming towards him. As usual she was dressed in jeans and a T-shirts, because the weather was chilly she wore a winter coat on the outside, with her short hair, at first glance she looked like a little boy, in fact she actually look like a doll with delicate features, crystal clear. Seeing him she told him, "Oh, today our dormitory students all known of your existent, they want you to shout them out for dinner."

He asked, "Do you wash your own clothes?"

"Yes, I'm too lazy to take them home, so I hand wash them instead."

"What does your classmates want to eat?"

"They want to eat Pizza Hut."

It's been many years since he ate pizza, the last time was when he was still abroad and ordered take away. But if he does accompanied her classmates to eat pizza, Ren Cen Ge will be very happy, at least it will be different from usual when it was just the two of them, a group of little girl chatting away from the topics of "Painted Skin" to "Connected", finally she turned around, and asked him, "After we're finished eating, we'll go see a movie, okay?"

"Okay, my treat."

Three other girls all smiled, "That we feel too shy."

Going to watch "Painted Skin", he went to buy back some popcorn and cola drinks, the three girls kept a distance from him, only she stayed in the same position waiting for him.

“They said they don’t want to be light bulbs.” She took the bucket of popcorn, “could you sit with me.”

He didn’t think she would cry. Chen Kun (he acted as Wang Sheng (王生) [1] in Painted Skin) said, “If she’s a demon, I must kill her, but as a husband, I can give up?” First she sniffed, then rustling cried. The screen light flashed, with tears in her eyes, he wanted to take out some tissue to give her, unexpectedly she grabbed his sleeve, all of a sudden cry. In a very depressed choked voice, like puppies, or like other small animals sobbing. He took out a tissue and gave it to her, she tried to stop her tears, but her tears flowed endlessly. After a while, Chen Kun said to Xun Zhou (she acted as Xiao Wei (小唯) [2] in Painted Skin), “I love you, but I already have Pei Rong [3].....” Suddenly she sat up straight, crumbled up her tissue and stopped crying.

[1] Wang Sheng (王生) is a General in Painted Skin, he is in a love triangle with Pei Rong and Pang Yong.

[2] Xiao Wei (小唯) is actually a fox spirit who feasts on human hearts to maintain her lovely and youthful appearance.

[3] Pei Rong (佩蓉) is Wang Sheng’s wife in Painted Skin.

After a long time he still think this is funny, originally she was crying with full of grief, suddenly she abruptly ceased her tears. It seems that a young girl’s tears are worthless, they can be easily grieve and then easily act as if nothing happened.

Her so-called of dating was to meet every Sunday, sometimes she took hold of his hand, however he also felt like their were siblings. The way she treated him wasn’t like how men and women would interact, sometimes she would tell him what happened during school, she regarded him as a friend and a teacher.

Not warm not cold, just like a cup of lukewarm water, she will never make a person feel discomfort.

One weekend, he took little soy bean to the amusement park, and bump into her. She looks similar as he usually saw her, looking like student wearing a T-shirt, jacket, shoes, short hair, from behind she look like a thin little boy. He can tell that she never dressed herself up when she went out with him. Seeing little soy beans, she is very patient, squat down to play with little soy bean, little soy bean also liked her very much, wanting Cen Ge to hold her.

She took a little soy bean on the merry-go-round, making little soy bean so happy that she was giggling.

Finally, little soy bean was tired and fell asleep, he sat on the bench with the baby, she bought two ice cream, handing him one.

He asked, "Why did you come to the amusement park to play?"

"I wanted to play, so I came, and there's no law that says college students are not allowed to play at the amusement park." Paused and she said, "your daughter is very pretty, but it appears she looks more like her mother."

He smiled, "She is very much like her mother."

Also a bit like her aunty, especially her eyes, and her sparkly long eyelashes, which always made him feel there is a weak place in his heart. Such a young child, just like an Angel. Every time I took her out to play, he felt his heart was at peace. No wonder Ye Jing Zhi has proudly said, "My daughter is the cure!"

"Cure" he does not know, Ye Jing Zhi impatient, let him "Baidu", he really go "Baidu".

A lot of high noun made him dizzy, he understand about all the chicken soup is for the soul..... Little soy bean is chicken soup for the soul, this is what Lu Yu Jiang said.

So he often take little soy bean out to play, even if Lu Yu Jiang like that, but he is the child's godfather, everyone felt helpless with him.

She bit her ice cream, told him, "My boyfriend and I broke up in here."

He 'Oh' a sound, "If it's a sad place, why you come here again?"

She was eating her ice cream, her voice was somewhat vague, "Even if I'm sad again, what can I do?"

He took a bite of the ice cream, it was cool and sweet, it's been a long time since he tried this taste.

She asked him, "Why didn't you get married?"

He didn't know why, but he told her the truth, "I once loved a person, very fond very fond, loved until I couldn't stop, but continue to love."

"She married someone else?"

"No," he stroked little soy bean's black hair, in a low voice, "she's not here any more."

Her big black eyes stared at him, gradually have a flawless compassion, and finally she said, "I'm sorry."

"Never mind, it's already been several years." He ate his ice cream, it was ice cool, his teeth was aching, "When she left I wasn't by her side, but I know, she was very happy, very happy. So even if I cannot be at her side, I also felt very satisfied."

For a while she did not speak, finally she finished her ice cream, with the cool sticks in her hands, like a little finger, her skin slightly concave, unconsciously playing games. Her voice sounded very regretful, "I always thought that in this world there was no such affections like that." Looking back, she smiled at him, "My ex-boyfriend, also said he loves me very much, but then he fell in love with someone else."

He said, "This is a common thing."

She nodded, "But at that time, I was very proud. I thought that I treated him with my undivided attention, why did he change?"

"Love is not equal, the amount you give out, does not necessarily be how much you'll harvest in-return."

She sigh, "You're right, but I took a long time to understand, but also waste a lot of time to acceptance the facts."

"Being young," He said disapprovingly, "of course it is like that."

Suddenly she playfully smiled, "Hey, you're only eight years older than me, why you use this elder tone of act?"

"Eight years are a long time, when I was eight years old, you were just born."

She pitifully looked at little soy bean and said, "I thought because of her, so you had a dispute over precedence with your family, unexpectedly it is another story."

"She is my god-daughter."

"Ah?"

As expected he saw her surprise reaction, he laughed, "I have said before, I once loved a person, very fond very fond, loved until I couldn't stop, but continue to love."

She stared at him, finally, ask, "You still love her?"

He nodded.

She sigh, "It's not that there isn't any good men, they exist only in the novels and movies, very rare in reality, very early they would have been taken by someone."

He raised his head, looked at the high clear blue sky, "Destiny. Who knows, maybe tomorrow you will encounter him."

She laughed too, her eyes curved, "If there's bread, if there's a prince, if there's colorful auspicious clouds, there will be love."

After a few days suddenly had a strange number called him, at that time he was in a meeting, so he didn't answer. He waited until the meeting was finished before he returned the call, it was her room-mate, the girl very anxiously told him, "Cen Ge have a fever, I just took her to the hospital."

He went to the hospital emergency department, he found the noisy observation area, among the row of people he saw Ren Cen Ge. Because of her high fever, her face was red, like a kindergarten kids putting on a show so they paint their face rouge, causing a person pity her.

She spoke breathlessly, saying one word she would have to stop for a while before continuing, "Cold, rhinitis also occurred....."

Her room-mate also have classes in the afternoon, so he stayed behind to take care of her. The two of them sat side by side on the chair, watching the medicinal liquid dropping along the drip tube, a little bit down. He asked, "How come you didn't inform your family?"

She sniff her nose that hardly had any ventilation and said, "My parents are busy, they will tell their secretary to come and have a look, why bother."

"Why don't we change to a hospital with fewer people?"

"No need, it's just a cold."

He gently looked at her, in fact she and many twenty year old girls were the same, study in University, had a passion love dating experience, had parents who are busy with work, spend more time together with their friends. They wasn't fragile, will wash their clothes, and take the subway home. They will study hard for the level six exams, once they passed the exam they will be jubilant, hearing there places for exchange will bring it up freely with them, and then did not want to fight.

"Overseas is boring, during my childhood I spend two years in Germany with my grandparents, it was very boring." She said, "Domestic is good."

Outside the window, on the grassland there were doctors who accompanied their patients back and forth, the sun gradually set, the late autumn sun shines through the windows, excluding a gentle warmth. Then she fell asleep, like a small tumbler, one moment she will title over here and the next tilted over there, all of a sudden her lips and cheeks is still red, looking more like a child. He stretched out his hand over her shoulder, she finally was safely on his shoulders, deep asleep.

When they pulled out the needle there was a little pain which her woke up, he quietly became a moving paralytic shoulder. Her fever is gone, her cheeks still had a little bit of pink, like apple, with a thin layer of cream apple fruit in autumn. She said, "Uh, I'm really hungry."

"What do you want to eat?"

"Congee....." She said, "in the romance novel, when the heroine is ill she'll eat a bowl of porridge."

She's still a kid, still reading romance novels. He said, "I'll cook it for you."

She was surprised with her mouth hanging open, even more like a child, then she said, "Don't be so good, I'm afraid I will fall in love with you."

"Besides the two of us are dating, even if you fall in love with me I also don't mind."

"But you don't love me, then wouldn't I suffer....."

The results she muttered until they arrived at his home. He cooked up a pot of fragrant rice porridge, and then took two cucumber, pickled a chili bean curd, sour and cool, the two of ate the pot of porridge, ate until they were full and warm.

It's the first time she's been in his house, after she was full she began to explore, "Your house is really clean."

"The house keeper cleans it."

"This word on the wall....."

"My own writing, very alike the imitation, right?"

The two giggled and smile, she said, "Why don't you write me one, I'll take it back and hang it in my bedroom above my bed."

He said: "Okay, what do you want me to write?"

"Ren Jun Mo said Ren Cen Ge." She said, "These seven words."

He said: "The tonal doesn't make sense, the words use is too shallow."

She said: "This is my grandpa's poetry!"

He was very surprised, it inconvenient to continue criticizing, she bursts into a laugh, "In fact, my grandpa's poetry is really bad. My uncle said to give him a collection of poems. My mother said, forget it, he is a first-class painter, poor poet, poetry also does not let people joke? These poems, are merely at home for us to look."

"Your name is because of this poem?"

"Yes," she said, "Just another Cen word, my cousin called Ren Cen Xin."

"Ren Cen Xin is your cousin? She is my cousin's daughter-in-law."

"It can't be true? We are relatives?!"

“Cement old ties by marriage, be good, call me Uncle!”

“Hum!” Without any cause or reason she has gain a generation, Ren Cen Ge looked very unhappy. Finally he sent her back to school, all the way she did not speak. After they arrived at the school, he opened the door for her, she suddenly stand on tiptoe near his face ferociously gave him a kiss, and startled him. She took a step back, her sly big eyes twinkled and gleamed, “I kissed you, you are my boyfriend, then we are equals in generation, don’t ask me to call you uncle!”

Not waiting for a response from him, she ran into to the dormitory.

The dormitory lights flick on, a window like bright eyes. He touched his cheek, touching the place where she kissed him feeling a gentle sense of touch, like the wind in the spring night, mixed with the breath of flowers, intoxicated.

On Sunday again, they went to the movies. The new series of “Butterfly Sword”, funny martial arts and subversion, finally ending with a happy reunion. This time Ren Cen Ge did not cry, while eating popcorn she said, “Good, Butterfly Lovers are happy.”

He said, “If Fei Wo Si Cun stop writing tragedies, life will be fulfilled.”

She almost choked to death on her popcorn: “You also know who Fei Wo Si Cun is, you read romance novels?”

“She’s just a poor little romance author, I wouldn’t read them.”

“Then how do you know?”

“Yesterday I accompanied Jing Zhi to watch this movie, she said it.”

“You already seen it yesterday? Who is Jing Zhi?”

“I once said.....” He turned his face towards her, on the big screen light reflected into his eyes, his eyes are black, very focused, “I once loved a person, very fond very fond, loved until I couldn’t stop, but continue to love.....”

She asked: “She is not here?”

“Yes, Jing Zhi is her younger sister.”

She asked: “Why did she go to the movies with you? She has no one to accompany?”

“What do you want from asking that?”

“I’m jealous ah, you are my boyfriend.” She plausible said, “When you and I are together, you’re not allowed to think of others!”

He smiled: “Why are you so stingy, and you don’t love me.”

She pulled out her hands and reached for his face: “Who says I don’t love you?”

Her lips are very light, very warm, like feathers, light and fluffy, brushed his lips, and his heart.

He gently breath, very quickly he was moved by the sweet and warm atmosphere, overcome by his feelings he took the back of her head, unexpectedly kissed her deeply. Closely related to each other and mutually dependent, strange and familiar, dizziness and blurred his feelings rushed up, causing him to hungrily wilder.

The screen has reached the last subtitles, the theme music came on.

A happy ending.
